DEBATE IS TO BE LIMITED

Secretary Hay introduces a Closure Resolution Which the Senate Will Pass.

We have the Senate in session. The Senate will adjourn at once, Mr. President, unless a closure resolution is passed.

This resolution provides that all bills and amendments to bills shall be considered at once, and that no further amendments shall be allowed.

It is hoped that the Senate will pass this resolution, and that the House of Representatives will do likewise.

The President: The Senate is in session. The Senate will adjourn at once, unless a closure resolution is passed.

The Senate passes the closure resolution without any opposition.
