Mr. Gallinger's Efforts to Incorporate a Philippine Prohibition Clause -House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 .- Just before 6 o'clock this evening the Senate finally disposed of the army reorganization bill. The measure having originated in the Senate, the final question was not upon its passage, but on agreeing to the Senate amendments. They were agreed to by a vote of 43 to 23. While party lines were drawn on the measure, four Democrats voted for it-Senators Lindsay of Kentucky, McLaurin of South Carolina, Morgan of Alabama and Sullivan of Mississippi. Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, who was detained at his home by illness, was paired against the bill with Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin.

The bill has occupied practically the entire attention of the Senate since the 3d of January, when it was made the unfinished business. While the opposition to it at all stages was vigorous, it never was bitter. Numerous amendments were made to it, but in general the committee was sus tained and the measure, with the exception of the elimination of the canteen clause, is not widely different from that reported to the Senate. A determined effort was made to-day to amend the bill so as to provide against the sale of liquor in the Philippines and to prohibit the importation of any kind of intoxicants into the Islands, but it was defeated. A notable speech was delivered during the day by Mr. Hale, of Maine, who, while opposing the increase in the strength of the army, stated cogently his reasons for supporting the bill. Every effort to prevent the increase in the strength of the army was defeated by a decisive majerity. As the bill originated in the Senate, it will now go directly to the conference committee appointed by the two branches of Congress.

VOTING ON AMENDMENTS. Mr. Mallory offered an amendment striking out Section 26, empowering the President to maintain the enlisted force of the army at the maximum strength during the present exigencies of the service or until such time as Congress may hereafter direct. The amendment was rejected-26

Mr. Money proposed an amendment, providing that the provisions of the pending bill should remain in force only until July 1, giving commemorative services were held 1903, after which time the army should be in the churches. The historic quarter be reduced to the number provided by law prior to April 1, 1898. Rejected-25 to 39.

the bill disclaiming any intention on the cial interest was excited by the comcept for the purpose of pacification and service in the garrison church, to which thereafter to leave the government of the islands to their people. Rejected-22 to 43. Senators Lindsay, McLaurin and Sullivan voted with the Republicans against the amendment.

A motion by Mr. Pettigrew to strike out Section 32 of the bill providing for the enlistment of Filipinos was rejected, 24 to 41. as was an amendment by Mr. Daniel to fix the pay of native officers and men at the same rate paid to Americans.

Mr. Spooner suggested an amendment leaving the fixing of the pay of native troops to the discretion of the secretary of war. It was agreed to,

Mr. McComas suggested several amendments which were agreed to. They strike out the age limit for volunteer officers to be examined for the grades of captains and first or second lieutenants and to include in the eligibles for such examination volunteer officers who served prior to 1898

Mr. Gallinger offered his amendment providing that the veterinarians authorized by the bill have the rank and allowances of a second lieutenant. It was rejected. Mr. Gallinger withdrew his amendmen providing for a chief veterinarian with the rank of major.

PROHIBITION DEFEATED. Mr. Gallinger then offered a new section to the bill, providing that all licenses for the sale of liquor in the Philippines hereto fore granted be revoked, and that none hereafter be granted, and that the importation of beer, wine and distilled spirits into the islands be prohibited. The amendment was rejected, 25 to 43. The de talled vote follows:

Yeas-Allen, Bacon, Baird, Berry, Clay, Daniel, Deboe, Dillingham, Frye, Gallinger, Hale, Hansbrough, Harris, Jones of Arkansas, Lodge, McCumber, Mallory, Sullivan, Talleferro, Teller, Tillman, Towne,

Nays-Aldrich, Allison, Baker, Burt, Burrows, Caffery, Carter, Chilton, Clark, Culberson, Dolliver, Elkins, Foraker, Foster, Hanna, Hawley, Kean, Kenny, Kyle, Lindsay, McLaurin, McMillin, Mason, Morgan, Penrose, Perkins, Pettus, Platt of Connecticut, Prichard, Proctor, Quarles, Rawlins, Scott, Sewel, Shoup, Simon, Spooner, Stewart, Thurston, Turner, Warren, Wel-Wetmore-43

The amendment of Mr. Lodge, prohibiting the importation into the Philippines of distilled liquors, except for medicinal pur-Poses, was rejected-23 to 41

Mr. Gallinger then offered his amendment in modified form, providing that the liquor licenses heretofore granted in the Philipoines be revoked and that none be granted hereafter. Rejected-20 to 41.

An amendment offered by Mr. Lodge, fixing the allowances for clothing and rations of the native Porto Rican soldiers

Mr. Bacon proposed an amendment striking out of the bill the paragraphs authorizing the President to increase the number of men in any company of infantry, any troop of cavalry or any battery of artillery to the maximum. Rejected-22 to 43.

Many amendments changing the bill in minor particulars were offered, but as a rule they were rejected without division. The measure having originated in the Senate, the question was then upon agreeing to the bill as amended. The motion to agree was adopted-43 to 23-the detailed vote being as follows:

Yeas-Aldrich, Allison, Bard, Burrows, Elkins, Foraker, Foster, Frye, Gallinger, Hale, Hanna, Hansbrough, Hawley, Kean, Kyle, Lindsay, Lodge, McComas, McComber, McLaurin, McMillan, Mason, Morgan, Penrose, Perkins, Platt of Connecticut, Pritchard, Proctor, Quarles, Scott, Sewell, Shoup, Simon, Stewart Sullivan, Thurston Warren, Wetmore-43.

Nays-Allen, Bacon, Bate, Berry, Caffery, Chilton, Clay, Cockrell, Culberson, Daniel, Harris, Jones of Arkansas, Kenny, Mallory, Pettus Rawlins, Taliaferro, Teller, Tillman, Towne, Torley, Turner, Wellington

The measure was sent to conference between the two houses, Senators Hawley (Rep., Conn.), Proctor (Rep., Vt.) and Cockrell (Dem., Mo.) being appointed conferees on the part of the Senate. On motion of Mr. Hawley the Senate then, at 5:50, ad-

FILIBUSTER IN THE HOUSE.

Effort to Prevent Consideration of the Cramp Sons' Claim.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 .- The House spent the entire day on the bill to refer to the Court of Claims the claims of the William Cramp Sons' Ship-building Company, of Philadelphia, for alleged damages due to the delay of the government in furnishing armor plate and material for the battleships Massachusetts and Indiana and the cruisers New York and Columbia. The claims aggregate $1,367,244. The bill has been conspicuous at every session of Congress for several years. It met with th strenuous and determined opposition of a portion of the minority under the leadand Mr. Robb, of Missouri. A filibuster was finally begun but its advocates at length succeeded in having the previous question ordered upon the bill. The House then adjourned. The ordering of the previous question gives the bill a tactical advantage in a parliamentary way which practically insures a vote upon it whenever it is called up again.

Comments of the London Press-Preparations for Taking the Queen to the South of France.

LONDON, Jan. 19.-Alarming rumors were in circulation yesterday in regard to Queen Victoria's health, but they were al denied. It was admitted, however, that Her Majesty was not as well as usual finally the following official anonuncement ership of Mr. McDermott, of New Jersey, regarding the Queen's health was made from Osborne:

"The Queen has not lately been in her usual health and is unable, for the present, to take her customary drives. The Queen, during the past year, has had a great strain upon her powers, which has rather told upon her nervous system It has therefore been thought advisable by Her Majesty's physician that Her Majesty should be kept quiet in the house and should abstain for the present from BUT IS TOLD THE APPROPRIATIONS transacting business."

Yesterday afternoon it was reported that the members of the royal family had been summoned to Osborne, Isle of Wight, the Queen's winter home, but this proved to be untrue, for the Prince of Wales remained at Mariborough House and the Duke of York went to Sandringham in the afternoon. The Associated Press communicated with Osborn House at 6 o'clock last evening, and the master of the Queen's household, Lord William Pelham Clinton, replied that he was unable to dis-DECORATIONS cuss the matter, but that a statement on the subject would appear in the Court Press received assurances from the For- was called largely because of Senator Moreign Office that there was no reason for gan's importunities in behalf of the bill, apprehension regarding the Queen's health.

TROUBLED WITH INSOMNIA. In spite of the denials the rumors alarmed the public and adversely affected the Stock Exchange. According to a Cowes telegram the Queen was not well on Thursday and had not improved yesterday, but later news from Cowes said the Queen had been suffering from insomnia, but was better last evening. Sir Francis Hacking, surgeon to Her Majesty, has been called in to consult with Sir James Reid, Her Majesty's resident physician.

Although it is fully understood there is no cause for alarm beyond what would naturally be felt at the indisposition of any one of the Queen's age, the official announcement issued last evening has caused a shock to the country, the effect of which it would be difficult to exaggerate. Majesty's absolute freedom from illness during the longest reign in English history more than mortal; and the mere novelty of alone suffices to create unnecessary apprehension. It is necessary to go back to a date prior to 1820 for a similar situation. Since that time there has never been an interruption of the smooth working of the constitutional machine. No one, not even the Prince of Wales, can act for the Queen without the authority of Parliament, and, as no steps have been taken to summon Parliament, it may be taken for granted that her Majesty's physicians have only adopted measures of precaution and that she is still able to sign any absolute imperative documents, although relieved of the worries of routine affairs. The illness of the Dowager Empress Frederick, of Germany, the sudden death of her Majesty's old friend, Lady Churchill together with the death of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg, last summer, and of Prince Christian Victor subsequently, and the incidents of the war in South Africa, have been great trials to the Queen; but, even within a week, she has received Lord Roberts and sent a message of condolence to the widow of Dr. Creighton, late Lord Bishop of London.

The decision was reached after an hour and a half spent in and an earnest effort was made to effect a was a general exchange of views and many speeches were made, but after all had been said, the senators concluded that so long as Great Britain's attitude toward the amendments to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty is undefined, it would not be wise or expedient to agitate the question of the construction of the proposed canal. After the conclusion of the caucus, Senator Allison, as its chairman, gave out the following official statement concerning the object of the caucus and the result of deliberations: "Senator Morgan, of Alabama, chairman of the committee on interoceanic canals, made a request of the Republicans of the Senate that a day be fixed by order of the Senate for consideration of the Nicaragua canal bill. Among these were the ship subsidy bill, the war revenue reduction bill, the confirmation of Mr. Harlan, as attorney general of Porto Rico, the ratification of the treaty with Spain for the acquisition of some of the Philippine islands, not included in the original Paris treaty, and the appropriation bills.

Senator Hanna expressed his desire to have the ship subsidy bill passed on during the present session, and said that with the army bill out of the way, he should ask that the decision arrived at early in the session to press the subsidy bill. adhered to. There were several responses and all were in accord with Mr. Hanna's request. Maximum Penalty Under New Jersey Law Is Thirty Years in Prison

-Judge Dixon's Charge. NEW YORK, Jan. 18.-Walter C. McAlister, Andrew J. Campbell and William Death, three of the four persons indicted for the murder of Jennie Bosschieter, a mill girl of Paterson, N. J., who was murdered on the night of Oct. 18 last, were tonight adjudged guilty of murder in the second degree, for which, according to New Jersey law, the maximum penalty is thirty years' imprisonment. The jury took fourteen ballots. When they filed into the courtroom the prisoners appeared very nervous. McAlister seemed more excited than any of the others. He sat biting his lips while waiting. Campbell thrust his hands into his trousers pockets and clinched his fists in them.

of the court to apply the law. The defendants are charged under one count of the indictment of murder in the first degree. There is a second count that on the fendant is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. If he be proved guilty of the higher crime it is murder in the first degree. If there is a reasonable doubt he may be convicted of the lower grade of crime or acquitted. On you rests the responsibility of any question of facts. I call offle road, where the girl was taken from the hack. The State contends that she was insensible, and that while in this condition she was lifted from the carriage and placed on the blanket. Because of what was done there a finger ring was torn from her cut finger and a pin fell from her dress. These occurrences may show some light on to take in Detroit instead. The other that to the officers. The defendants deny the assault. It is to be considered whether these men had any motive to swear falsesaloon and after they had gone out throws some light on this. The legal rule as to the confession of Death is that it is only evidence as to his own guilt, but cannot be used against the other defendants. when you are weighing the evidence Death and Campbell you should also consider the testimony of the officers. If it be not proven that any of these defendants had connection with Jennie on the Rock road, then there was no rape. But if they had while she was insensible, then they are guilty, even if only one of them ravished her. If she, by her voluntary drinking, had made herself insensible to her surroundings and any one took advantage of her condition, rape was committed. 'Now for the graver charge of murder. It is charged that in Saal's saloon she was so that some of the defendants might have carnal connection with her If at the Rock road the crime was committed it is easier to believe that the preparation for it was made in Saal's saloon McAlister, it is said, ordered four drinks and then took them into the room him-Then the hackman took the officers found it contained chloral hydrate. She became sleepy and gave all the symptoms of chloral poison. The poison into the girl's drinks. Dr. berg says he did not find chloral hydrate. Witthaus said he was not satisfied with any one test and tried all. It was reasonable that he should try all. It must be remembered that the charge was a grave one and that it involved life and death. It must also be remembered that punishment was to be given, but there must be no fear or favor in the verdict. You must determined by the jury if all were equally guilty and were equally concerned. The jury must say whether the verdict, i it be one of guilty, was in the first or second degree, and I pray God to give you guidance aright to a just verdict.

Indiana's capital joined with sister cities of the State yesterday in doing honor and reverence to the memory of the "second war Governor," James Atwell Mount, whose sudden and tragic death Wednesday sympathy to sweep the State. Early yesterday morning hundreds of people began pouring into the city from various cities and towns over the State. Only a man who had lived the life that James A. Mount lived and served his State and country as he did could be the magnet of such throngs as filled the city all through the day. The entire city was in mourning. Everywhere that a flag floated to the breezes it was at half mast in respect to the dead chief magistrate. All who could leave their posts of duty were on the streets when the funeral cortege passed, and followed it the immobile features of the man so much admired and esteemed in life. The remains were taken from the Denison Hotel to the Capitol building at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, accompanied by an imposing military escort. The line of march was south on Pennsylvania street to Market street, west on Market and around the Circle to the east entrance of the Statehouse, through which the casket was taken
