LONG SESSION OF THE SENATE.

Bills Passed During the Day and Ships Discussed at Night.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.-Two important measures were disposed of by the Senate to-day, the Military Academy appropriation bill and the war revenue reduction measure. The former was under consideration less than an hour. The only change made in it was the strengthening of the provision against hazing at West Point, by adoption of the following amendment:

"That the superintendent of the Military Academy shall make such rules, to be approved by the secretary of war, as will effectually prevent the practice of hazing and any cauet found guilty of participating in, or encouraging or coun enancing such | Williams, of Mississippi, opposed the appropractice shall be summarily expelled from priation for special mail facilities to the the academy, and shall not thereafter be reappointed to the corps of cadets or be the appropriation and Mr. Cowherd, of Miseligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the army or navy.'

During the remainder of the afternoon session the war revenue reduction bill was before the Senate. A determined, but ansuccessful, effort was made to reduce the tax on bank checks and to provide that telegraph and express companies should bear the burden of the tax on messages and packages sent. The finance committee's amendment levying a tax on transactions in so-called "bucket shops," modifying the tax upon cigars and cigarettes, and providing for a rebate on unbroken packages of tobacco, in addition to several others of a minor character, were adopted. An amendment substituting an income tax for the war revenue measure, offered by Mr. Mor-gan, was rejected by a party vote, 21 to 38.

When the bill was taken up to-day Mr. Aldrich said no written report had been submitted, but he would explain the committee's action after he had perfected the measure. The first amendment added to the words "promissory notes" (providing for the repeal of the stamp tax on such instruments) the words "and any renewals thereof." The second modified the paragraph removing the stamp tax on bonds, making it read as follows: "Bonds of every description, not including, however, the bonds provided for in the first paragraph of Schedule A of said act, or bonds or indemnifying any person or persons, firm or corporation who shall have become bound or engaged as surety for the payment of any sum of money, or for the due execution or performance of the duties of any office or position, and to account

The next amendment included "perfumeries and cosmetics" in the section providing for a penalty for failure to affix stamps to medicinal and proprietary preparations. It was agreed to, as were other | Beveridge. amendments, as follows:

Providing for a rebate upon unbroken packages of cigars and tobacco; authorizng the cancellation of stamps on fermented iors by perforation; reducing by onehalf the tax upon foreign bills of exchange; for the appointment of a competent person to secure the enforcement of the tax mposed upon legacies and distributive shares of personal property; providing that the purchase of an uncompounded medicinal drug upon which the tax already has been paid shall not be required to pay further tax.

The amendment of the committee fixing the tax upon transactions in stocks through so-called "bucket shops" was agreed to, with an amendment offered by Mr. Mason providing that a tax of 2 cents instead of cent "on each $100 in value of the merchandise covered or pretended to be cov-

A committee amendment modifying the tax on cigars and cigarettes in accordance with the proposition made previously by Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, was agreed to. Mr. Allison offered an amendment exempting from the tax levied upon life insurance companies "any post mortem assessment association organized and conducted solely for the members thereof.' In response to an inquiry by Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, Mr. Allison said the amendment would not apply to any of the recognized life insurance companies, mutual or otherwise. The amendment was agreed to. Mr. Allison, explaining the effect of the bill, said that according to calculations of the committee the reductions of the revenues made by the bill would amount to $39,800,000. This calculation did not, however, take into account the effect of the dment for taxing "bucket shops" which the Senate to-day had incorporated in the bill. He had been informed that there are 25,000 of these "bucket shops" in the United States. If each one should pay $400 the government would derive $10,000,000 at $30 per month. An amendment was agreed to providing that the tax on new banks shall be computed from the time the institutions begin An amendment offered by Mr. McComas, of Maryland, was agreed to providing that the internal revenue commissioner should place the stamps provided for in the bill on sale at the postoffices of the country.

After the rejection of several amendments the bill was passed without division and a recess taken until 8 p. m. When the Senate reconvened at 8 o'clock, with Mr. Chandler (N. H.) in the chair, Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, remarked: "By actual count there are just twelve Republican senators present. I suggest the absence of a quorum." At that time eleven Democratic nators were present.

One at a time senators hurriedly entered the chamber, but when the result of the roll call was announced only forty-two had rended to their names. Mr. Frye demanded that the roll of absent senators be called. While the call was in progress several senators entered the chamber, among them Mr. Hanna, who had risen from a sick bed in order to be present. Finally the chair ed that a quorum was present. Mr. Frye then called up the shipping bill and it aid before the Senate.

he entire night session was devoted to continuous round of intellectual pyrotecnnics. Practically every question that has n, or is likely soon to be before the ascussed, but very little tim was devoted to the pending measure. Not-

Instruct Their Members of the Scale Committee to Get Best Terms Possible from Operators.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 6.-The first sign of a break in the stand taken by either side in and miners came this afternoon, when it was decided by the miners that they would recede from the position they took in the Indianapolis convention. At least, they receded to the extent of leaving the miner members of the scale committee free to make the best terms possible, subject to approval before final acceptance. This is ex-

After the joint conference had spent the greater part of the day in discussing the resolution to put the run-of-mine basis in effect in all States the question, after having been once voted down, was referred back to the scale committee. They were instructed to consider the whole matter. The conference then adjourned subject to the call of the committee. It was at this time that the first sign of a concession made its appearance, for the miners asked that the time of the committee's meeting be fixed for 7 o'clock, that they might have oppor-tunity for a conference. This was agreed to by the operators and the miners at once their national officers and the miner members of the scale committee, who were required, however, to report back their act of approval before terms could be finally ac-

CHURCH INNOVATION

Preacher Who Calls for Saints and Grisbel and James Hansen-are sentenced Sinners in Big Advertisements.

ASHTABULA, O., Feb. 6.-The Rev. Dr. Elmer E. Whittaker, pastor of the First | cisco for Manila to take up his new official Methodist Church of this city, has introduced an innovation in religious circles. He advocates the use of large display newspaper advertising, set in heavy blackfaced type, as a means of increasing the number of converts and the attendance at church services. The first test which he gave to this plan had the effect of doubling the size of his congregation. His second advertisement increased the average attendance, 150, on Sunday evening, to 400, which crowded the church.

Dr. Whittaker does not ask the papers to print his advertisements free, nor even at half rates. The newspapers do the work well, he claims, and they should be paid for it. He says the pastor who wishes to reach the business men must place his announce ments where the business men will see them; the advertising columns catch the eye of thousands who do not look in the church notice departments. Dr. Whittaker claims that to be effectual the advertisements must be written in a style to attract the reader. In ten inches, double column at top of column and next to reading matter, Dr. Whittaker's advertisement recently

Name Given a Jesuit Who Induces Spanish Girls to Enter Convents.

MADRID, Feb. 6.-The anti-Jesuit feeling aroused by the recent presentation of the anti-clerical play "Electra," heightens the interest in a case to be tried by the high court to-morrow, in which Senora Ubao appeals to the court for the restitution of her daughter, who, she claims, was induced, under pressure from her Jesuit confessor, to abandon her home during the mother's illness and to enter a convent. The mother asserts that the Jesuit sent the girl letters clandestinely, exhorting her to take the veil. She contends that she has proof that her daughter is under the veritable domination of the priest. In a letter to her betrothed, a young and fervent Catholic, the daughter wrote: "My The steamer Cottage City has arrived at confessor assures me that he cannot save such a match, and it is very doubtful if Seattle from Lynn canal with fifty-eight my soul with you, notwithstanding our Nicholas would grant such a dispensation, Seattle from Lynn canal with fifty-eight passengers. The mother declares that the court can restore the daughter to Helene, daughter of the Grand Duke Vladiher, as the girl has not yet taken her vows. The case is creating considerable excitament, as the family is wealthy and of good social position. The alleged exploit of the Jesuit in question, together with similar alleged successes in inducing young g'rls to take the veil, has secured for him the popular nickname "Father Fishhook.

WELL-MATCHED WRESTLERS.

Struggle Between Roeber and Pons That Ended in a Draw.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 .- For one hour and seventeen minutes, Ernest Roeber, the American champion wrestler, and the French champion, Paul Pons, struggled for supremacy in a roped ring in Madisonsquare Garden to-night. They might have gene on for another hour, but the arbitrary order of Police Inspector Thompson, who declared that he would not allow the bout to go on after midnight, stopped the match in a most unsatisfactory manner at midnight. It was declared a draw.

Pons held the upper hand at nearly every stage of the contest, but he lacked the cleverness of the smaller man, who was never caught unawares at any moment. and Roeber, though by many years the older and in stature far inferior to the big toreigner, more than held his own. That the bout was on the level there can be no question, and the 7,000 people who left the big building had only the warmest praise for the athletes.

Drug Stores in Chicago. CHICAGO, Feb. 6.-Crying out that drugs were the agents of the devil half a dozen women followers of Dowie, the faith-cure leader, adopted the tactics of Mrs. Carrie Nation, to-day, and wrecked a number of drug stores on the West Side. In some instances there were hand-to-hand fights with the druggists. Armed, as they were, with pitchforks, umbrellas and canes, the property wherever they went.

Harrison Will Protect Saloons. CHICAGO, Feb. 6 .- "I don't believe Mrs. Nation is heading for Chicago to wreck saloons," said Mayor Harrison to-day when told that Mrs. Nation had announced her intention of visiting this city with her followers. If she is she had better remain away and avoid trouble. Here a saloon is recognized as a legal institution, entitled to the full protection of the law. As a consequence, it is only proper to say that no assaults on them will be tolerated. If Mrs. Nation, understanding these things, persists in disorderly conduct, inciting riot and malicious mischief, I am afraid she will have to settle fines as fast as she indulges in offenses. Robber Who Escaped from the Tombs Now in an English Prison.

LONDON, Feb. 6.-It has transpired that man in jail, in England, who was sentenced in December last to four years imprisonment for robbing a woman in the streets of London, is Charles Allen, one of the postoffice robbers, who escaped from Ludlow-street jail, New York city, in 1875. The officials of the United States embassy are making inquiries at Washington as to whether the man will be wanted in the United States after his present sentence

Having previously failed in at-tempts to bribe Head Keeper McCabis and Fredericks, a keeper, they held up their guards, having obtained revolvers in some manner never explained. The prisoners locked the guards in cells, and with keys let themselves out of the jail corridor. They reached the street before the imprisoned jailers could raise an alarm. Then, dodging through alleys, into houses, over roots, walis and fences, the three men made their escape. One or the other of them has several times been reported arrested in European cities, but these cap-tures have not been followed by identifica-
