DAILY SENTINEL. Resolutions of the Quarterly Meeting

EDITOR SESTINEL: Under the above head, in the Indianapolis Journal. I noticed the proceed ings of a meeting held at Roberts Chapel on the THE LIBERTY OF THE CITIZEN. 11th inst. One of the resolutions adopted was the following, which is reproduced to show that the getters up of the resolution are guilty of bringing about the causes of which so much sorrow (1) is expressed: "We behold, with feelings of sadness and sorrow, the bitter partisan spirit that is becoming pamphlet form, and can be obtained at this office. This produce heart-burning and bitterness with us as and unnecessary rebellion in our country, and which, if persisted in, is destined to bring anarchy and ruin upon us as a nation.

That all reads well. But the questions that presented thomselves to my mind, after reading the above, were: Of what kind of material is the members of Roberts Chapel Conference composed? Who are the men? Do they preach what the resolution professes, "with feelings of sorrow and sadness?" This Quarterly Conference is composed of men of one idea, who have done more harm than good since they have been loca ted in this Conference District. ACCUMENT COMPANY MANY This battle (Antietam) has been the most san ing all able bodied negroes for garrison duty, guinary of the war, and the only one fought with visible design and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps-the overlooking position of the commanding General-the sending action the right and left divisions-the Important movements of troops were taking closing up of the center-and finally success, excites bewildering admiration, and carries the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wag ram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I Officers just from Vicksburg say that strong- spoken. The heart history of such a conflict purchased by the lives and blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hospitals.
