WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10, 1858.

☞ We are indebted to the courtesy of the officers of the Jackson Benevolent Association for an invitation to attend the celebration of their second anniversary to-day. We shall endeavor to be present.

☞ We are indebted to Dr. Edward Delony, Senator from the Parish of East Feliciana, for a pamphlet headed as follows: "The South Demands More Labor." We have not had time to peruse it, as yet, with that care its importance demands. From our knowledge of the rare abilities of its author, we are sure that it is an able production.

☞ See inside pages of to-day's Crescent. ☜

BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION OF THE SONS OF LOUISIANA.—The second anniversary of this Association is to be celebrated, in a becoming manner, on Sunday next. We have ample assurance, not only from our knowledge of the members and character of the Association, but from what we have heard, that the celebration will be worth seeing and participating in. The officers of the Association have our thanks for their polite invitations to join them on the occasion. A programme of the celebration will be found elsewhere.

COPARTNERSHIP.—An advertisement in another column notifies the public that Mr. Thos. L. Clarke has associated with him in business his brother, Mr. Henry L. Clarke, and that the business of dealing in coffee, rice, India bagging, etc., will be conducted hereafter at Nos. 27 and 29 Natchez street, under the style of Thos. L. Clarke & Brother. We cordially wish the new firm all the success that their correct business habits so well entitles them to.

PROFESSOR VEGAS.—This famous and popular maestro of the terpsichorean art is in town, and announces that he will open his classes at Odd Fellows' Hall on Monday next. We refer to the Professor's advertisement in another part of our paper.

PORTABLE ENGINES AND CIRCULAR SAW MILLS.—The portable steam engines and circular saw mills, manufactured at Fenny Baxter's Eagle Machine Works, Richmond, Va., are among the best, most useful and cheapest machines of modern times. The engines are sold separately, or with the saw mills, and at such prices that no one who has a small spot of such machinery can hope to find a more profitable investment for his money. Mr. Edward M. Ivens, the agent for New Orleans, has sold over sixty of the engines since taking the agency. His office is at No. 2 Union street, and one of the machines is to be seen in operation at No. 38 Perdido street.

The Baxter engines have received a gold medal of honor at the National Agricultural Fair; and the following account of some proceedings in Richmond, in connection with the Baxter Foundry, will be read with interest. It is from the Richmond Dispatch:

Triumphal Procession.—Saturday last was a gala day with the employees of the "Eagle Foundry" of this city, and most heartily did they enjoy it. Two days before, the judges at the National Agricultural Fair awarded Mr. P. Baxter a gold medal of honor, over all competitors, for a fine assortment of machinery at his works, which so much elated his many friends that they determined to have a grand jollification over the success. Accordingly, on Saturday afternoon, the engine was handsomely decorated with flags and wreaths, and innumerable banners were presented by the workmen, to be displayed along the line of march. At 4 o'clock horses were attached to the engine, a band of music was procured, and the employees, preceded by the Eagle Foundry and Mr. Baxter, took up the line of march, and escorted the victorious machine back to the workshop, where an abundance of refreshments were liberally partaken of. About the time of starting, the procession was continuously cheered and applauded, and at the corner of Ninth and Main streets, was warmly greeted by a crowd of spectators, some of whom had hoisted a national flag across the street, and kept it waving in token of triumph, until the throng had passed. The victory of Mr. Baxter is one of which he may well feel proud, and we sincerely congratulate him upon it, as we do the congratulations tendered him on the occasion.

We advise a perusal of Mr. Ivens's advertisement, in another part of our paper.

LATE ARRIVALS.—Late arrivals are always interesting to the community at large; consequently the late arrivals of Henthuysen, Lewis & Co.'s will interest the public in general, and the lady public in particular. The late arrivals consist of the loveliest silks, shawls, laces, embroideries, etc., that have yet been seen in this city, as well as a great variety of fancy-free housekeeping goods, and hosiery, underclothing etc., which the gentlemen should see as well as the ladies. Read the advertisements elsewhere.

DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS.—Dr. C. P. Crane is again in the city, and on hand at his Infirmary, No. 146 St. Joseph street, ready for the calls of all those who may wish to avail themselves of this efficacious treatment which he alone has to offer; that is, the cure of pulmonary and chronic infirmities by electro-chemical inhalation and baths, galvanism, and electro-magnetism. We direct attention to the Doctor's advertisement in another column.

THE NE PLUS ULTRA HAT.—This is a hat which is all that its name imports—the perfection of finish, and the climax of this winter's fashionable style. It is to be had, as a matter of course, at Johnston & Turner's great hat emporium, under the St. Charles Hotel. Gentlemen wishing to blaze should go and see the Ne Plus Ultra.

COOK WANTED.—See advertisement to this purport in another column.

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES.—There is not a finer grocery in this town for supplying families than that of Mr. W. R. Dohan, at the corner of Dryades and Thalia streets. He is always provided with the very best of everything that comes to this market, and in a quarter which enables him to supply a wide radius of the quarter in which he lives. We refer to his advertisement in another column, and advise every body who can to give him a call.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—The retail trade in city and country, planters, etc., will please take notice that one of the largest and completest stocks of boots and shoes now offering in the South, is that of Messrs. S. W. Dunbar & Co., at their old stand, No. 5 Magazine street, to which they have just returned, having been ousted by fire some months ago. We call attention to the advertisement in another place.

BRASS WORK, MACHINERY, ETC.—For all sorts of valuable articles to machinists, planters, millers, etc., go and look through the establishment of Messrs. D. C. Lowber & Co., No. 73 Camp street. The variety of machines and metallic works is great, and every thing is sold at a low rate. See advertisement.

HOUSES FOR RENT.—Two two story residences on Calliope street, between Magazine and Constance, nine rooms each, and possession right away. See advertisement.

A FRUIT STORE WORTH VISITING.—Messrs. R. Vansteenkiste & Co., at No. 4 Front street, do a very large business in the importation of foreign fruit, both green and dried, and are enabled by the extent of their business to deal liberally with hotels, steamboats, families and retail dealers. All the fresh fruits of the West Indies and the dried fruits of the Mediterranean are included in their stock. We refer to their advertisement.

☞ One hour is all the time required to keep the hair of any body or gentleman of a brilliant brown or black color, for the space of ONE YEAR, if CRISTADORO'S EXCELSIOR HAIR DYE be the article used for that purpose. EIGHT MINUTES only are consumed in applying it, and the brilliant and truly natural tint imparted to the hair, whiskers or moustache, lasts at least SIX WEEKS. No wonder that this Dye is displacing all others, both in this country and in Europe.

Sold everywhere, and applied by all hair dressers.

☞ Palpitation of the Heart.—There are many persons afflicted with the above disease, and should give the full, wing their attention.

Thanks to mercy that I have been troubled with the palpitation of the heart for several years, and at times so severe that I could not lie down and sleep at night, and after applying several remedies and finding no relief, I procured of the Agent, P. A. Emfinger, one bottle of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of Philadelphia, and 4 found to myself relief from one. I continued to use it, and now I am perfectly cured of the disease, and I do recommend it to all who may be afflicted with the same disease, as I am satisfied it is a valuable medicine.

Given under my hand, this the 14th day of Oct., 1858.

VALENTINE BAUMGARTEN.

Wayne, Hinton county, Va.

These Bitters are sold by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies and South America, at 75 cents per bottle.

Talk on 'Change.

The Lapland feeling of the weather yesterday gave rise to considerable talk—its general effects (provided there was a hard freeze) on the sugar cane gave rise to some talk also, and some apprehensions were expressed that it might become rather too cold for the general good of the sugar interest. Though some cold weather is highly desirable, yet it often occurs that too much of a good thing might intervene. However, the thermometer did not show anything above 30 yesterday morning. It moderated considerably towards night, and all hopes of a real freeze were banished. There was no more talk about fever, epidemic and so on. There are some cases still lingering, and there may be sporadic cases for another month. People continue to flock into the city, and the talk is, where and how are so many persons to find employment? Certain it is that thousands of mechanics and laborers can find employment, but not one-half of those who come to this city are of this class. There are hundreds of persons arriving of no called profession other than mercantile. Of this class we have a redundancy born on the soil, more than enough to supply the demand for years. Though we have warned this class of persons that there was no employment for them, yet they rush in upon us heedless and regardless of our warnings. We believe if a merchant was to advertise to-morrow for a clerk, he would have one hundred applications before 12 o'clock. Nor is this all. The number of persons out of employment at this time in New York is computed from thirty to fifty thousand, and if they had the means to pay their way to this much abused city of ours, we should have many thousands of them; as it is, there will be more come than is desirable, and many more than will be wanted in any capacity. There are also thousands in Boston and Philadelphia who would be glad to get here.

In the meantime, we continue hourly to greet our returning citizens and absentees. The most of them look almost as well and hearty as if they had remained within the confines of the city all through the summer. The talk is, that business is about to open in earnest, brought about by the resumption of navigation in the upper rivers, though in some of the small streams it is only partial, yet it is ample to move onward a quantity of produce. If crevkors could cause a freeze in the waters above, navigation might be suspended. In the meantime, there will be an immense amount of produce on the way hither. Ice embargoes cannot be expected for some months. The activity and briskness on the levee and the landings, from the upper landing for steamboats and steamships to the Government Wharf, Third District, exceeds anything for the same period for many years past; in fact, we do not believe there ever was so much business going forward at this season in any previous year as there is at this time.

It is hardly necessary to allude to the large receipts of cotton, sugar and molasses, which are daily landed. The sugar depot or landing is in the best of condition, yet we expect to find that notwithstanding the attention of our sugar factors, with the zeal and activity on the part of our gimlet rangers, there will be Planters to cavil and complain. We have contended that this was the best sugar market in the United States. It surpasses all others in prompt returns, cash sales and low charges. We have been favored with an account of sales of 230 hogsheads of New Orleans sugar, sold at public auction in Louisville, week before last, say on the 28th of October—term of sale, four months' credit, as follows:

The stock of old in first hands is very light, and there have been no arrivals of new. Henry & Co. said yesterday at public auction, on four months' credit, 230 hogsheads New Orleans sugar, old crop, at the following prices: 14 hogsheads at 6c., 10 at 6¼c., 6 at 6c., 5 at 6¼c., 5 at 7c., 9 at 7¼c., 7 at 6¾c., 21 at 7¼c., 88 at 7¾c., 8 at 7½c., and 27 at 7¾c.

Now, what would a Louisiana planter say if a factor sold his sugar on four months' credit, even at an advance over cash rates? Yes, what would he say? In New York and Philadelphia the same system of credit prevails, with an endless roll of charges, from a rusty nail to half a days' insurance, and three cents postage.

The Northern mail came through yesterday by both routes. The European mails by the America will probably be at hand on Friday morning, and the Asia of the 30th from Liverpool will be due to-morrow, though she may be intercepted off Cape Race, provided the speculators are awake. The America will leave Boston for Liverpoolon Wednesday next, and consequently to-day is the last day for mailing letters here for a certainty.

Since the above was written the Kangaroo of the 27th has been telegraphed, with one day's later advices. See telegraphic column.

Its use is always attended with the most beneficial results, and in cases of Nervous Debility, Constipation, Flatulence, and other like diseases, caused by a disordered stomach, its curative powers are of the most speedy and powerful character, and exceeds any other preparation of the same claims before the public. For sale by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere. n8 2p6tAW
