Hymn for Christmas. DY FELICIA HEMANS. Oh! lovely voices of the sky
Which hymned the Saviour's birth,
Art ye not singing still on high.
Ye that sang. "Feace on earth?"
To on yet speak the strains
Wherewith, in time gone by
Ye blessed the Syrian awains,
Oh! voices of the sky.

Oh! clear and shining light, whose beams. That hour Beaven's glory shed, Around the palms, and o'er the streams, And on the sirepterd's head.
Be near, through life and death, As in that hollest night of loops, and juy, and faith—Oh! clear and shining light!

Ob I star which led to Him, whose love Bought down man's ransom free— Where art thun 2— inidst he hest above, May we still game on thes? In Heaven thou art not set, Thy rays earth may not dim, Sond them to guide as yet, Oh? star which led to him.

Christmas Day. BY BISHOP HERER. Oh, Saviour, whom this boly morn Gave to our world below; To mortal want and labor born, And more than mortal wo!

Incarnate Word! by every grief, By each temptation tried, Who lived to yield our lis relief, And to rodeem us died!

If gaily clothed and proudly fed, In dangerous wealth we dwell, Remind us of thy manger hed, And lowly cottage cell '.

If prest by poverty severe,
In envious want we pine,
Oh may thy spirit whisper near,
How poor a lot was thine!

Through fickle fortune's various scene From sin preserve us free! Like as thou hast a mourner been, May we rejoice with Thee! Christmas Day. BY HENRY KIKER WHITE.
