NEW INFIRMARY.

DR. REYNOLDS,

THE UNRIVALLED CANCER DOCTOR,

World inform his friends and the public that he has rented and completely fitted up as an Infirmary, the spacious and elegant mansion, No. 19 Baronne street, between Canal and Common streets, where he will devote all his attention to the CURE OF CANCERS in their worst forms, Scald Heads, White Swellings, and Ulcers of every description.

He relies, with much pleasure, to the annexed certificate of MADAM A. CHAPPELL, a well-known and highly respectable lady of this city:

[Copy of Certificate.]
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12, 1861.

This is to certify that the undersigned, a resident of the city of New Orleans for a number of years, and now residing at No. 225 Erato street, had been for a long time afflicted with a Cancer in her breast. In order to have it removed, the undersigned applied to Dr. Warren Stone, who operated on it three different times without effecting a cure. Subsequently, I applied to DR. REYNOLDS, under whose treatment the Cancer was effectually removed, and a perfect cure was made. I enjoy this means of doing justice to Dr. Reynolds, and in order that others, similarly afflicted, may avail themselves of
