

LOCALS

Rev. G. W. Geyer preached at Ash Fork last Sunday evening.

See our latest in the celebrated La Prella-Williams shoe. Ranney & Harrell.

Attorney J. E. Jones, of Flagstaff, was in the city Thursday.

Rev. H. B. Long and T. C. Job, of Prescott, were canyon visitors Tuesday.

FOR SALE.—Lot, 68x140 ft. Best location in town for opera house.

C. P. SILVERNAIL.

C. E. Boyce returned the first of the week from a short business trip to Los Angeles.

Mayor Pollock, of Flagstaff, spent several days in the city this week as the guest of Mayor Pyle.

You will find the best Havana cigar at the Cabinet.

Mr. J. M. Dennis, of the J. M. Dennis Lumber Co., at Maine, was a business visitor in the city Monday.

County Superintendent N. G. Layton was up from Flagstaff last Monday on business connected with his office.

Our line of La Prella-Williams shoes is complete. Prices range from $2.50 to $5.50. We are sole agents for these excellent goods. Ranney & Harrell.

L. L. Ferrall came up from Ash Fork Monday and left for the Grand canyon on a business and pleasure trip.

Genial Harry Laub has been in the city most of the week looking after the commencement of his new business block.

Most any of the best brands of cigars or liquors you can find at the Cabinet.

Mrs. J. W. Thurber arrived from Los Angeles the first of the week where she has been enjoying the summer months.

Mrs. O. C. Lewis left last week for her old home in Utica, Kansas, where she will visit with her parents for some time.

Call in and look over our stock of La Prella-Williams shoes, in tan and black. Prices are right. Ranney & Harrell.

S. S. Derbyshire, of the Williams Hardware and Stationery Co., has been very sick this week with what at first appeared to be mountain fever. However, an iron constitution has triumphed, and he is again attending to his duties.

A. H. HARRELL

General Contractor

STONE AND BRICK
WORK A SPECIALTY

Estimates Furnished

WILLIAMS, ARIZONA

If you enjoy smoking a good cigar, then buy it at the Cabinet.

J. W. Thurber came up from the "cut-off" the first of the week in an effort to benefit his health, which has been poorly of late.

Judge A. C. Baker, formerly chief justice of the territory, accompanied by his son, Alexander, visited the canyon on last Wednesday.

Martin Buggeln, the popular manager of the Bright Angel hotel, at the Grand Canyon, came in Monday, returning again Tuesday.

"Uncle Dave" Finnie was shaking hands with his host of friends around town the first of the week. He is now located in the Jerome district.

B. F. Sweetwood left for the east last Wednesday to purchase new fixtures for the Keystone-Monogram, mention of which was made in last week's issue.

If you are satisfied with any kind of a cigar, then buy it at the first place you come to. But if you want the best Havana goods, go to the Cabinet for them.

E. T. Phelan expects to leave about the 15th of September for Needles, where he will look over the business situation with a view to locating at that place.

Russell Stone, who for some months past has been employed at the Bright Angel trail in the capacity of guide, came in this week for a short visit with home folks.

Miss Anna Nagiller came up from Ash Fork last Saturday evening for a day's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nagiller, returning Monday afternoon.

Dr. A. Tyroler returned Tuesday, last, from a sightseeing and pleasure trip to the Moqui country. The doctor reports a delightful time and a most enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Anna Perkins and children, accompanied by Miss Violet Lewis, daughter of Mrs. O. C. Lewis, came up from Winslow Sunday evening, returning home Monday morning.

Ed. DeForest, proprietor of the Front street tonsorial parlors, left for Los Angeles Thursday for a two-weeks' visit with his family, whom he has not seen for some time.

During the absence of Rev. Geyer at Ash Fork last Sunday, Rev. Bennett, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Adams, occupied the pulpit and delivered a most able address.

Mrs. Jas. H. McClintock and Miss Anne Rhodes, who have been "doing" the Grand Canyon for the past two weeks, came in a few days ago and left for Phoenix, the home of Mrs. McClintock.

To those who drink whiskey for pleasure: Harper whiskey adds zest to existence. To those who drink whiskey for health's sake: Harper whiskey makes life worth living. Sold by the Cabinet.

Mr. E. Lamb, of this city, wishes to state to parties desiring to make overland trips to the Grand Canyon that he has a first-class team which he will rent reasonably, or will accompany as guide and driver.

Charles Canall has completed his telephone line between this point and Riordan, and expects to have the line between Williams and Flagstaff in operation by September 15. Mr. Canall was a Williams visitor this week.

Prof. G. Wharton James, accompanied by Photographer Pierce, returned Wednesday from the snake dance and left for the Grand canyon. The gentlemen expect to make a ten-days' trip across the canyon and will visit Point Sublime and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phelan returned last Saturday evening from Los Angeles, where Mr. Phelan went to purchase supplies for his new meat market and grocery. Among the new furnishings to arrive is a large cooling room, 10x14 in size; two large meat blocks, a handsome oak fish tray, etc. A large consignment of goods for his grocery department is on the road, and when his new building is ready for occupancy, which will be about September 10, Mr. Phelan will have an elegant business place.

MONEY TO LOAN

U. S. Commissioner

Attorney at Law Notary Public

Money loaned for building or on improved town property at low rate of interest

C. P. SILVERNAIL

Williams, Arizona

J. B. GIRAND

Mem. Western Soc. Engineers

Civil and Mining Engineer

U.S. Deputy Mineral Surveyor

Railroad and Mining Surveys

Mr. W. H. Furlow, the competent head bookkeeper for the J. M. Dennis Lumber Co., at Maine, was a business visitor in the city Wednesday and incidentally dropped in to say "howdy" to the NEWS force.

Judge R. E. Sloan and party left Wednesday for the canyon, where they expect to remain for several days. They had just returned from the snake dance, where a large number of sightseers were present this year.

Mrs. M. J. Rounseville, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. R. Twitty, returned from Prescott this week, where they have been on a visit with Mr. Fred Twitty for the past two weeks. Their return was occasioned by the illness of little Philip.

At the last meeting of the common council, Dr. A. Tyroler was appointed city physician and health officer for the ensuing year. The bids of Drs. Melick, Rounseville and Tyroler were uniform, namely, one hundred dollars a year.

L. A. Grant and wife were visitors at the Grand Canyon Tuesday. Mr. Grant is a member of the celebrated railroad contracting firm of Grant Bros., of Los Angeles and Albuquerque, who have recently completed the coast line between San Francisco and Los Angeles for the S. P. Co.

Owing to lack of space we were unable to mention the new equipment which was received by Geo. W. Martin for his butcher shop now nearing completion. Among the many articles received was a Star Brand lard kettle of the most improved pattern, the main feature of which is that all impurities in the lard are carried off through a flue; a 1,200 lb. Buffalo scale, and a 24 lb. self-computing market scale. Mr. Martin has another large shipment of goods on the road which are due to arrive soon, and when his new building is completed, which will be about September 10, he will have a most perfectly equipped meat market.