SELIGMAN.

[BY S. C. DOLE]

Mr. L. H. Hazelton is the latest addition to the telegraph force.

With the rush of business now on the road the company has seen fit to install another operator at this point; this makes four all told in the office here.

Quite a change has taken place in the temperature at Seligman; it is very cloudy, with a cold wind; but then this is the time of the year to expect just such a change.

Mr. Ed Clark, yard foreman, who has been laid up with rheumatism for the past couple of weeks, is back at his old post again. "A lean horse for a long race, and a hard one to kill," says Ed.

Mr. W. Rose, one of the prominent sheepmen located in this vicinity, has been very sick with pneumonia. We are glad to state, however, that he is now out of danger and on the road to recovery.

Mr. James Wilson and wife have arrived in Seligman, where he will remain in the future as manager of the new Harvey house. Mr. Wilson was located here two years ago and the many friends that he and his wife made at that time are glad to welcome them back.

Mr. J. M. Woods, superintendent of B. and B., has placed a new pump in position immediately under the large water tank. It is only a temporary affair, however, and will remain only long enough to allow the removal of the one from Old Town to take its place.

Mr. Charles Frazier, who has been relieved by Mr. James Wilson, (both of the Harvey system), will depart Monday for Barstow, where he will manage the Harvey house at that point. Mr. Frazier is an old-time friend of Seligman, as is his wife, and we wish them success wherever they may go.

DIED—On Monday afternoon, December 9, 1901, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec McGinness. Seligman extends its heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents.

Baby has gone with the angels to dwell,
Free from its suffering and pain;
Where all is happiness, where all is delight;
Where love and content doth reign.
Mother and father, grieve not that death has come.
Have faith! When God called, it was right;
For now, baby is free, up in heaven at rest,
Where all is sunshine, where all is bright.

BENEFIT DANCE.

A social dance will be given at the Silvernail opera house on New Year eve to raise funds for the benefit of the Williams Military band. Good music will be furnished by an orchestra composed of members and a good time is assured. The admission will be one dollar, so go and help the boys; even if you don't go, buy a ticket and help them that much any way.

ASH FORK.

[BY MISS ALICE FULTZ.]

Friday evening the Ash Fork society people will enjoy one of their popular dances.

Several children have been absent on account of colds this week. We hope to see them all in school next week.

Last Saturday Messrs. Bishop, John Foley and Tom Foley started to the mountains for a hunting trip. We wish them good sport.

A good Christmas tree and dance is an assured fact as plenty of money has been subscribed and all are taking a deep interest in the affair.

This week a photographer was about taking pictures of all the homes and public buildings, and many of the citizens bought the pictures.

The entertainment given last Saturday evening by Wolf and Rowntree was quite well attended. After the entertainment a dance was enjoyed until midnight.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Geo. Douglas is recovering from his severe illness. His brother, Walter Douglas, of San Francisco, arrived in Ash Fork Monday morning for a visit with him.

The people of Ash Fork are enjoying a venison this week, the result of the hunting trip of Messrs. J. Archambeau and Arthur Doyle. They left on Tuesday morning returning Wednesday evening with two fine deer.

Father Connolly will hold services at the Catholic church tomorrow, both morning and evening. All are invited.

There will be a grand mask ball at the Silvernail opera house on Christmas eve, under the auspices of the "Saginaw Jolly Ten." Invitations to the number of one hundred will be issued and a good time is anticipated.
