CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 94 CAMP STREET, Friday Morning, March 5, 1869.

The sky was obscured all day yesterday, and everthing on the wharf wore a dull, lifeless appearance. In the city, affairs were just the reverse; our whole population were out on the streets to see our firemen in their holiday attire, and a more handsome display they never made before.

At about 4 P. M. a heavy shower, which continued for some time, fell, and it was more than welcome, especially to the habitués of the wharf, who for several days past have been annoyed exceedingly by the dust.

The Dora received a good trip, and left for Jefferson last evening laden nearly to the guards.

Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, the side-wheel passenger steamer T. D. Hine, under command of that courteous gentleman and careful officer, Capt. Nat. Puckett, leaves for Minden to-morrow, at 5 P. M. The T. D. Hine is a regular New Orleans and Minden packet, and shippers can rely upon her leaving regularly as advertised.

The Lulu D, Capt. Grace, leaves to-morrow for Upper Red River.

The fine, fast passenger packet Lizzie Tate, under command of that popular veteran commander, C. W. Stinde, leaves positively at 5 P. M. to-morrow for Minden and all way landings.

The Bart Able, Capt. Harrison, leaves for Shreveport to-morrow at 5 P. M.

The stately Belle Lee, Capt. Leathers, leaves for Vicksburg to-morrow at 5 P. M.

The fine side-wheel packet Mayflower is in for the season as a weekly Camden packet, leaving this city every Saturday at 5 P. M. She leaves on her next trip Saturday, 6th inst.

The Enterprise, Capt. Lee, from Jefferson, is due to-day.

The Belle Lee, Capt. Leathers, will be found receiving to-morrow morning at the foot of Canal street.

The Indiana, Capt. Neal, leaves on Saturday, 6th inst., for Louisville.

The weekly Ouachita packet Vicksburg leaves at 5 P. M. to-morrow.

The Mayflower, Capt. Blanks, leaves to-morrow at 5 P. M. for Camden.

The gallant Wild Wagoner, Capt. Goddin, leaves to-morrow for Natchez.

NINA SIMMES.—This favorite coast packet leaves for Bayou Sara and all way landing to-day at 10 A. M. under charge of her popular and indefatigable commander, Capt. W. R. Greathouse.

GREAT REPUBLIC.—This fine passenger packet, unrivaled upon the Western waters, leaves at 5 P. M. Capt. W. B. Donaldson commands, and our old friend, Mr. John Brooks, presides in her office.

LOUISVILLE.—This fine passenger packet leaves for Louisville at 5 P. M. to-day. Capt. J. A. Lusk commands.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Capt. Shum Parisot, of the Calumet, will leave within a few days for Louisville, where he will contract for building a new boat for the Yazoo trade. All that experience can suggest, or skill execute, will be applied in the construction of this new candidate for Yazoo favors, and built under the superintendence of Capt. Parisot, we predict she will be, in every sense of the word, a perfect success. We wish the captain a safe voyage and a speedy return.—[Vicksburg Times, 3d.

White and Arkansas rivers remain at a good stage. The Emma No. 3 and Alice Dean, for Cincinnati, passed up last night. The government snag-boat J. J. Abert arrived last evening from island No. 37. She has done some good service in cleaning out snags at Fulton pass and Island 37, taking out altogether 380 large snags. The Mollie Able will leave this morning for New Orleans. The steamer Magenta, Capt. Frank Hicks, will be found at the wharf this evening to receive for New Orleans and the bends, and will leave to-morrow.—[Memphis Avalanche, 3d.

Business at the city wharf and at Portland was brisk yesterday. A large number of steamers arrived and departed, all with good trips. The Louisiana left for New Orleans yesterday with a first-rate trip. A dispatch from Capt. Neal states that the Richmond passed Paducah yesterday and will arrive here to-day and leave for New Orleans on Thursday. The Legal Tender was due here from New Orleans last night. She is announced to leave for New Orleans on Wednesday.—[Louisville Courier Journal, 2d.

Business was dull on the landing, but the Arkansas river steamer received considerable freight. Our port register for the day is meager. The river fell a foot. Last evening there were 22 feet of water in the channel, and 80 feet space under the bridge. Light cakes of ice are running out of all the upper tributaries.—[Cincinnati Gazette, 2d.

River falling rapidly. The bank of the river is very slimy and becoming steep. Twelve feet water to Cairo. Navigation to the north will be resumed to-day. The floating ice was pretty heavy yesterday; too heavy, it was supposed, for boats coming up. On Sunday morning heavy ice ran past Hardin. All around Naples the snow is six inches deep. Rates to New Orleans will probably be advanced to-day. The Ruth leaves for New Orleans on Friday evening. Bismarck left for New Orleans yesterday. The Mississippi, Capt. Nat. Green, is loading, and leaves to-morrow for New Orleans. On Sunday evening Capt Morris Langhorn, of New Orleans, died in this city aged fifty years. His remains are now on the steamer Bismarck, being borne to their last resting place in New Orleans.—[St. Louis Democrat, 2d.

PUBLISHED TRI-WEEKLY BY WM. KIRK & CO.

Subscription—Twelve months, $5; six months, $3, in advance. This long established journal becomes very desirable at this time, in view of the fact that Pensacola is effecting her railroad communications with the Northwest, and becoming a point of interest to enterprising men. It is devoted to the development of the material interests of the State of Florida, and in its local department devotes special attention to the immense Lumber and Timber trade growing up in its vicinity, as also to other commercial items, which to the careful reader will indicate the development of the great natural advantages of Pensacola as a port.
