Firstly-A Good Landing. The Missouri river at this point is compressed within a narrow space, the channel is remarkably deep on the Delaware side, and washes for a mile above and below, the Kansas shore, thus affording at all times a safe and secure landing for steamers.

Secondly—Timber in Abundance
The tract of land on which the town is laid out, is covered with valuable timber, for building purposes, besides this, there is on the opposite side of the river a large bottom, heavily timbered with oak, ash and walnut.

Thirdly-Its Position. Thirdly—Its Position.

This town has on the Khasas side of the river sopporting it, a large district of the very heat lands in the Territory, while on the opposite side of the river there is a large and fertile bettom, teeming with population. This bottom is of itself sufficient to sustain a town of large size. This is the most accessible point from which the Delaware nation of Indians can pro-cure their supplies. Delaware is the nearest and most accessible point at which the country on the Kansas river can do their receiving and forwarding business.
