"All of the roads in the west are as ond vice president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway today.

Freight traffic of all kinds and especially that of cattle and grain is unprecedented at the present time. I do not know that it has ever been so heavy before and all of the railroads are taxed beyond their capacity with the equipment at hand. It is only too true that we are short of cattle and grain cars but we are making the cars we have do not as bad as they are on some of the

HE LANDS ON WHITNEY.

Roosevelt Writes a Letter That Ought to Finish the Bay State Man.

Boston, Nov. 21.—Henry M. Whitney, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor at the last election has made public correspondence which had been passed between President Roosevelt and himself concerning the statements made by the president during an interview last winter which was granted to a committee from Massachusetts on reciprocal trade relations.

The president informed a mass committee that called on him last week in favor of free hides that Mr. Whitney had deliberately misrepresented what had occurred at last winter's conference.
With this experience in mind, the president declined to enter upon a discussion of free hides with the free hides committee, the chairman of which was Governor William L. Douglas. The statement of Mr. Whitney during the recent campaign in Massachusetts that the president told him he favored reciprocity with Canada was that to which the president took exception. After the president had made public his address to the hides committee, charging Mr. Whitney with misrepresentation, Mr. Whitney maintained that the president had certainly spoken in favor of reciprocity with Canada on broad lines during their interview.

In the correspondence which is given publicly Mr. Whitney wrote to President Roosevelt that the president had done him a great injustice in charging him with willful misrepresentation, requested an interview with the president and expressed his regret that reciprocity did not have the president's endorsement. In his reply President Roosevelt declares that Mr. Whitney's letter furnishes additional evidence "of the wisdom of my refusing to communicate further with you," and asserts that nothing he has ever said has given Mr.
Whitney the slightest warrant in making the statement that the reciprocity was not to have the president's endorsement. Mr. Whitney with misleading additions.

lution deliberate misstatements and closes by refusing to grant the requested interview. The letter from the president to Mr. Whitney is as follows:

"November 15, 1905. Sir: I have your letter of the 17th inst. In view of my previous experience with you I am obliged to state with regret that it is out of the question for me to grant you another interview. In this letter you state that you regret more than any other thing else in connection with this matter that the righteous cause of reciprocity with neighboring countries of so much value to our people and to the whole of the human race is not to have the endorsement of your (my) great name and the benefit of your (my) power aid."

"Nothing that I have said at any time has given you the slightest warrant for making this assertion, and when, in the very letter asking for an interview and denying that you ever willfully misrepresented my previous remarks, you incorporate another deliberate misstatement, you can hardly wonder that I decline to see you, nor would there in any event be the slightest point in such an interview. In your speeches you pretended to quote from memory certain statements made in the course of a long conversation occurring nearly a year previous. You quoted portions of what I said—even as to these portions, your language was inaccurate and all the context was suppressed. As a result you as completely misrepresented me as in the sentence of your present letter which I quote above. It matters little whether this was due to deliberate purpose of deception, or to a lack in both your companions and yourself, of a sincere sense of propriety and of the power of exact thinking and of correct apprehension and repetition of what was said.
In either event I feel that it would serve no useful purpose again to see you or further to correspond with you.
"You are at liberty to make this correspondence public if you choose. Yours truly, THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

TURKEY MAY HURRY

When the International Fleet Arrives at Piraeus.

Constantinople, Nov. 21.—The frequent and prolonged conference of the council of ministers at the Yildiz palace are believed to indicate preparations to yield in principle to the demand of the powers for the acceptance of the financial reforms decided upon for Macedonia. Probably, however, the Turkish government will make further attempts to secure modifications of the plans before definitely accepting the full programme. The arrival of the international fleet at Piraeus is likely to hasten the Turkish discussion. The Russian fleet has returned to Sebastopol after a short cruise in the Black sea.

SUIT TO ENJOIN SCALPERS.

Claim Made That They Interfere With Interstate Commerce.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 21.—Suit to enjoin the ticket scalpers on the ground that they are interfering with interstate commerce was begun in the United States court yesterday. The Great Northern filed complaint against A. O. tinger, L. H. Biecher and M. H. Miller running a cut rate ticket office in Spokane. The railroad company gives no notice that it will appear before the federal court December 4, and ask for an injunction restraining defendants from selling tickets at cut rates.
