THANKSGIVING DAY.

The President Fixes on November 2 by Proclamation.

Washington, Nov. 2.-The president has issued the annual Thanksgiving proclamation, in which he points out growth of the nation in proclamation, in which he points out the steady growth of the nation in strength, worldly power, wealth and population and that our average of individual comfort and well being is higher than that of any other country, in the world. For this, he declares, Americans owe it to the Almighty to show equal progress in moral and spiritual things. The proclamation follows:

Once again the season is at hand, when, according to the ancient custom of our people, it becomes the duty of the president to appoint a day of prayer and of thanksgiving to God. Year by year this nation grows in strength and worldly power. During the century and a quarter that has elapsed since our entry into the circle of independent people we have grown and prospered in material things to a degree never known before and not now known in any other country. The thirteen colonies which struggled along the seacoast of the Atlantic were hemmed in, but a few miles west of tidewater, by the Indian haunted wilderness, have been transformed into, the mightlest republic which the world has ever seen. Its domains stretch across the continent from one to the other of the two greatest oceans and it exercises dominion alike in the arctic and trooic dominion allke in the arctic and trooic realms. The growth in wealth, in population has surpassed even the growth in territory. No where else in the world is the average of individual comfort and material well being as high as in our fortunate land.

dividual comfort and material well being as high as in our fortunate land.

For the very reason that in material wellbeing we have thus abounded, we owe it to the Almighty to show equal progress in moral and spiritual things. With a nation, as with the individuals who make up a nation, material wellbeing is an indispensable foundation. But the foundation avails nothing by itself. That life is wasted, and worse than wasted, which is spent in pilling, heap on heap, those things which minister merely to the pleasure of the body and to power that rests only on wealth. Upon material wellbeing as a foundation must be raised the structure of the lofty life of the spirit, if this nation is properly to fulfill its great mission and to accomplish all that we so ardently hope and desire. The things of the body are good; the things of the intellect better; but best of all are the things of the soul; for in the nation, as in the individual, in the long run it is character that counts. Let us, therefore, as a people, set our faces resolutely against evil, and with broad charity, with kindliness and good will toward all men, but with unflinching determination to smite down wrong, strive with all the strength that is given us for righteousness in public and in private life.

Now, therefore, I. Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, do set apart Thursday, the 26th of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, and on that day I recommend the people shall cease from their dally work, and in their homes or in their churches meet devoutly to thank the Almighty for the many and great blessings they have received in the past and pray that they may be given strength so to order their lives as to deserve a continuation of these blessings in the future.

In witnes whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

NOT ALL OF ONE MIND.

Methodist Bishops Returning to the Support of Cannon,

Chicago, Nov. 2.—The bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church are not of one mind respecting the case of Speak-er Cannon. A number of them some time ago declared their disapproval of his attitude during the last congress on the question of legislation applicable to the liquor question as it touched prohibition states.

Last week the board of bishops was in session in Indianapolis. Bishop Hamilton of Boston, formerly located in Sare Francisco, prepared a letter while

San Francisco, prepared a letter, while in Indianapolis to the Northwestern Chirstian Advocate, in which he distinctly declined to oppose Mr. Cannon's re-election and expressed his confidence in the speaker's uprightness and correctness on the liquor question.

It is known too, that Bishop Hamilton does not stand among the bishops alone in his view on Mr. Cannon, More than one of his colleagues is said to have urged him to write the letter dissenting from the criticisms of the speaker.

The Christian Advocate on Wednesday, it is expected will print the Hamilton letter. In order that his views might be known before election day the bishop gave for publication here a copy of his letter, which follows:

of his letter, which follows:

"To the Editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate: I have been asked as several of the bishops have been, for the reason why I did not join some of my colleagues in protecting against the re-election of the Hon. Joseph G. Cannon to the house of representatives.
"I have resided for eight years in San Francisco, and have not had the same opportunity to be familiar with the intricate political understandings among the politicians in the eastern and middle states. and middle states.

"I did know that certain members of the committee of the general conference which visited the speaker of the house of representatives in Washington in May felt that they have been cavalierly treated, or more humorously entertained than comported with the serious mission upon which they had been sent and they felt that the denomination representing fully one-fifth of the population of the entire nation deserved more respectful consideration.

"I was quite as willing to rebuke trifling in high places then the evil in question was one that had cost the world, as Mr. Gladstone asserted, greater suffering and loss than had been incurred by war, petilence and famine combined.

"And much as I respected the chief officers of the government, I was as ready to help defeat any one of them who by 'hint, squint, or silent conspiracy,' as Mr. Taft has said, had intimated that he preferred the support of the saloon to that of the churches. We have a notorious example of one such politician who was once ambitious to be the candidate for the presidency, but who is now completely stranded.

"I know Mr. Cannon personally and could not believe that he would lend himself, or the influence of his high position to oppose any honest endeavor to secure a fair expression of the will of the people on the one subject so much in the mind of the whole country.

"I therefore wrote Mr. Cannon at the interogatory letter much in the mind of the whole country.

"I therefore wrote Mr. Cannon a straightforward interrogatory letter asking him if he had 'directly or indirectly' sought to hinder legislation in the committee on judiciary or in congress in the matter of the federal government in its relation to the traffic in intoxicating liquors in the prohibitory states.

in intoxicating liquors in the proniotory states.

"He replied so candidly that he had not opposed the legislation and had not intended to treat the general conference committee disrespectfully that I was bound to accept his statement. And when his declaration was confirmed promptly by Mr. Littlefield himself in reply to the letter I addressed him on the same subject, I felt justified in declining to oppose Mr. Cannon's re-election.

"Respectfully and falthfully,
"JOHN W. HAMILTON."

New York Stock Market.

Wall St., New York, Nov. 2—STOCKS—The principal foreign stock exchanges were closed today and this, added to the approach of the election, made the early dealings in stocks very dull. The moderate demand centered on the few speculative favorites and carried Great Northern preferred up 1½. Union Pacific, Northern Pacific and Reading 1, and St. Paul and American Cotton Oil 3.

Purchases of stocks continued for the most part in the active favorites but some of the inactive specialities showed strong. The Harriman and Hill stocks led the rise in the active stocks. Minneapolis and St. Louis preferred advanced four points. Westimchouse Electric 3. American Cotton Oil 2, the Union Pacific and Hill stocks 1½ to 1½. American Smelting 14. and Atchison preferred. Southern Railway preferred, Amalgamated Copper, General Electric. Southern Pacific, Sloss Sheffied Steel and Union Bag 1.

Stocks were taken on a slowly but steadily rising scale which placed prices at the highest about noon. Union Pacific's gain was 2½. Southern Pacific and Reading 1½. Federal Mining preferred 4½. Great Northern Ore certificates 2½. Southern Smelling 1½ and Atchison. Pennsylvania, Chesapeake and Ohio, Atlantic Coast Line, Southern Railway and several others a point.

Bonds were irregular. New York Stock Market,

Bonds were irregular.

Boeculation was quiet, but the undertone remained strong. The usual leaders fluctuated narrowly at about their best prices. The more decided changes occurred in the less prominent stocks.
