

HOW FOLLY PLAY REMAINS OF KING GEORGE WILL BE TAKEN TO CAPITAL.

Mexican Editor Makes Startling Charges. Declares Madero was Murdered in Palace. Funeral Probably Will Be Held on March 29 or 30.

San Francisco, Cal., March 21.—Colonel Manuel Blanco Alcala, publisher of the New Era, a Mexico City newspaper, generally regarded as the mouthpiece of the President Madero's administration, arrived here with the assertion that he "is in a position to prove" that Madero was murdered by the royal family.

Colonel Alcala described himself as an intimate friend of Madero. His mission in this case, would be to expose the plot which brought about the Diaz uprising and the alleged assassination of Madero and Suarez.

Colonel Alcala asserted the news of Madero's fate was known in Washington before the hour named in the official version as the time of the alleged attempt to rescue him.

Colonel Alcala was shot from behind and the powder burned his neck. "Suarez was choked to death. His secretary, wounded by his rescuers, saw the body two days later and there were finger marks on the throat."

Colonel Alcala was positive in his assertion that Mrs. Madero's husband there was no hope for her husband, basing this fear on an interview he had with the American Ambassador Wilson the afternoon of February 22.

"Mme. Madero and Mrs. Suarez went together to the ambassador to implore him to intercede for their husbands' lives," he said. "I saw them when they left the embassy and they told me there was no hope. They said Ambassador Wilson had failed to intercede for them."

"General Ascaride was in command of the guard that night. It was told by another officer of the guard that it was he who slew Madero and Suarez."

"I had protected fifteen American families in my school, the Internado Nacional," he said, "where I commanded three hundred soldiers, feeding the Americans and housing them through out all the fighting from February 9 to 18. After the Huerta coup, fearing arrest and death, I went to the ambassador and appealed for his aid in return for my protection of his people."

"Soon afterward a friend of mine rushed to me with the information that the American ambassador had given a card on which were the names of my people and myself to Secretary of the Interior Granados, and the latter immediately had General orders issued for my arrest."

"Granados replied that he would escape his attention but he would order arrest cases at once and the order of arrest was issued."

"My friend hastened to me, gave me his purse and urged me to flee."

Helped Kill Gonzales. El Paso, March 21.—Mexicans arriving at Juarez from the south today declared they had helped kill Gonzales, governor of Chihuahua, under the Madero government, a fortnight ago.

Recent Civil Service Order Causes Displeasure. Washington, March 21.—As a result of the extension of the classified civil service to include fourth-class postmasters and the announcement that postmasters of that class would be ranked to qualify in a competitive examination, the postoffice department has been flooded with resignations.

Practically all of the resignations are of postoffices where the postmaster's salary is merely nominal and where at times the expense of conducting the office equals the postmaster's compensation.

Japan Is Angry. Vancouver, B. C., March 21.—A special cable to the World from Tokyo, Japan, says: "It is learned through official sources that the event has now before the California legislature and hostile to Japanese pass. William Allen White Discusses Work of Democrats. Emporia Writer Sees Where Pledges Were Fulfilled.

Emporia, Kan., March 21.—William Allen White, who is spending the winter in La Jolla, Calif., has written the following signed editorial, under the title, "The Democrats and It will be published in this afternoon's edition of the Emporia Gazette:

No open-minded Kansan of any party, Socialist, Republican, Prohibitionist, Democrat or Progressive, can fail to realize that the Democratic legislature has done excellent work in the session recently closed. Most of the laws it passed are sound, wholesome and needed.

And this is as it should be. The work of the recent Republican administration, under Hoch and Stubbs, had paved the way for great work. The people of Kansas have proved themselves thoroughly progressive. It is the honor of the Democratic legislature as they were with the four sessions preceding when the work was done by Republicans.

whole matter resolves itself into a case of conscience. Had Schenck devoted himself more to study he would have seen that one man and one woman, each professing a different belief, each sincere in that belief and each unyielding, were bound to come to an unhappy end—in this case a very unhappy end!

Now Schenck, what is the Catholic idea of excommunication? It must be something awful according to your insinuating and misleading phrase. You do not know or else you wish to deceive. I prefer to believe the former.

DEFENDS HIS CHURCH. Father Murphy Resents Statements of Attorney Schenck.

Incident to the trial the attack upon the Catholic church by Attorney Schenck was sure to evoke reply. This comes today in a letter from Father J. A. Murphy, rector of the Holy Cross church at Emmet, Kan., and formerly assistant to Father Hayden.

Emmet, Kan., March 20, 1913. To the Editor of the State Journal: Knowing your fairness, I trust that you will give the enclosed letter space in your paper Friday evening. I think the attorney's attack on the Catholic church in the Beers case was most unwarranted and one that is destined to cause considerable strife and ill feeling.

I have endeavored to explain the Catholic teaching regarding the matter and I ask you for a fair hearing on this matter. You know that the strife is a very bad business—nothing is gained by it. For the life of me I cannot see how a lawyer, supposedly endeavoring to do his duty, can wish to put an end to it in its incipency and look for you to furnish me the space in your paper.

The Catholic church is in no way concerned in the case and the mere fact of one of its unfortunate children being the victim of her own folly cannot, by any stretch of the imagination, make the church an interested party. In his attack on the Catholic church, brand-in of her doctrine as "damnable" and one of her priests as a perverter of the worst type of church, the lawyer, crowds his principle on the sharp point of a needle and then leaves a wide plaza, about the stately pile of aforesaid principle, to parade his intelligence and include the rest of the imagination, makes Schenck do for legal fame and fee.

He would make war where war does not exist and enkindle animosity where charity and peace should dwell—all that in a word. The Catholic church has no desire to see Mr. Beers branded with the title murderer. Its doctrine is a doctrine of love and mercy and that Mr. Beers was a murderer, but mercy is above this. Misfortune and his innocence or guilt rests with God and not with Schenck's tirade against the Catholic church.

And I trust it will have another effect. The effect of cementing the kindly feeling that exists in the city of Topeka between Catholic and non-Catholic and that Schenck's ranting will bury itself in the walls of a court house and county courtroom. Respectfully, JOHN A. MURPHY, Holy Cross Church.
