With all the delight that is popularly supposed to illuminate the "first season," the early experiences of many debutantes are full of positive suffering...

Do not regard conversation solely as a race of volubility. There must be an honest fund of general information, an intelligent interest in the every-day affairs of life, a bright personality, a fresh pliancy of memory...

You cannot ask for advice too frequently. You are under no obligation to follow it, and any man will be the happier for giving it.

Acquire an insight into man's character and learn to understand his weaknesses, as a medical specialist understands the symptoms of his own particular professional line.

Like poets, the charming woman is born, not made. Still, to be agreeable is, in a measure, a science, and, like other arts, may be taught to a certain degree.

Rubber overshoes are all so much alike that it is well to have some distinguishing sign by which to recognize them when left in dressing rooms, etc.

To make Duchesne cake, rub to a light cream one cup of sugar and a cup and a half of butter.

To make a dressing for chow-chow make a paste of six tablespoonfuls ground mustard, one tablespoonful tumeric, a cupful of flour, one of sugar and two quarts ground chow-chow.

There is no end to little things that serve as "first aids to housekeepers," as it were, suggestions that not only make work easier, but also help to preserve the furnishings of the home.

Decanters that are stained inside may be made quite clean by cutting a raw potato into small slices and putting them into the bottle.

Grease spots may be removed by means of a paste made of boiling water poured on equal quantities of soap and water.

FREE SAMPLE BOX TO PROVE ITS WORTH

The medical world has been agog over the discovery of the famous Chicago Bacteriologist, Prof. J. H. Austin, who recently demonstrated at a meeting of prominent men that the cause of baldness and falling hair is a micro-organism which grows on the roots of the hair and consumes the food provided by nature for the hair itself.

Platons that are put away for a few weeks often get rusty, and the best way to prevent this is to rub a little warm grease over the surface and then wrap them up in brown paper.

An English method of cleaning wall paper is one well worth knowing, for it is simple and better than any dusting. Make a paste by mixing four pounds of common wheat flour and two quarts of cold water.

Care of Brooms.—Drops put for a few minutes in boiling suds once a week will last much longer than they otherwise would.

Stuffed Bananas.—Cut off one-quarter of the ends of a banana. Remove the pulp and press thru a sieve.

Palatable Dishes.—Sweet potatoes cooked in this way are delicious for lunch, although they are liked by many persons for dinner.

A certain amount of social life is absolutely essential to the old as well as to the young.

There is only one company in the United States making this remedy and that is the Rengo Company at Detroit, Mich.
