MONEY BROUGHT A BARGAIN.

It's a short story. One of the most prominent clothing manufacturers was late in the delivery of about a thousand of his Spring Overcoats—and the order was countermanded. They were an elephant on his hands. We made him an offer. Our cash hooked the prize. You can have your pick of them at

They are Regular

$15.00,
$13.50,
and $12

Garments—Cut, made, and trimmed in the best possible Worth every cent they were made up to sell for. But WE bought them at a bargain—shall you:

$9

ONE CONDITION:

THEY MUST BE BOUGHT WITHIN THE NEXT THREE DAYS—

MONDAY, TUESDAY, AND WEDNESDAY.

Think twice before you let the opportunity pass. It's a windfall in Overcoats, sure enough—and well we be busy as bees selling them to your neighbors.

SAKS AND COMPANY.

TOWN TALK.

[Text continues with various advertisements and notices in smaller fonts]