The Japanese language is a complete hieroglyphic system, and the calligraphy a system of drawing or painting. Every school-boy has to learn at least one thousand different characters; in the elementary schools of the government three thousand have to be taught. A man with preten-sions to scholarship must be acquainted with about ten thousand, and a very learned man with that number multiplied many times. A Japanese must devote at least ten years persistent and earnest study to the acquisition of his own language if he desires to possess a knowledge of it efficient for the purposes of an education. The mechanical art of handling the brush, so as to paint the characters with skill and rapidity, occupies no small part of a learner's time.

A. M. MELLIS, Esq.,

Honolulu, Sandwich Islands.

New York City, Dec. 6th, 1881.

Dear Sir: Your valued favor of November 18th is to hand, containing your order to which we have given our closest attention, and you may rest assured we have spared no pains to make this initial order satisfactory, having closely followed your instructions, sincerely hoping by fair dealing to secure your entire patronage in the Clothing Line.

We are willing to make you our Special Agent for the Hawaiian Islands, and consequently can offer you Special Inducements on prices, as we are thoroughly satisfied that a proper representation of our goods will, as has always been the case in the past, take precedence above all other makes of Ready Made Clothing, as we are here, driving our competitors out of the market.

We inclose you a large and varied selection of samples of our Spring and Summer Stock for 1882 now being manufactured. They comprise many Novelties and are especially adapted for the Tropical Climes.

We have shipped your goods as requested via Panama, San Francisco, and by steamer to the care of your Agents, and you will find in this letter your bill of lading, &c. Hoping for an early continuance of your patronage.

We remain, very truly yours,

The International Clothing Co., DONALD FITZGERALD, President.
N. B.—As it is my intention to visit the colonies of Australia shortly, I shall stop to see you on my way. Yours above.

* With the above I take pleasure in informing the public that I have opened a full line of

Boots, Shoes and Slippers of all descriptions and styles, which I will sell at as lower price as this market will admit. Thauking the public in general for past favors received, I shall endeavor, as heretofore, to please them with their wants.
