NOTES AND QUERIES.

THAT ROAD AGAIN.

We are pleased to learn from our daily contemporary that the new buildings at the Lunatic Asylum are advancing satisfactorily. We would add, from our own knowledge, that the work has been somewhat delayed by the rainy weather, and that the same cause has transformed that road into an unnamable something. The improvements at the Lunatic Asylum were much and urgently needed, and everybody concerned will be very thankful when the work is completed. Attention to the road that leads there is almost as necessary, and improvement in it would make a greater number of persons very thankful. Money was voted for those buildings: money was also voted for road-making. Money was scarce: it is now said to be abundant. Perhaps lack of labor is the difficulty? That can hardly be so while there are so many prisoners.

NEW, NOT GOOD.

Every invention is not an improvement: every convenience is not an unmixed good. Margarine is an invention; but is it an improvement on genuine fresh butter? The telephone is a convenience, but it is also a nuisance. Some new-fangled lumber wagons have a metal roller attached on top of the tail end: when in the wagon one end of the lumber rests on this roller: the load is discharged by revolving the roller with an iron lever, until the back end of the lumber overbalances and touches the ground; the wagon is then moved forward, and the other end comes down with a crash. This is an invention and a convenience, but we cannot pronounce it an unmixed good. It saves time and labor, but sometimes damages lumber. We know it is so, for we have seen it. Only the other day we saw a load of boards discharged in this way, and several of them were so badly fractured by the fall that they could be used for nothing but firewood. We would rather have our lumber delivered by the old fashion method: we think it better for the lumber.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

FORT STREET CHURCH

Was filled by an eager and expectant audience long before the hour fixed on for the services. The Church was lit up with the happy faces of the congregation, joyfully returning thanks to their Creator for His special mercies during the past year.

The service opened with a voluntary, from the 3rd organ sonata, played by Mr. Myron H. Jones, who ably officiated as organist throughout. The Lord's prayer was said and the choir sang a response. His Ex. the Hon. R. M. Daggett in a few brief remarks described the origin of the custom of celebrating Thanksgiving Day, tracing it over a period of two centuries and a half to its substitution for the annual day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, originally instituted by the Puritan Fathers. He then read President Arthur's Proclamation. The choir then sang the anthem, "Thou visitest the earth and waterest it." Mr. Cruzan then read an appropriate Scripture lesson, which was followed by "My country, 'tis of thee," sung by the choir and congregation. Dr. Damon then offered up a prayer, and the choir sang a response. After which the choir and congregation sang the following hymn, to the tune of "From Greenland's icy Mountains":

THANKSGIVING HYMN.

Written for the occasion by His Excellency Hon. R. M. Daggett, American Minister Resident.

O Thou who rent the waters and set thy children free!
O Thou who calmed the tempest that swept o'er Galilee!

O Thou who blessed our fathers on bleak New England's shore!
To Thee be our thanksgiving, now and forever more.

From sea to sea Thy praises, by freedom's millions sung,
Ring through the land Thou gavest, and now with heart and tongue
We catch the swelling anthem, and on the western breeze
Is borne our voices with it beyond the Asian seas.

Beside the palm, O see us! Beneath the olive hear,
And set a sign within us to tell us Thou art near.
For at Thy feet, O Father! we lay our hopes and fears:
As Thou wert with our fathers, be with us through the years!

Mr. Cruzan then preached an eloquent and impressive sermon from the text, "The Lord hath not dealt so with any nation." He showed what mercies the people of the United States had, as a nation, to be thankful for. How, between the 30th and 60th parallels of north latitude the great nations of the earth, past and present, were to be found. Here America was to be found in its greatest extent. How it was discovered and re-discovered, settled and re-settled, till finally the best possible founders of a great nation came to its shores—the Pilgrim Fathers. He dwelt at length on the resources and capabilities of the States, quoting numerous statistics and prophesying even greater things of America than had ever yet been known. He finished by stating that the life of any nation was established in righteousness, and that here in Hawaii we had need to see to it. It was not our plantations, our commerce, our galling guns, or our army that would make us strong, but the moral force of our righteousness. The choir then sang the anthem, "O clap your hands, all ye people," and the benediction was pronounced. The congregation remained standing, by request, while Their Majesties went out, preceded by Mr. Daggett, and followed by Messrs. Gibson and Dominis.

The choir consisted of the following: Soprano, Mrs. J. B. Hanford. Mrs. W. W. Hall, and Miss C. Castle; alto, Mrs. F. Judd, Miss N. Judd, Miss C. E. Jones; tenor, W. W. Hall, J. Waterhouse, W. F. Jones; bass, W. L. Jones, Mr. Starkey, W. Bowen, F. Lowrey.

ST. ANDREWS' CATHEDRAL.

Services commenced at 11 o'clock, finished at 12:30. Services were read by the Revs. Geo. Wallace, W. A. Swan and Alex. Mackintosh. Sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Mackintosh from the 33rd Psalm, 12th verse, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance." A fair congregation, as, being St. Andrews' Day, the scholars from St. Andrews' Priory, and the Bishop's College School were present and they filled up the church. The church was decorated with flags, flowers, palm trees, banana trees and bananas, sugar-cane and water melons, etc. Musical services were fully choral. Organ selections were: Festive March in D.—Smart. Gloria from 12th Mass.—Mozart. The Canticles were sung to single chants and proper psalms were read.

LOCAL AND GENERAL ITEMS.

Is the law prohibiting the shooting of migratory and imported birds during certain seasons still in force? if so, why is it not enforced?

It is said that the charter of the Kapiolani Park Association is liable to be forfeited by the terms of the charter as they have not held a meeting for over a year.

CAPTAIN Fehlbear was thrown from his horse on Tuesday last while riding along Beretania street. Luckily, however, his injuries are slight.

We acknowledge the receipt, with thanks, of a copy of the Mexican President's message, read before the Eleventh Federal Congress, from the Mexican Consul. It is a most interesting document.

GREAT dearth in the beef market may be looked for should Cetewayo, his staff, retainers, and a few thousand soldiers, and the Prince of Wales with the world-renowned beef eaters from the Tower, come to witness the Coronation.

The whole town seemed to have shut up yesterday in honor of Thanksgiving Day. It was even quieter than on Independence Day, if anything is wanted to show what a large proportion of our population is American, this would do it.

Why are the roads being mended in patches? Why not go in for a regular scheme instead of picking up a piece here and a piece there, and leaving other places between the two on the same road as bad as before? We refer to King street out Ewa way.

We are requested to draw special attention to some fine horses which will be sold at auction to-day at 12 noon, by Mr. E. P. Adams. They are, we understand, four of the best bred horses that ever been imported into this country and are warranted sound and gentle. We are perfectly sure, from the source we have received the above information, that is reliable and lovers of good horses will do well to invest in them.
