HONOLULU YACHT AND BOAT CLUB

A meeting was held at the Gymnasium, on Tuesday evening, by gentlemen interested in the formation of a yacht and boat club for Honolulu, and, judging by the large attendance and the interest shown in the movement...

Hon. S. B. Dole presided at the meeting, Mr. W. M. Giffard acting as secretary. Among those present were Judge Bickerton, Hon. F. Brown, Messrs. W. G. Irwin, Luther Wilcox, C. B. Wilson, Aldrich, H. M. Whitney, E. Whitney, Keyworth, Fisher, H. Wodehouse, W. W. Dinmond and Holt.

A long list of the names of gentlemen, including representatives of almost every business house, besides prominent private citizens in Honolulu, was read; these gentlemen had promised substantial support in a pecuniary manner besides their individual support.

"The objects of the club are to promote yachting, rowing and paddling, for pleasure and health, by means of meetings for sailing and racing; and keeping logs of voyages, records of water ways, details and dimensions of boats, and collections of maps, charts and books."

The officers of the club will probably consist of a Commodore, Vice-Commodore, Captain, Secretary and Treasurer, and an Executive Committee, including the above named officers, and nine active members of the club.

The draft of the constitution provides for the election of officers, their duties, election of members (honorary and active), the holding of six regular meetings during each year, debt, discipline, the club property, private property, a regatta committee, a house committee and the amendment of any article of the constitution. The proposed initiation fee, of active members, is $5, payable within ten days after notice of election. Due provision will be made for every detail as regards economy and the care of the club's property.

After the adoption of the two first articles of the constitution, and an interesting discussion among the members present, a committee, consisting of Hon. F. Brown, Messrs. C. B. Wilson, W. L. Wilcox, W. M. Giffard and Aldrich, was appointed to report, upon the draft of the constitution and by-laws, to the meeting, which was adjourned till Tuesday evening next.

There is no reason why the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club should not be a success. Many of the organizations established here, after a brief existence, collapse from the usual apathy which characterizes most undertakings in Honolulu. This is sometimes attributed to the climate, which is one of the best in the world; but it should be attributed to laziness and lack of energy on the part of our citizens.

We hope that this movement will be of long duration, and flourish until the youngest members and their offspring may have done good service in developing, amongst the many young men of this city, a desire for healthy outdoor exercise. This will not be the sole benefit. A well organized boat club cannot fail to raise the interest and "ebullition of enthusiasm" which should exist at our annual regatta.

ROUND-ABOUT.

We briefly referred yesterday to the miniature circus that has been imported and erected, by Mr. Wm. Pfluger, at the corner of Alakea and Queen Streets. This is decidedly a novelty in Honolulu, and a venture which will doubtless prove remunerative to the purchaser of the "Merry-Go-Round."

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, at her masked ball, represented a Venetian princess, in a dress that cost $10,000, and was decorated with scenes of Venice, gondolas, etc. That is, it represented 10,000 gone-dollars; a rather neat idea, too.—Pittsburg Telegraph.

A lecturer discoursing on the subject of "Health" inquired: "What use can a man make of his time while waiting for a doctor?" Before he could begin his answer to his own inquiry, someone in the audience cried out: "He can make his will!" —Waifs.
