SHIPPING NOTES.

The Bktne Ella, Capt. Howe, arrived this morning 14½ days from San Francisco with, 500 sks of flour, 790 sks of barley 338 sks of bran, 474 bales of hay, 1528 sks of bone-meal, 22000 bricks, 40 tons of sand, 200 bbls of lime, 2610 R. W. posts, etc. She left San Francisco July the 22d. Passed the S. S. Mariposa going into port. Had strong N. E. trades. She is docked at Brewer's wharf and is consigned to that company.

The Stmr Jas Makee brought 368 bags of sugar from Hanamaulu and 120 bags of sugar from Kapaa She also brought 57 bags of taro.

The Likelike sails today at 5 P. M.

The Jas. Makee will go on the Marine Railway to-morrow morning, to be cleaned.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Full moon to-night.

The Court left for Kauai yesterday by the Steamer Iwalani.

The Honolulus and Oceanics will play a match game of Baseball next Saturday afternoon at the Recreation grounds.

Come round the corner and see our little Art Gallery. Admission free. King Bros. 781 3t.

A roi diet will cure dyspepsia. Buy the Taro Flour and make your own poi. All grocers keep it. 781 3t.

H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani will hold her usual monthly reception to-morrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The barkentine Ella arrived this morning 14½ days from San Francisco. She brings news to the 22nd of July.

The Quarterly meeting of the Honolulu Athletic Association will be held in the Gymnasium Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Lyons & Levey hold their regular cash sale at 10 o'clock to-morrow, when they will sell among other things, a choice assortment of plants.

The House voted $42,000 for public buildings and repairs this morning. An item of $12,000 for offices for harbor master and pilots was thrown out.

We aim to please our customers; live and let live is our motto.
King Bros. 781 3t.

A Portugese, Arasuco Jois, was fined $200 and costs in the Police Court this morning, for selling gin without a license. An appeal to the Supreme Court was noted

Mr. Baker was spreading himself in the House this morning—not oratorically, but apparently a scorpion had incapacitated him from sitting down in the usual way.

Mr. Nolte begs to inform the ladies and the public in general that any time they are in the vicinity of Waikiki and will call in at the Casino they can be supplied with Ice cream and other refreshments. 782 1w.

The "correct" (?) reporter of the Gazette is off his base again this morning. He says "the Bulletin's statement that Capt. Hayley has been retired from the Government service is a mistatement." The Bulletin has made no such statement.

Last evening, the members of St Andrewa Cathedral choir had one of their old time social gatherings at the residence of Mr. Thomas May. The early part of the evening was devoted to the practising of anthems, etc., after which came refreshments and social chat. The attendance was good and a very pleasant evening was passed.

Minister Gibson in the House yesterday impugned the veracity of the whole newspaper world, not excepting even the satellite of that sphere that advertises his own virtues. It was all, too, on account of a statement made in the House a few days ago regarding the water supply of the Kalawao Leper Settlement, and all the press did was to faithfully report the statement and a contradiction thereof made at the same time.

Ellis Hart, who was charged in the Police Court yesterday with assaulting a young native woman by striking her on the face, was brought up this morning for sentence. His Honor the Judge spoke in strong terms of the prisoners act, denouncing it as uncalled for, and cowardly. He felt bound under the circumstances to inflict the highest penalty the law would allow, namely, a fine of $15 and costs.

A Chinaman was charged in the Police Court this morning with cruelty to a horse. The poor brute, which was examined by Judge Bickerton, was in a terrible condition, its back being literally raw, and it looked as if it had been fed on picket fencing. The Judge, in imposing a fine of $5 with costs, said he was sorry the law would not allow him to do more.

A SILENCE SENT FOR.

A golden-haired Silence put its head in at a door.

"Did you send for me?"

"Of course I din't," replied a man in a long apron.

"A messenger boy said somebody along here wanted to see me."

"Well 'wa'n't me; I'm a barber. May be it was the merchant next door. I heard him say he was going to quit advertising."—[Chicago News.

One of the most remarkable uses to which paper has recently been put, except that of printing newspapers, is the manufacture of zylonite, a substances which, at the will of the manufacturer, may made in imitation of horn, rubber tortoiseshell, amber, and even glass. The uset to which zylonite is adaptable are almost infinite but perhaps the most extraodinary is the manufacture of cathedral windows. The basis of zylonite is a plain white tissue paper, made from cotton or cotton and linen rags. The chief difference, however celluloid and zylonite is that the former cannot be rendered transparent, and therefore cannot, like the latter, be made to imitate so many different substance.—Court Journal.

Owing to the drought, water is being sold in Key West, Fla., at five cents a bucket.

To that class of small minds who pride themselves upon being consistent, who think to-day what they have thought before, who say to-day what yesterday they spoke, whose opinions are never changed by changing facts or modified by natural reflection, we commend the following extract from Emerson's essay on "Self-Reliance": "Speak what you think now in hard words, and to-morrow speak what to-morrow thinks in hard words again, though it contradict everything you said to-day."—The Argonaut.

In company, it is a very great fault to be more forward in setting one's self off and talking to show one's parts than to learn the worth and to be truly acquainted with the abilities of other men. He that makes it his business not to know but to be known, is like a foolish tradesman who makes all the haste he can to sell off his old stock, but takes no thought of laying in any new.—[Charron.

All trust is dangerous, if it is not entire; we ought on most occasions to speak all or conceal all. We have already too much disclosed our secrets to a man from whom we think any one single circumstance is to be concealed.—Bruyere.

Everyone must see daily instances of people who complain from a mere habit of complaining, and make their friends uneasy and strangers merry by murmuring at evils that do not exist and repining at grievances which they do not really feel.—[Graves.

He that gives good advice, builds with one hand; he that gives good counsel and example, builds with both; but he that gives good admonition and bad example, builds with one hand and pulls down with the other.—[Bacon.
