PLEASANT PARTIES.

A rather grand entertainment was given on Saturday evening, by Mr.
A. P. Fernandez, clerk in Messrs.
Halls' store, at his new house on King street. It was a luau embracing in its hospitable grasp a housewarming and a christening. Among those present were Their Majesties the King and Queen, attended by the Hon. Chamberlain and suite, His Ex. C. T. Gulick and wife, the Rev.
Mr. Cruzan, Prof. Alexander, Mr.
W. W. Hall, Mr. Walter Hill and wife, Mr. W. R. Castle, Dr. Brodie, V. S., and wife, Mr. Nowlein, Legislative Sergeant-at-Arms, and many other ladies and gentlemen.

A band of guitar players on the front verandah played delightful melodies during the evening, which passed away very pleasantly. About eight o'clock the company was invited to the parlor, where the Rev.
Mr. Cruzan solemnly performed the ceremony of christening upon two of the host's children. The elder one, a girl of six, was named Eva Adelaide Kaaeokalani, and the younger, an infant boy, Edwin Lemuel Kane.
Shortly after that ceremony the company filed out upon the right verandah, where a superb collation was served. When the feasters began to lag in their efforts to do justice to the varied dainties, His Majesty rose and announced that he had been requested to name the house, and that he had fixed upon the term, "Lauiohiohi" (a gathering of leaves.)

Cooling refectations were served at later intervals, and at ten o'clock a spell of dancing began. Mr. August Fernandez, father of the host, superintended the preparation and service of the feast and refreshments of the evening, with veteran skill.

The house so auspiciously opened is in every respect designed as a comfortable and elegant home. It seems to be in all departments convenient, substantial, simple, suitable and tasteful. It was built for the owner by Messrs. Bertelmann & Ouderkirk.

Mr. Alexander Young, Manager of the Honolulu Iron Works, has a birthday which comes round once a year as regularly as clockwork, on December 13th. Consequently, Saturday was the appointed day for this year, but, as he has had quite a number, Mr. Young did not notice it in any unusual manner. His employees, however, who hold him in high esteem decided that they would notice it, so hired two of Dodd's busses and Berger's string band, and with an assorted collection of refreshments proceeded to his residence, and thoroughly surprised the manager and his family. After congratulations, music and dancing followed, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent, the party breaking up a little before twelve o'clock.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

SOME people wonder how we can do work so much cheaper than others in our line. The reason is we have low rent and do our own

THE Temple of Fashion, 61 and 63 Fort street, informs the general public that they will not give their toys and holiday goods away as advertised by other retail dealers to catch trade, but will guarantee that their stock of toys, etc., will be sold at bed-rock prices. All they ask is to inspect their stock and learn prices. 880 1m.

THE reason that Lycan & Co. sell frames and cornices cheaper than any other house in Honolulu is that their frame maker can make better frames in half the time that is required by an inexperienced man.
