LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Good afternoon, Commodore Bickerton.

No meeting of the Stock and Bond Exchange this morning.

There will be a meeting of Pacific Hose Co. this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Call and examine the stock of elegant new goods at N. S. Sachs's Fort street.

Prof. Wayland, of Yale College, occupied a seat on the bench in the Supreme Court this morning.

Mrs. Hampson, the evangelist, speaks for the last time at Kawaiahao church this evening.

W. C. Akana, Chinese & Hawaiian Translator, has removed his office to No. 7, King street, near the Bridge.

Copies of the Session Laws of 1884 in English and Hawaiian may be had upon application at the Interior Office.

We are glad to learn, that His Ex. the Minister of Foreign Affairs is recovering from a severe attack of illness.

The little girl who was run over Saturday near the Palace by the runaway team, has so far recovered as to be out and playing around.

On and after to-day the Hawaiian Hotel stables will have a night hack on from 6 P. M. until 8 o'clock. A. M., each day. The telephone number is 32.

The steamer Likelike leaves regularly every week for Maui loaded with passengers and freight. Monday last she had all she could carry. The Maui people are very much pleased with the regularity and accommodations offered by this boat.

H. B. M.'s Commissioner, Major J. H. Wodehouse, and Monsieur Henri Feer, French Commissioner, were present in the Supreme Court this morning.

The Daily Hawaiian states that, "the steamer Kilauea Hou has been undergoing extensive alterations, and filled with new boilers." If they should all blow up at once they would kill-ah-how many!

The fence just makai of the first bridge in Nuuanu Valley is giving way by inches. It is a very dangerous place there and repairs ought to be effected at once.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Dr. Sarah E. Peirce, to Dr. N. B. Emerson, which event will take place at Fort Street Church, Thursday evening, January 22nd.

The old shanty recently moved from opposite the Police Station has been placed in position in Nuuanu Valley, just above Kukui Street. It certainly is no ornament to that vicinity.

Chief Justice Judd has sentenced Wong Kau, the counterfeiter, who was found guilty by a jury the latter part of last week, to one year's imprisonment at hard labor. The sentence is rather a lenient one.

The second trial of Keola, the native charged with larceny of a gun from Joseph Picto, will commence Monday morning next. It will be remembered the jury (Hawaiian) failed to agree in the first trial.

When Patten's clothes, which he wore at the time he was shot, were brought in Court this morning, the sight made the prisoner Bridges hang his head down, keeping it there while they were examined by the jury.

Mr. S. Ehrlich, manager of the Temple of Fashion, was brought up in the Police Court this morning charged with smuggling by means of inaccurate invoices. He was remanded until to-morrow. Mr. Hartwell appears for him.

A gang of prisoners are at work on School street between Nuuanu and Fort streets, filling up the holes in the road. We also notice that considerable improvement has been made on the King street road, from the Government building to Alapai street.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold their regular monthly meeting at the parlors of the Y. M. C. A., at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. All ladies interested in the cause of temperance are cordially invited to attend.

The Inter Island Steam Navigation Co. have a new propeller on the way here for the steamer W. G. Hall. It is the same size as the old one, but a different style and of much greater power, which will probably be shown in her next race with the Kinau.

Again a large audience hung upon Mrs. Hampson's eloquence last evening. Many enquirers assembled in the room at the close, and were affectionately greeted, individually, by the evangelist, who also presented each with a book specially prepared by herself for new converts. Mrs. Hampson's address this evening will be specially to young men, and tomorrow she will address a woman's meeting before leaving by the steamer for the Coast.

Shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon, a fire alarm was rung. It summoned the department to the Kawaiahao Female Seminary on King street. A fire had originated in the second story of the front building. It was put out without doing much damage, one of the beds and a trunk being slightly burned. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

The annual meeting of the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club was held last evening, and was fully attended. The following officers were elected for the current year:—Commodore, Justice R. F. Bickerton; Vice-Commodore, Chas. B. Wilson; Captain, S. B. Dole; Secretary, Walter M. Giffard; Treasurer, H. M. Whitney, Jr.; Measurer, Thomas Sorrenson; Executive Committee, Messrs. Frank Brown, M. P. Robinson, W. L. Wilcox; J. G. Spencer and F. Whitney. The initiation fee was raised to $25. Eighteen new active and honorary members were elected. An unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Walter M. Giffard for his faithful services rendered the club.

Mr. F. L. Clarke, the Superintendent of the Census, expects all the returns from the other Islands will be in by the latter end of next week, and then he will soon be prepared to present a tabular statement.

An old grey-haired prisoner has been at work the past two days cleaning the gutters opposite the Lyceum in Nuuanu Valley. A native woman, his daughter, helps the poor old chap to cart away the dirt.

We would call the attention of our readers to the Honolulu Guide Book of Information, copies of which can be obtained of Mr. J. E. Wiseman. It is so well gotten up and so complete that everyone ought to be in possession of a copy.

Three drunks in the Police Court this morning left $6 each. Ching Young Tai, Hoy Chun and Wing Choy, the three Chinese arrested by Marshal Soper for gambling, had their case tried and were remanded until the 17th for judgment.

Mr. John S. Smithies acting under instructions from Mr. Cecil Brown, who is Mr. James Campbell's agent, has taken possession of the stock of A. W. Richardson & Co. We hear the latter will take advantage of the bankruptcy laws.

The new plan of the French campaign is to direct all reinforcements to Tonquin, and when the Chinese are driven out there 5,000 men will be sent to Admiral Courbet upon the Keling, and to Tamsui and Formosa.

Two thousand boxes of Mexican exhibits were detained two weeks at the custom house in New Orleans, when the Mexican officials became indignant and threatened to return home. As Mexico had appropriated $250,000 for its display the managers of the Exhibition became uneasy, and Secretary McCulloch was induced to modify regulations so as to permit the Mexican exhibitions to get their goods out.
