A Woman's Sufferings and Gratitude.

A Voice from Austria.

The Daily Bulletin.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 21, 1886.

CLADSTONE'S BUMPS.

AS INTERPRETED UNDER THE LIGHT OF PHRENOLOGY.

Near the village of Zillingdorf, in Lower Austria, lives Maria Haas, an intelligent and industrious woman, whose story of physical suffering and final relief, as related by herself, is told to English women. "I was employed," she says, "in the work of a large farm. One day I was brought on sick bed, followed by a deathly fainting and sickness of the stomach, until I was unable to retain either food or drink. I was compelled to take my bed for several weeks. Getting a little better from rest and quiet, I sought to do some work, but was soon taken with a pain in my side, which in a little while seemed to spread over my whole body, and throbbed in every limb. This was followed by a cough, shortness of breath, which I could not seem to stop, took to my bed for the second, and, as I thought, for the last time. My friends told me that my time had nearly come, and that I could not live longer than when the trees put on their green once more. Then I happened to get one of the Seigel pamphlets. I read it, and my dear mother bought me a bottle of Seigel's Syrup, which I took exactly according to directions, and I had not taken the whole of it before I felt a great change for the better. My last illness began June 1, 1882, and continued to August 9th, when I began to take the Syrup. Very soon I could do a little work. The cough left me, and I was no more troubled by bathing. Now I am perfectly cured. And oh, how happy I am! I cannot express gratitude enough for Seigel's Syrup. Now I must tell you that the doctor in our district distributed handbills cautioning people against the medicine, telling them it would do them no good, and many were thereby influenced to destroy the Seigel pamphlets; but now, wherever one is to be found, it is kept like a relic. The few preserved are borrowed to read, and have lent mine for six miles around our village. People have even taken them to get Seigel's Syrup for them, knowing that it cured me, and to be sure to get the right kind. I know a woman who was looking like death, and who told them there was no help for her, that she had consulted several doctors, but none could help her. I told her of Seigel's Syrup, and wrote the name of the doctor who had given it to her. She took my advice and the Syrup, and now she is in perfect health, and the people around us are amazed. The medicine has made such progress in our neighborhood that people say they don't want the doctor any more, but they take the Syrup. Sufferers from colds hardly move a finger, have been cured by it. There is a girl in our district who caught a cold by going through some water, and was in bed five years with costiveness and rheumatic pains, and had to have an attendant to watch her. There was not a doctor in the surrounding districts to whom her mother had not applied to relieve her child, but every one crossed themselves and said they could not help her. Whenever the little bell rang which is dead, we thought surely it was her, but Seigel's Syrup and Pill saved her life, and now she is as healthy as any. I can go to church, and can work even in the fields. Everybody was astonished when they saw her out, knowing how many years she had been in bed. To-day she adds her gratitude to mine for God's mercies and Seigel's Syrup. MARIA HAAS."

The people of England speak confirmingly of the above.

After Many Years.

"Whittle-le-Woods, near chorley, December 26, 1883.

"Dear Sir,—Mother Seigel's medicine sells exceedingly well with us, all that try it speak highly in its favor. We had a case of a young lady that had been troubled many years with pains after eating. She tells us that the pains were entirely taken away after a few doses of your medicine.—Yours truly, — E. PEEL."

After Several Years.

"Stoke Ferry, January 9th, 1884.

"Gentlemen.—I have used Seigel's Syrup for several years, and have found it a most efficacious remedy for Liver complaints and general debility, and I always keep some by me, and cannot speak too highly in its praise—I remain, yours truly, — HARRITT KING."

After Sixteen Years.

"December 26th, 1883.

"Gentlemen.—It is with the greatest of pleasure I accord my testimony as to the efficacy of Mother Seigel's Syrup. My wife, who has suffered from acute Dyspepsia for over sixteen years, is now perfectly better through the sole help of your Syrup. I have seen pounds in medicines from doctors—in fact, I began to think she was incurable, until your marvellous medicine was tried.

I remain, yours, thankfully,

ALFRED FOX."

The Effects have been Wonderful.

"Ilford Road Dispensary, Dukinfield, May 3, 1884.

"Dear Sir,—I am happy to inform you that the sale of your Syrup and Pills increases here continually. Several of my customers speak of having derived more benefit from the use of these than from any other medicine. In some instances the effects have been wonderful.

Yours very respectfully,

EDWIN EASTWOOD, J. B."
