BORN.

EVANS—In Honolulu, July 1st, to the wife of T. E. Evans, a son.

A PARTY AT NOLTE'S.

The party at the residence of Mr. R. J. Nolte, Kapoliani Park, last evening, in honor of the Misses McLean, was a very pleasant event. The guests, about seventy-five, mostly young people, went out in wagons and private carriages, and on their arrival at the house were cordially received. A detachment of the Hawaiian Band, which was re-entertained at about 9:30 o'clock, furnished dance music with their usual excellence. The large hall of the "Casino" was splendidly prepared for dancing and the giddy whirl was joyously indulged in until about midnight. Bountiful refreshments were served during the evening, of which the guests freely partook. The affair was entirely informal and a happy humor prevailed throughout the evening, making the occasion one to be long remembered. The Misses Medley, who have been the guests of Miss Nolte for a couple of months past, have visited the Volcano and other places of interest on the islands, and have made many friends, who wish them a safe journey across the water.

A SHATTERED IDOL. O blame me not for the cruel words in a moment of madness said; The shadow that fell upon my life Is told as the shrouded dead, Deem not I am hard and heartless; My ears fall as warm as thine It was clay that I crowned and worshipped And wept o'er its crumbled shrine. To me, my pure and sacred soul, Was less than his finger tips; But, he turned away from the gold of my love. For the dress of a wanton's lips, My faith in man's truth is broken— Even truth itself is a lie I have cursed him;—but I love him And shall until I die. M. J. F. A.

THE LEGISLATURE.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY.

Monday, June 30.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Special order of the day. Consideration of the Appropriation Bill in Committee of the Whole. Rep. Kanehii was called to the chair. Minister Brown moved to strike out figures in first section, leaving the amount blank. Carried. Civil List: His Majesty's private purse, $40,000. Carried, on motion of Minister Cummins. H. R. H. the Heir Presumptive, $10,000. Carried. H. R. H. Princess Kaiulani, $1800. Carried. His Majesty's Chamberlain, $6000. Minister Brown moved to strike out the words, "Whose appointment to and retention in office shall be subject to the approval of the Cabinet." Carried. Item as amended carried. His Majesty's household expenses, $12,000. Carried. State entertainments, $8,000. Minister Cummins moved item read $10,000. Rep. Kalua moved to strike out altogether and insert in Department of Foreign Affairs where it would more properly appear. Rep. Rosa did not think it was intended to confine this item to reception of strangers. It was also intended to cover other entertainments and relieve His Majesty's purse from the burden. It transferred to Foreign Department it would refer to strangers only and not relieve His Majesty. Noble Widemann considered the member from Waialua mistaken in his argument. It would relieve His Majesty in any case. He was willing to vote for it and to have it transferred to Foreign Affairs Department, but the clause requiring the Minister of Foreign Affairs to approve bills he did not believe in at all, but thought almost an insult to the King. Rep. Rosa said if that clause was stricken out, he would withdraw his motion. Rep. Marques saw no reason for putting item in Department of Minister of Foreign Affairs. All countries vote a sum to enable the sovereign to give entertainments. He moved to amend making money payable on submission of vouchers to Minister of Finance. The motion to pass at $10,000 carried. The Chairman ignored Rep. Marques's amendment, and Rep. Marques rose to a point of order which was not ruled on, and the motion to transfer to Foreign Affairs Department carried. Rep. Lucas moved to insert $4800 for Her Majesty Queen Kaiulani. He knew she spent a great deal for good purposes among the Hawaiian people, and had little left for herself, and he thought the House ought to give her something. Rep. Kaula did not object to making allowance for Her Majesty, but the amount was absurdly small and seemed almost insulting. Rep. Lucas raised to $6000 and on Noble Widemann's suggestion to $10,000. Rep. Kapahaele said no appropriation was made last session, and they did not know that was needed. If they once began a great deal would be added to the bill. Rep. Nawahi was in favor of $4800. Rep. White, in a speech of considerable length, favored $5000. Rep. Kaula made remarks [not translated]. The motion to insert $5000 was lost. The motion to insert $4800 was lost. Permanent settlements: His Excellency John O. Dowling, $3600. Hon. H. Kuhlani, $1200. Mrs. Emma Barnard, $600. All carried. Rep. Rosa moved to insert, Mrs. Kanohakui, $240. Her late husband served the country faithfully in the police department. Noble Widemann said that while he had no objection to giving this woman $10 a month, he did object to these single items that were voted on account of their smallness. There were numbers of women in the same boat, and if they were to have pensions, let a general law be passed providing a scale of payments. Rep. Nawahi had the same objection as the hon. Noble. Rep. Brown said Rep. Marques had given notice of a pension bill, and he would move that the proposed item lie on the table till action be taken on that bill. Rep. Pachaole moved committee recommend the item be referred to a select committee, to ascertain whether the amount was sufficient for the woman's needs. Rep. Waipulani favored reference to a committee. Noble Cornwell agreed with the reasons given by the mover and would support the motion to insert the item. Rep. Nawahi wanted it to go to a select committee, as perhaps the woman required as much as Mrs. Barnard. Rep. White did not want to vote on the item blindly. An aged millionaire might come along and marry the beneficiary, who possibly has children to support her now. Fear of his constituents would prevent him from voting money without good reason shown. Rep. Kaula opposed the item. It should be deferred till the day after the session closes. Its passage would only open the door to a hundred similar items. Amendments and motions were all lost. Legislature and Privy Council: Expenses of Legislature, $25,000. Carried. Secretary of Privy Council, $200. Carried. Incidentals of Privy Council, $100. Carried. Judiciary Department: Salary of Chief Justice and Chancellor, $12,000. First Associate Justice, $10,000. Second Associate Justice, $10,000. Third Associate Justice, $10,000. All carried. Clerk Supreme Court, $6000. Rep. Rosa moved to increase the item to $7000. This official had to give a bond of $10,000, and his duties were more onerous than those of other officials for whom increase of pay was proposed. Mr. Smith worked from eight in the morning till six in the evening. The present was a good opportunity for the National Reform Party to show its recognition of ability in young Hawaiians. Noble J. M. Horner asked Rep. Rosa if as competent a man could not be got for $6000. Rep. Rosa said no; Mr. Smith was proficient in both English and Hawaiian; his predecessor was deficient in Hawaiian and could not have got along without Mr. Smith's assistance in some branches of the work. It was a position to which the present incumbent had worked his way up from the bottom; hence it would be all but impossible to get his equal for the services. Rep. Nawahi opposed the increase. Minister Brown said these estimates came from the Judiciary Department, and they were probably the best judges of the compensation due their employees. He agreed with all that Rep. Rosa had said about the clerk, but probably the latter had been consulted as to the amount for which he would serve. As Rep. Nawahi had said, this man might not be in the office to-morrow, and the salary should be voted for the position and not for the man. He moved the item pass as in the bill. Passed as in the bill. Deputy Clerk Supreme Court, $4000. Second Deputy Clerk, $4000. Rep. Kalua moved that these two items be referred to a select committee. It was the first time that these two clerks were put on the same pay, and he would like to know if there were any reasons for the change. Carried. Shorthand reporter (who shall furnish to the Attorney-General, on request, transcripts of proceedings in Crown and Government cases free of charge), $6000. Noble Widemann asked what it meant that he should furnish transcripts free of charge. Was not that his duty? Minister Peterson said the arrangement under which the reporter took the position were that he should do the actual work of the Court and all outside of that to be extra. Noble Widemann—Then what he did in this House was all to be paid for extra? Minister Peterson—Yes. Noble Widemann—Well, I think $3000 is a very good salary. Minister Peterson said it was a difficult matter to get a man fit for the work. They had tried men from San Francisco, failing twice before getting this man. Noble Widemann thought if this man was brought from San Francisco for $3000, it was a mistake. There were numbers of men in England and Germany who would be glad to come for less. Rep. Pachaole moved to amend item to $5000. Rep. Bush spoke in favor of the item as in the bill. Noble Widemann said he did not begrudge the salary, but thought the young man ought to do all the Government work. He was told that he had a bill already against this Legislature of a thousand dollars and might make it three thousand before the session was over. Rep. Nawahi gave his understanding of what the reporter had to do, and said by all means pass the item, although nobody died for want of a shorthand reporter in the many years that there was none to the Court. Passed as in the bill. Noble Cornwell moved the committee rise, report progress, and ask leave to sit again. Carried. The report of committee of the whole was adopted. At 4:03 the House adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY. TUESDAY, July 1. The House opened at 10 o'clock. PETITIONS. Noble Baldwin, from Kanae, for a semi-weekly mail between Lahaina to Kahapulu, and moved it lie on table to be considered with Appropriation Bill. Carried. Rep. White, from Lahaina, 60 names, for retention of Circuit Court term at that place. Laid on table to be considered with bill. From same place, that the office of Governor be re-established. Laid on table.

Rep. Rickard, from Hamakua, 128 names, for an appropriation of $4000 to open a new road from the west side of Kukuluae to the bottom of Waipio Valley. Public lands committee. Noble W. Y. Horner, from Lahaina, 70 names, for the following appropriations: $4000 to repair wharf and breakwater, and deepen channel at Lahaina; $500 to repair market house and flagstaff at Lahaina; $8000 to make a wagon road from Ohwalu to connect with the new mountain road leading to Wailuku, and for repairing roads and bridges in Lahaina road district. Public lands committee. Noble Pua, from Honolulu, that lunatics in the Asylum be not made to perform any labor. Sanitary committee. That coroner's jurors be paid $2 a day and $1 for a verdict. Laid on table to be considered with any bill on the subject. Noble Walbridge, from Kahului, 84 names, that the Legislature take action to furnish that place with water. Laid on table to be considered with any bill on the subject. Rep. A. S. Wilcox, from 14 lepers and 60 non-lepers at Kalaheo, Kauai, that the lepers be allowed to stay there, and provision be made for their maintenance. Sanitary committee. From Hanalei, 69 names, that Kalaheo be set apart for lepers of Kauai and Niihau. Sanitary committee. From same place, 46 names, that provision be made for bridges or ferries on the Kiihiiwai, Hanalei, Lumahai, and Waihele rivers. Public lands committee. Rep. Kahoakano, from Kohala, that the pay of police in the district be increased, and that the number of police be increased. Judiciary committee. Rep. Kanehii, from Kalaueo and Kalaupapa, that the leper laws of 1865 and 1888 be repealed. Sanitary committee. From Kaupo, that a liquor license be granted for that place, and its price made $100 owing to the small number of residents. Judiciary committee. From Kanae, that all Government lands be leased to native Hawaiians. Public lands committee. From Hana, that leprosy contracted by either party be ground of annulling marriage. Laid on table to be considered with the bill on subject.

REPORTS. Noble McCarthy presented the report of the military committee on the answer of ex-Minister Austin to question of Rep. R. W. Wilcox, on the removal of Co. B, Honolulu Rifles, from the Government Armory. The committee found that the Government had not been put to any additional expense by the removal, and believed that the company had a right to move. Rep. Kalua moved the report be returned to the committee. If military companies were given such liberties there was constant danger of revolution. Rep. R. W. Wilcox agreed with the mover. According to that report anybody could get up a company, which could plant itself in any part of the city. This trouble might arise and the city be reduced to ashes. He was informed that Mr. Bishop paid the expenses of Co. B, with the object of delecting the King and putting a missionary on the throne. Noble McCarthy quoted the Military Act to show that the company had acted with entire legality. From a six years' connection with the Honolulu Rifles, he knew their ins and outs, and after a thorough investigation of this matter he was convinced there was no political significance in the removal. While the committee were unanimous in their belief that the money for the military might with better advantage be expended on the police, yet so long as the Military Act was not repealed the organizations under it were entitled to all their legal privileges. This report was fair and just and he hoped the House would not pass the motion to reject it. Rep. Kalua was not satisfied with the statement of the chairman of committee. The committee were endorsing the wrong action of the former Minister of Foreign Affairs. They do not state the reasons of the removal in their report. Those arms, etc., were Government property, but they were down there in a private house, and if burned who would pay for the loss? Noble Cornwell, as a member of committee, was afraid the members for Honolulu and Wailuku were more on the war path than Co. A, B, or C. This was not a final report of committee, but only on the answer of the late Minister on this matter. That company was not holding secret disloyal meetings like those held at Palama a short time ago which resulted in the most disgraceful action ever perpetrated in this country. He did not care whether the company drilled on Fort street or Beretania street, so long as it kept within the bounds of law. Rep. Rickard moved the report be accepted, because the company had legal justification. He thought it would be better if the military was disbanded. Probably the late trouble would not have occurred if it had not been for those rifles. A military subject always seemed to excite the hon. member for Honolulu, and the speaker thought it was time something was done to stop the stream of abuse on honored citizens outside of the House. The hon. member for Wailuku apparently did not speak for the benefit of the house, but for the crowd back of him—he loved to hear the noise of applause. There had been enough of trouble and members of the House ought to endeavor to allay everything tending to disturbance, instead of doing their utmost as their practice was to stir up popular feeling with violent language. Rep. Brown was a member of this unfortunate committee, that, by doing its duty, had brought down on itself the wrath of hon. members. He wanted to know what those gentlemen wanted the committee to do with the matter when it went back to them. He was not in favor of military and while he had the honor to be a member of this Legislature he had always been against it. His vote would not go for one cent to any military company on these islands, and he believed that the military expenditure would be stopped this session. But if the House returned this report to the committee, all they could do was to keep it. If members objected to Co. B's occupancy of its present quarters, they should bring in a resolution requesting the Minister of Foreign Affairs to order the company back to the Government Armory—although the latter was not Government property any more than the other, the lease being made out to private parties. Noble Widemann considered the question was in a nutshell. He failed to see what else the committee could report. The objectors go back of the committee to attack the motives of the late Minister of Foreign Affairs. He agreed with them in their views of the military law, and he told the Legislature two years ago that he never heard of such folly as, for instance, placing an inferior officer above His Majesty who was Commander-in-Chief. Rep. Kapahaele moved to accept and lay the report on the table, because he thought the deductions of the committee from the law were incorrect. At 12:24 the House took recess to 2 o'clock.

The hon. member for Wailuku apparently did not speak for the benefit of the house, but for the crowd back of him—he loved to hear the noise of applause. There had been enough of trouble and members of the House ought to endeavor to allay everything tending to disturbance, instead of doing their utmost as their practice was to stir up popular feeling with violent language. Rep. Brown was a member of this unfortunate committee, that, by doing its duty, had brought down on itself the wrath of hon. members. He wanted to know what those gentlemen wanted the committee to do with the matter when it went back to them. He was not in favor of military and while he had the honor to be a member of this Legislature he had always been against it. His vote would not go for one cent to any military company on these islands, and he believed that the military expenditure would be stopped this session. But if the House returned this report to the committee, all they could do was to keep it. If members objected to Co. B's occupancy of its present quarters, they should bring in a resolution requesting the Minister of Foreign Affairs to order the company back to the Government Armory—although the latter was not Government property any more than the other, the lease being made out to private parties. Noble Widemann considered the question was in a nutshell. He failed to see what else the committee could report. The objectors go back of the committee to attack the motives of the late Minister of Foreign Affairs. He agreed with them in their views of the military law, and he told the Legislature two years ago that he never heard of such folly as, for instance, placing an inferior officer above His Majesty who was Commander-in-Chief. Rep. Kapahaele moved to accept and lay the report on the table, because he thought the deductions of the committee from the law were incorrect. At 12:24 the House took recess to 2 o'clock.
