A BELLIGERENT RACE.

During the seventy years of Chile's independence, which was won after a long war with Spain, the Chileans have fought each other in their civil wars; they have fought the Araucanians many times; they have fought the Peruvians and fought for them; they have fought the Bolivians, and, in fact, they have always been fighting or ready to fight. Their ancestors began fighting soon after arriving in Chile, and generation after generation kept up the fight with the aboriginal race of the country. The Chileans, or Chilenos, or some of them, anyhow, would now like to have a fight with the United States, as they have felt that things were dull ever since the ending of the last civil war and the downfall of Balduino. They are able to boast that they put 50,000 fighting men in the field in the last war with Peru, and that they made the Peruvians suffer, even though the Peruvian army was bigger than the Chilean.—New York Recorder.

Mudge—"What an aggravating habit Wickwire has of answering a question by asking another?" Yabsley—"I never noticed it." Mudge—"Now, for instance, last night I asked him if he would lend me a sovereign. He didn't say whether he would or not, but asked me if I took him for a fool."

ARE YOUR CHILDREN SUBJECT TO CROUP.

As a preventive and cure for croup, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no rival. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. There is not the least danger in giving it to children, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents.

TO-MORROW'S PICNIC.

The Sons of St. George will hold their first annual picnic at Remond Grove to-morrow, New Year's day. Special trains will be run throughout the day. Athletic sports which comprise several novel events will no doubt prove interesting, as many, including the fair sex, have signified willingness to join in making the event one to be long remembered. The Sons of St. George, sturdy adherents and supporters of Queen Victoria, promise a high old English time.

H. R. A. MEETING.

The following letter explains itself. In the previously published conditions the words, "at two and five hundred yard ranges," were omitted. The same conditions apply to the trophy of the Hawaiian Hardware Co. Entries for both have thus far been quite lively:

HONOLULU, Dec. 31, 1891.

MR. W. E. WALL,
Secretary H. R. Ass'n.

DEAR SIR:—We would ask you to correct the conditions on which the "E. O. Hall & Son Trophy" is to be shot for Jan. 1, 1892. We present this "Trophy" to be shot for by all members of the Association who had never won a first-class prize at two and five hundred yard ranges, previous to Jan. 1, 1892, or who have not taken part in any of the first-class monthly matches. The other portions of the conditions you have printed correctly.

Truly yours,
E. O. HALL & SON.

Bear in mind that entries for the Citizens' Match may be made at the range all day.
The shooting will begin at 9 o'clock sharp New Year's Day.
Trains will stop at Moanalua station, about ten minutes' walk from the range at Kahaiki.
Refreshments will be obtainable at the range.

SAILORS' HOME SOCIETY.

Proceedings of the Annual Meeting December 31st, 1891.

The annual meeting of the Honolulu Sailors' Home Society was held at the Room of the Chamber of Commerce to-day at 10 a. m. Hon. Chas. R. Bishop, President, in the chair. After reading of the minutes of the last meeting of the Society, the Treasurer read his annual report which showed the following amounts to be available, viz:

Invested and on hand...$14,435 09

Unpaid subscriptions... 750 00

Interest due on coupons... 145 50

Total...$15,330 59

A sum of $1905 80 in hands of Mr. Thos. R. Walker from special sources, was ordered to be invested by the Treasurer as a special fund.

A discussion on the site of the contemplated new Sailors' Home Building took place without any decided result. The Building Committee was instructed to ask for tenders based on the building plans of Mr. C. B. Ripley.

The following Trustees were duly elected to serve for a term of three years ending December 31, 1894:

Messrs. Chas. R. Bishop,
J. B. Atherton,
W. B. Godfrey,
J. I. Dowsett,
J. T. Waterhouse, Jr.,
A. Fuller.

The Society then adjourned.

After the adjournment of the Sailors' Home Society, the Board of Trustees held their annual meeting. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting of the Board, the election of officers was proceeded with, which resulted as follows:

Hon. Chas. R. Bishop, President,
Mr. F. A. Schaefer, Secretary,
Mr. John H. Paty, Treasurer,
Executive Committee.—Messrs. J. B. Atherton, C. M. Cooke and A. S. Cleghorn.

The meeting then adjourned.

Cousin Tom—"So you are not going to marry him?" Eleanor—"No." Cousin Tom—"Why not?" Eleanor—"Well, papa objects to his fortune, mamma objects to his family, and I object to his character, and, besides that, he has not asked me yet."

A FAVORITE REMEDY.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or as promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents.

The man who "grasped at a straw" wasn't drowning. He was trying to "drown his sorrows."

Enough—"Does your daughter speak the language?" "Not to any extent. She can say 'yes,' though, in five of 'em, in case any foreign nobleman asks her to marry."

"Here's a letter addressed to 'Amsterblank,' to go 'via Rotterdam,'" said the mail clerk. "Post-marked Boston!" "Yes." "Send it to Amsterdam via S. S. Rotterdam."

He (highly obnoxious)—"Good evening. You remember me, I hope." She (with assumed cordiality)—"Yes, perfectly. I am not one of those girls who have convenient memories, you know."

"Your son is a half-back on the Mulligatany University eleven, is he not, Mr. Hicks?" "He was this morning. I don't expect to see more than a quarter of him back to-night, though."

"Yes, I was a great desperado in my day," said the reformed train-rover, shaking his head sadly and with much humility. "I once held up a whole train-load of passengers single-handed and alone." "That was quite a feat," said the retired auctioneer, with a dreamy, faraway look in his eye, "but I once knocked down a whole railroad."

"I'd like to be where the grass always grows knee-deep," she sighed in a poetic spasm. "I'd like to be able to see, every day, the clovers shaking their heads at the bees that have kissed them and flown away."

"Oh, would you?" returned the practical young New Yorker. "Well, your father's a railroad man: why don't you ask him to get you a pass to Philadelphia?"

"August Flower"

There is a gentleman at Malden-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., named Captain A. G. Pareis, who has written us a letter in which it is evident that he has made up his mind concerning some things, and this is what he says: "I have used your preparation called August Flower in my family for seven or eight years. It is constantly in my house, and we consider it the best remedy for Indigestion, and Constipation we have ever used or known. My wife is troubled with Dyspepsia, and at times suffers very much after eating. The August Flower, however, relieves the difficulty. My wife frequently says to me when I am going to town, 'We are out of August Flower, and I think you had better get another bottle.' I am also troubled with Indigestion, and whenever I take one or two tea-spoonsful before eating, for a day or two, and all trouble is removed."
