

BY AUTHORITY.

E. B. FRIEL, Esq., has this day been appointed a Notary Public for the Second Judicial Circuit of the Kingdom.

C. N. SPENCER, Minister of the Interior, Interior Office, July 11, 1892.

Daily Bulletin

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But established for the benefit of all.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1892.

A GREAT LOSS.

A page of the BULLETIN was opened yesterday, after the printing of the issue had begun, to admit briefly the sad news of the death of A. J. Cartwright. Owing to a large amount of local news to-day and the arrival of a foreign mail, an obituary sketch of the eminent resident now lost to the Kingdom must be deferred. It would be hard to conceive of any other death that would cause such a blank in the community as the one now recorded. Mr. Cartwright was prominent in almost every line of benevolence and charity. The Queen's Hospital, the Honolulu Library, the American Relief Fund, etc., are institutions among those of which he was a valued supporter and counselor. In his career he has been the trustee and the business confidant of many people, and has managed the affairs of more than one royal personage. Alexander Joy Cartwright was born in New York city on the 17th day of April, 1820, making him over 72 years of age at death. His first arrival at the Islands was in August, 1849, and his permanent residence in Honolulu dates from the early part of 1852. The venerable partner of his life for more than half a century, together with his two surviving sons and their families, have the universal sympathy of the community in their bereavement. The cause of the late Mr. Cartwright's death was a carbuncle in the neck, the fatal development of which his constitution, still rugged otherwise, could not resist. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock to-morrow, and be conducted by Hawaiian Lodge of Free Masons, the Fire Department, of which the lamented gentleman was one of the founders and a former Chief Engineer, being also summoned to attend in a body.

"POETIC JUSTICE."

It was a rare bit of poetic justice that Colonel Volney Ashford, the Hawaiian leader, was obliged to leave Honolulu on the very sailing vessel that bore Premier Gibson into exile. Gibson had a narrow escape from an excited mob, but the result was the same in both cases—expatriation, with little or no chance of recovering former prestige and power. Ashford leaves a brother in Honolulu who evidently means to make himself a thorn in the side of the Government, but should the overthrow of the monarchy occur it is the half-castes and the natives who will be given the fat offices. "Hawaii for the Hawaiians" will be realized.—[San Francisco Chronicle, June 29.]

A GORGEOUS DINNER.

London, June 29.—The Hawaiian Charge d'Affaires and Mrs. Hoffnung entertained at dinner to-night, at the Hawaiian Langton, Premier G. R. Dibbs of New South Wales, together with a distinguished party, amongst whom were several Ambassadors, representatives of foreign countries and other dignitaries. The dinner was a gorgeous affair in every respect, and the rooms were elaborately decorated with the Hawaiian and English colors. A musical entertainment followed the banquet, participated in by Florence Meyer, the well-known Australian pianist and composer; Miss Della Thompson, an American singer, and many others.

BAND CONCERT.

The Royal Hawaiian Military Band under the leadership of Professor H. Berger will give a concert this evening at the Hawaiian Hotel, at 7:30 o'clock. The following is the program:

- PART I. March—Count Bauer. Kral Overture—Berth Life. Conrad Fantasia—Awakening of the Lion. Gavotte—The Valley Bells (new). Rontzky Reminiscences of Verdi. Godfrey House de Nel. Wai Mapuna. Alua Oe. PART II. Medley—Musical Delusions (new). Schreiner Fantasia—Foreador and Andalousse (new). Rubinstein's Rontzky Gavotte—The Valley Bells (new). Sackur Patrol—The Chinese (new). Durra Hawaii Poni.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

(San Francisco, July 6, per S. S. Australia.)

UNITED STATES.

Harold M. Sewall of Maine, Consul-General to Samoa, has tendered his resignation and it has been accepted by the President in a letter expressing the highest appreciation of his excellent service. William Rogers of Oregon has been appointed Consul to Sydney, N. S. W.

General James B. Weaver of Iowa was nominated for President by the People's party convention at Omaha on the first ballot. General James B. Field of Virginia was nominated for Vice-President.

Treasurer Dann of the National Savings Bank at Buffalo, N. Y., is a defaulter for an immense amount. When but half the pass books had been examined, the defalcation totaled up $426,636. The official statement of the bank examiners shows total liabilities of $1,280,345, assets of $1,000,344, and a deficiency of $280,000. Dann has turned in money and property to the amount of $53,000.

A mob at Vicksburg, Miss., hanged two colored men who were in jail charged with murder.

Mrs. Jessie Garret lost her life at Burlington, Ohio, in making a parachute descent from a balloon.

Gus A. Rogers, a professional aeronaut, and Thomas Fenton, his assistant, were carried to sea in their balloon at Boston on the 4th of July and drowned. Delos Goldsmith, a reporter, was rescued by a boat but in a low condition.

Cyrus W. Field of Atlantic cable fame is dangerously ill.

Mrs. Catherine Fox Jencken, one of the noted "Fox sisters," spiritualists, died at Brooklyn on July 2.

A storm at New York on the 3d caused a loss of several lives in the bay and rivers and a good deal of damage in the city.

The fish-kill in Pa., suffered a loss of $150,000 by a cyclone.

Robert L. Garner, the man who has learned monkey talk, has left New York for Africa to interview apes and gorillas. He will listen to them from a steel wire cage and use a phonograph to record their speech. Electricity will be employed to shock any beasts or reptiles that may molest him.

A tornado near Lima, Ohio, wrecked 53 houses and barns and caused a loss of two lives.

A serious riot took place in Chicago, caused by an attempt of the police to clear the landings of pleasure boats. Some of the policemen were badly beaten by the stalwart sailors. At last accounts the boats held the landings. The trouble arose from the exclusive right to carry passengers to the World's Fair grounds granted to a syndicate.

EUROPE.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

The returns of the first two days' polling in the British elections show ninety seats for the Conservatives, sixty for the Liberals, eight for the Liberal Unionists and one for the McCarthyites. The Liberals made heavy inroads into Conservative territory the first day, but at latest accounts their gains had come to a standstill. Among the defeated Conservatives is Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer. Stanley took his beating in a sorry fashion. A magnificent bouquet had been prepared for presentation to Mrs. Stanley on her husband's expected election. Richard Chamberlain, brother of the once Radical but now Unionist leader, Joseph Chamberlain, was another of the defeated. The "villainous registration laws" are charged with the small degree of success of the Liberals, as those laws practically disfranchised all who moved into new houses the last two years.

As the earlier polls were largely in Conservative strongholds, the later contests are expected to put the Liberals in a majority—a small one, it is estimated, of 25 in the new House.

Gladstone in an election address at Edinburghshire the first day, was confident of his party's triumph. He said Parliament would never be able to attend to the business of the country until the Irish question was settled. The Liberals would have to repair all the present Government's work. The demand for a non-rest working day of eight hours was premature. If the miners wanted the eight-hour day they could get it if unanimous in their demand. If Scotland wanted home rule she would get it as her right, "but the Irish question leads," said the great commoner.

Daniel O'Connell, son of the great Irish liberator, is supporting James Lowther, Conservative, and on being asked why he was not following in the footsteps of his father, replied that it was as an Irish Catholic that he voted for the Conservatives, adding: "During the past six years I have seen the country wisely governed. Gladstone's home rule scheme would be most disastrous to Ireland."

A traveling man who chanced to be in the store of E. V. Wood, at McKees Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with an empty bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.
