PROBABLY ANNEXED.

TREATY SIGNED BY PRESIDENT HARRISON.

And Reported Already Ratified by the Senate.

Caustic Comments by the San Francisco Report.

The San Francisco Report, in its edition printed half an hour before the steamer Australia sailed, Wednesday, February 15, contains the following despatch:

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 15.—The documents in connection with the Hawaiian annexation treaty are ready for transmission to the Senate, and, nothing unexpected arising to prevent, they will be sent to the Senate this afternoon. Accompanying the President's message and the text of the treaty, will be copies of much of the correspondence between the Governments of the United States and of Hawaii, respecting the subject of annexation, dating back half a century.

The treaty will, of course, be sent to the Senate for consideration in executive session, but it is expected that the injunction of secrecy will be promptly removed by the Senate and the documents given to the public.

The treaty is signed by John W. Foster, Secretary of State, and Messrs. Thurston, Castle, Menden, Wilder and Carter, Commissioners, on behalf of the Provisional Government of Hawaii.

COMMENTS BY THE REPORT.
The Report, under the heading, "The Islands are Ours," contains the following editorial on the annexation: "The Hawaiian islands virtually belong to the United States to-day."

"The Report is in a position to say that the treaty of annexation was signed in Washington yesterday. Of course the Senate will confirm it, and then nothing will remain to be done but to take possession."

"We think the United States has made a mistake in taking possession of the islands in such haste. That, however, is due to Harrison's determination to have the glory of annexation for his own, though, truly, there is not much glory in it."

"A better course would have been to hear what the Queen's envoys had to say and to take a vote of the Hawaiian people. No attention need have been paid to the arguments of the envoys, and it would have been quite easy to arrange matters so that a majority vote for annexation would appear on the record. Then the United States could have taken the islands in with a good grace. But, as we have said, such proceedings would have thrown the actual annexation over into Cleveland's term of office, which was to be avoided at any cost—even the cost of violating all American traditions and precedents and placing ourselves on a level with England and Russia in our dealings with a weak nation—a trusting nation too, by the way."

"Besides, California should have been consulted as to the terms of the treaty. This State is the nearest to Hawaii, and the presence of many thousands of coolie and contract laborers there deeply concerns us."

"We ought to have been given an opportunity to express ourselves upon the terms of the treaty; and we hope the Senate will not slight us as President Harrison has, but will do us the justice he ought to have done us."

"We do not see anything left for Cleveland to do now, except to annex Canada. Surely some naturalized Americans in Canada or, better still, some French-Canadians can be induced to ask the United States to annex the country. That appears to be all that is necessary."

CONTENTS SECRET.

The Provisional Government has received the following despatch, evidently indited the evening before the sailing of the steamer:

"Treaty annexation signed to-day. Goes to Senate to-morrow. Every reason to expect favorable action. Terms of treaty strictly subrosa. Do not believe newspaper statements of contents. All well."

Mr. Washburne, who is in Honolulu representing the Associated Press, has a telegram by the steamer stating that the Treaty was presented to the Senate on the afternoon of the 15th, and on motion of Senator Sherman the Senate immediately proceeded to executive business.

It is believed by Mr. Washburne that the Treaty was ratified before the steamer sailed, but too late for the news to be got on board. Also, that the Commissioners will try to have the contents of the Treaty withheld from transmission to Honolulu until the steamer that brings them arrives here.

TO BE REFERRED TO THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT.

The treaty is said to contain a provision for reference to the Provisional Government of Hawaii, to be returned with their approval within two months. After that legislation to provide a form of government for the new territory will be enacted.

A BEAUTIFUL CHARITY.

Annual Meeting of the Hospital Flower Society.

The Hospital Flower Society held their annual meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. There was a goodly number present and a good deal of business was done. The old officers were unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year with the exception of the Vice-President who wished to resign.

It was voted that the dues of members were to be paid once a year (one dollar) instead of 25 cents a month as it had been.

The treasurer reported a good sum in the Postal Savings Bank, and it was decided that a portion of it should be used to keep a certain aged man in the Queen's Hospital for a month, or longer if necessary.

A letter from Miss Carroll was read, in which she said that she wished to thank the young ladies on behalf of the patients for their kindness and faithful attention in taking flowers to the sick, by whom they were much appreciated.

HERE AGAIN.

Former Unwelcome Visitor a Stow-away on the Australia.

A man named Taylor, who committed a forgery in California some years ago and fled to Honolulu with a female companion, has again made his appearance here; this time as a stow-away on the S. S. Australia.

Besides Mr. Taylor there are two other stow-aways on board the steamer.

As a law has been passed by the late Legislature prohibiting the landing of stow-aways from any foreign vessels in any port on the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. Taylor and his companions will have to work their way back on the same steamer to the Coast.

Taylor had just completed his sentence in jail and the first thing he did was to come here.

SCOOPS.

Honors Even and Nothing Great to Brag Of.

The BULLETIN acknowledges the scoop boasted of by the Advertiser in the Hesper mutiny story. This fairly evens up the honors for this week, as the BULLETIN badly scooped the Advertiser the other day, on the Cape Horn fatal burning, which was reported at the Police Station seven hours before the publication of the Advertiser, and that paper hadn't a word about it until after it was fully reported in the BULLETIN.

Hilo News.

The Kinan leaves Hilo to-day (Feb. 20) with a gentleman who has given great pleasure to those who attend church, and the Literary and Musical entertainments. Doctor Wiggins, who came to Hilo a little over two years ago to practice medicine at Papaikou, will long be remembered. Always genial, gentlemanly, sympathetic, he will be missed. A man who makes himself useful among people is always missed. He goes to Brooklyn, New York, and carries with him our aloha nui, though lost to sight to memory dear.

Hilo, Feb. 20, 1893.

Political Pain.

We believe in the farmer taking a proper interest in politics, but not in the professional politician. Papers are so cheap now-a-days that any one can afford to read both sides and base his judgment on the evidence presented. Some merry writer, unknown to us, has very neatly described the politician in the following psalm of politics: "The politician is my shepherd, I shall not want any good thing during the campaign. He leadeth me into a saloon for my vote's sake. He fillets my pockets with fine cigars and my beer glass runneth over. He inquireth concerning the health of my family, even to the fourth generation. Yea, through the mud and rain to vote for him and shout myself hoarse, when he is elected he straightway forgetteth me. Yea, though I meet him in his own office, he knoweth me not. Surely, the wool has been pulled over mine eyes all the days of my life."—The College Exponent, Stockton, Cal.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good, but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
