THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But Established for the Benefit of All.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1893.

Owing to the scarcity of gold coin in the United States the United States Treasurer has been obliged to float $50,000,000 gold bonds in the London market. It is to be presumed that our ultra patriotic American Provisional Government will not follow this degenerate lead by applying to English capitalists for the $750,000 loan they intend raising. If they do, it will be cited as another insidious attempt on the part of "perfide Albion" to gain the control of these islands.

CRITICISM.

A funny old sheet is our neighbor the Advertiser. It expends much labor and some brains in its issue of this morning, to show: 1st, that the P. G. is traveling a dangerous road, in utter disregard of the purposes for which it was created; and, secondly, that it is not only a justifiable, but a virtuous act, to criticise the P. G. and its eccentricities of government. But the Advertiser must not be taken too literally. When it asserts the right of criticism, it must be understood that the right contended for has no application to the vulgar common herd outside the charmed and charming circle over which the Advertiser is the presiding genius. Outside criticism is still unhallowed, fault-finding, if not sedition, or even treason. It is not for the "monarchists," "royalists," "boodlers," "soreheads" and others of like kidney to indulge in the luxury of criticising the acts of the P. G. Such a course were not only intrinsically vicious, when indulged by any of the "unwashed," but should justly subject its exponent not only to reprobation, but to prosecution as well. The Advertiser, as a critic, is, of course, also patriotic, as it ever is. But any one else, as a critic, is a firebrand and a nuisance, and should be put down by the strong (?) arm of the P. G., supplemented, if necessary, by the bayonets which Uncle Sam has generously placed at their disposal for the beneficent purposes of that political entity.

COURT CHRONICLE.

Spreckels vs. Macfarlane—Candidate for the Bar Examined.

The case of Claus Spreckels vs. G. W. Macfarlane is a bill to foreclose a mortgage lien of $140,000 and interest on stock of the Waikapu Sugar Co. The security was transferred by Bishop & Co. to the plaintiff. Hatch appears for Spreckels, and Hartwell for Macfarlane. Although not part of the so-called million dollar suit, for partition of the Waikapu common and an accounting, it has a relation to that famous and still pending contest. The hearing is still on before Judge Whiting this afternoon.

Thomazia Camacho, widow of the late Mariano Camacho, steward of the British Club, petitions the Circuit Court that John M. Vivas be appointed administrator of the estate of her late husband.

This morning the Justices of the Supreme Court gave a two hours' examination on the law to Mr. Antonio Perry, an applicant for admission to the bar. Mr. Perry is a son of the former Portuguese Consul at Honolulu, and has been a law student in Mr. Hartwell's law office. The result of the examination is not yet announced.

The first term ever held of the Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands in its exclusively appellate capacity will open on Monday next.

The annual account of the Trustees of the estate of Mrs. B. P. Bishop shows receipts of $70,156.06, expenditures of $63,897.41, and a cash balance of $6258.65. The net expenditure on Kamehameha School's manual department for the year ending July 31, 1892, was $21,880.55; on the Preparatory School, $8190.55, and special expenses, $2575.45. The attendance at the manual school was 128.

THE WHALERS.

Deserters by the Wholesale—Attempted Incendiarism.

A number of deserters from the whalers have been reported to the police within the past few days, all foreign seamen. Although there are nine native seamen on the vessels none of them seem to want to risk an escape. This is probably owing to the fact that several broke their contracts with inter-island service here and dare not land and be fined for their former offense.

This morning four deserters were apprehended by the police, two belonging to the steam whaler Navarch lying near the Pacific mail dock and two belonging to the Horatio cruising outside. The latter escaped while their boat was ashore on business. Rewards of $10 and $15 are offered for the capture of deserters.

Some time last night two seamen jumped overboard from the whaling bark Horatio which had come pretty close to land off Waikiki and anchored there. It is believed that the men landed safely, and are now being searched for. The men had very scanty clothing on and if they have escaped the monsters of the deep they will probably be asking for more clothing and food.

Seventeen barrels of oil were landed from the Horatio this morning.

An attempt was made by a seaman on board the whaling bark California to set fire to that vessel on Sunday night, but it was frustrated by the timely arrival of another seaman as the fire was blazing up. The man was promptly put in irons.

Sailors' Home.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—

The lack of a sailors' home in Honolulu is greatly apparent at the present when there are so many warships, whalers and merchant vessels in harbor. Have the Sailors' Home Trustees fallen asleep, or do they feel satisfied that they have done their duty by meeting once a year and listening to a report drawn up by one of their members. It must be about five or six years ago since the old Sailors' Home on Merchant street was demolished. Please get a move on, gentlemen.

MARLINSPIKE.

HUMAN GRASSHOPPERS.

Able Address by Rev. Dr. Lucas of Toronto.

Rev. D. V. Lucas, M. A., D. D., of Toronto, formerly of Montreal, lectured to a large audience in Y. M. C. A. hall last night. His subject was "Grasshoppers." A hymn was sung, Miss Nellie Lowrie accompanying on the piano. Rev. Dr. Beckwith offered a short prayer. The lecturer was briefly introduced by Rev. H. W. Peck, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Lucas said the world was the only battle ground human beings know of. Anybody if asked would say that violations of the moral law were bad for the world, and that the practice of virtues was always good. One of the greatest moral questions on which men were divided was that of the liquor traffic. He would not ask for a decision of the question from the audience before him, or from the W. C. T. U., or anybody that might be open to the charge of being prejudiced against the traffic. Instead he would give them the evidence of men engaged in the business. Accordingly he repeated the statements of liquor sellers in various places he had visited, some strongly expressed, to the effect that the business was bad and only bad.

The lecturer was three-fourths through with his address before he let out the "grasshoppers." He got them in the report of the ten faint-hearted children of Israel, who, after returning from an inspection of the land of Canaan, reported that giants lived there, in whose presence the spies were but as "grasshoppers." Taking this majority report as his main topic, the speaker gave no quarter to those who knew the right side, but excused their inaction by squeaking, "We can't do it." Men should not be grasshoppers. The lecturer told of the growth of prohibition sentiment in the United States, Australasia and Canada, and, using the blowing up of the Hell Gate rock at New York as an illustration, he said God was putting in explosives that would one day sweep the liquor traffic out of existence in Christendom.

Dr. Lucas held the closest attention of his auditors from beginning to end. He switched his talk from grave to gay with great ease, rising to heights of stirring eloquence and dropping to broad humor, but keeping his desired lessons always in strong relief. He will lecture in the same place this evening, on "Thumbs Up or Thumbs Down." A voluntary silver collection will be taken at the door.

Value of Alsace-Lorraine.

PARIS, March 1.—The question of international arbitration came up in the Reichstag to-day through a question asked by Dr. Barth, the leader of the Freisinnige party, who desired to know if the Government would join Great Britain and the United States in an effort to establish arbitration as a method of settling international disputes.

Biebarstein, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, replied that the imperial Government was entirely willing to accept arbitration in special cases.

Rebel, a Social Democrat, suggested that the future nationality of Alsace-Lorraine should be submitted to international arbitration.

Chancellor von Caprivi declared that if that question was submitted to arbitration and the arbitrators should decide that Germany should surrender Alsace-Lorraine the nation would refuse to acquiesce in the decision. Rather than give up that country the Germans would prefer to shed the last drop of their blood.

The Chancellor's statement was greeted with patriotic cheers.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by all dealers. THE GRANT MONUMENT.

Nearly Half a Million Dollars Now on Hand.

NEW YORK, March 1.—A complete report of the efforts made to erect a monument to General Grant's memory in this city has been rendered by the Monument Association. It shows that the total received was $506,005, all of which except $38,000 was contributed by citizens of New York city.

The total number of subscribers whose names were furnished was 17,110; the number of separate coins, bills and checks which were dropped into the numerous contribution boxes was 47,670, representing probably about that number of separate contributors. The total number of contributors to the fund may, therefore, be stated at 64,788. The individual amounts received ranged from 1 cent to $5000 and the difference between the subscriptions and the actual cash received from them will be less than $400.

The total disbursements to date are $30,000, leaving on hand $476,000, which will practically complete the monument. A very satisfactory contract for the granite work in the monument has been entered into with the Maine and New Hampshire Granite Company. The granite is light in color and durable in quality. It is expected that the monument will be completed in the autumn of 1895. In a repository to be provided in the monument will be parchment rolls containing autographs of the surviving veterans of the war who fought under Grant.

"German Syrup"

A Farmer at Edom, Texas, Says: "We are six in family. We live in a place where we are subject to violent Colds and Lung Troubles. I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and spitting-up of Blood. I have tried many different kinds of cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best. That has been my experience. If you use it once, you will go back to it whenever you need it. It gives total relief and is a quick cure. My advice to everyone suffering with Lung Troubles is—Try it. You will soon be convinced. In all the families where your German Syrup is used we have no trouble with the Lungs at all. It is the medicine for this country." John Franklin Jones.

The following choice bit of word painting occurs in Hawthorne's Marble Faun:

"Women be they of what earthly rank they may, however gifted with intellect or genius, or endowed with awful beauty, have always some little handiwork ready to fill the tiny gap of every vacant moment. A needle is familiar to the fingers of them all. A queen, no doubt, plies it on occasion; the woman poet can use it as adroitly as her pen; the woman's eye, that has discovered a new star, turns from its glory to send the polished little instrument gleaming along the hem of her kerchief, or to darn a casual fray in her dress. And they have greatly the advantage of us in this respect. The slender thread of silk or cotton keeps them united with the small, familiar, gentle interests of life, the continually operating influences of which do so much for the health of the character, and carry off what would otherwise be a dangerous accumulation of morbid sensibility. A vast deal of human sympathy runs along this electric line, stretching from the throne to the wicker chair of the humblest seamstress, and keeping high and low in a species of communion with their kindred beings."

Housewives, while you ply the needle, have you ever reflected on the vicissitudes of life? See to it that your husbands provide for the future welfare of their families by at once applying for a Policy in the EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY of the United States. No more suitable gift could be offered to you.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., L'd

Saturday, March 11, 1893.

A prominent buyer remarked in our store when he saw a big lot of Helvetia Belting being shipped to a plantation, "You have about everything in this store that is used on plantations except the machinery." This remark is pleasant to our ears coming as it does from a man whose business is to "buy things."

For the last year we have been striving to complete our stock, to have it so that a man will not have to go elsewhere to get what is needed for either his home or plantation. The Helvetia Belting was the one thing needful to complete our lines and just why we have delayed getting it is one of those things "no fellow can find out." But we have it now and your wants in this direction will be filled by us with the same mutual profit and small cost to you that characterises all of our goods.

We have lately added to our stock a large assortment of Carriage Supplies, Top Leather, Collar Leather, White Cotton Duck, Dash and Saddle Leather. For months and months we have been supplying the trade with Harness Leather in red and black; the other lines have recently been added on account of numerous calls from our customers. Carriage Top Dressing and Neal's Carriage Paints have been a staple article with us since our doors were first thrown open to the public and an invitation for a share of its patronage extended. That it has been a successful line with us is shown by our increased stock and spreading out of lines.

We intimated last week that the damp weather would not last forever; the blinding dust on the thoroughfares is proof of our prophecy and an indication of the approach of the windmill season. Last year we offered you the galvanized mill as an improvement over the painted one of the previous year. It was a step in advance of the windmill times. This year we show you, and sell you the galvanized steel tower, either fixed or tilting, which appears to cap the climax of all improvements. There seems to be nothing left for the manufacturers to do—they've reached the par excellence of windmills, and you know it. If there was as great an improvement in the system of collections here the average merchant would have sun on both sides of the street. Our office boy puts it this way:

The wind bloweth
The water floweth
The farmer soweth
The customer oweth
And the Lord knoweth
That we are in need of our dues.

To try and be cunning
And quick "come-a-running,"
Ere we go to Luning,
We're not "a funning"
This thing of dunning
Would give us the everlasting blues.
