Y. M. C. A.

At the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Thursday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

C. B. Ripley, President;
W. C. Weedon, Vice-President;
E. A. Jones, Treasurer;
G. H. Babb, Recording Secretary;
H. W. Peck, General Secretary;
T. Rain Walker and G. P. Castle, Directors.

These officers will be installed at the annual public meeting next Thursday evening, when the reports of officers for the past year will be presented.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. Knutson & Co., Kensington, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The Daily Bulletin is delivered by carriers for 50 cents per month.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Diamond Head, 12 m.—Weather hazy; wind fresh east.

The Anglican Chronicle and the Friend for April are out.

A little lightning, a little thunder and a little rain last night.

The P. G. band will play as usual at Emma Square this afternoon.

A native named Moke Wahaiki has been arrested for larceny of a quilt.

The S. S. China made the passage from Yokohama in 9 days and 12 hours.

The mail for San Francisco by the S. S. China will close at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

"Lady of the Twilight" this evening. All stars but no connection with the waning Star.

The Supreme Court has over-ruled the exceptions to the conviction of Len Tai for embezzlement of $1600.

Mr. E. M. Walsh, former manager of Paia plantation, Maui, returned from abroad by the S. S. Alameda yesterday.

The new organ for Central Union Church arrived on the Alameda, and is being erected by Mr. L. M. Clarke of Portland, Oregon.

The BULLETIN is indebted to Captain G. H. Griffiths of the barkentine S. G. Wilder for New York papers mailed from San Francisco.

Mrs. Charles Bagwell, who arrived yesterday from Canada, is a sister of Mrs. Peter High. On her journey here she lost her husband by death at Los Angeles.

Tom Morrison has been appointed driver of Engine Co. No. 2 in place of Ben Gallagher. Morrison was driver of the same machine in the volunteer regime.

The Hawaiian National Band will give a concert at the Hawaiian Hotel this evening at 7:30, complimentary to the guests at the hotel and all foreign visitors.

A portrait of Commissioner Blount is given in the last Review of Reviews. In the same number are some comical selected cartoons on the Hawaiian question.

The execution sale in the matter of Captain Davies, which was to have taken place to-day in front of the Marshal's office, has been postponed until Monday at noon.

Owing to sickness in the family, Miss Castle will not be able to play at the Handel lecture on Tuesday evening. Miss Hoppin has most kindly offered to take her place.

Chee Gee, for the larceny of a pair of pants belonging to Goo Kim, Chinese merchant, was sentenced in the District Court this morning to three months' imprisonment at hard labor.

Stephen von Berg has been appointed a luna to take charge of Government lands in Nuuanu valley—to take up estrays thereon, also upon Government roads between Judd street and the Pali.

Pictures of Thurston's cyclorama of Kilauea in course of construction at the World's Fair are shown in Hobron, Newman & Co.'s window. It promises to be a great attraction among all the great sights of the Fair.

No dice-shaking or card-playing for drinks will be allowed in the saloons hereafter, as Marshal Hitchcock has issued an order to that effect. The order says: "Shaking dice for drinks is equivalent to shaking for money."

The S. S. China arrived from Yokohama and Hongkong this morning and anchored autside. She had four cabin passengers and 135 Chinese steerage, and 500 tons of freight for this port. The China will resume her voyage to San Francisco at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, the mail closing an hour earlier.

The Hawaii Ponoi Dramatic Co. held a full rehearsal of the historical play, "Lady of the Twilight," at the Opera House yesterday evening. The costumes and scenery are all new and a good entertainment is promised. The Hawaiian National Band will compose the orchestra, and new Hawaiian songs will be sung.

Two natives, Joe. Kulolio and Paoo, who were sentenced to pay $500 fines, on April 7 and 8, 1892, respectively, or be imprisoned, were discharged from prison this morning by Foster and Wilcox, JJ., it appearing to them that the men have no property, and according to the statute, having served one year, they are set at liberty.

Political without any polities in it is again the beginning of the Hawaiian Hardware Co.'s weekly announcement. Economical is its ending with, however, much to assist in the economies of a thrifty household. It is really of more practical interest than Thurston's epistle to Colburn, which reporters find as hard to get as enlightenment from Col. Blount.

Mons. G. B. d'Anglade, late French Commissioner at Honolulu, has been promoted to the post of Consul-General at New Orleans. Mons. d'Anglade arrived here in 1889 and left a year ago, leaving Mons. Vizzavona in charge of the Legation, with Mr. W. M. Giffard as acting Chancellor. Lately Mons. d'Anglade has published a book on Hawaii under a nom de plume.

Elder S. S. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Juniatta Co., Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

RIOTOUS OUTBREAK.

Exciting Half-Hour on Punchbowl Slopes This Morning.

The foreign newspaper correspondents at present crowding our hotels have fallen asleep for want of any sensation since the raising of the Protectorate. This is probably why none of them were on hand to record a terrific battle fought on the slopes of Punchbowl this morning, the most noisy if not the most disastrous outbreak since the sharpshooters bombarded the oil tank on July 30, 1889.

There live in the classic quarter indicated two couples—a Portuguese man with a native wife and a native man with a Portuguese wife. Each couple, though fairly well-to-do, is yet poor enough to keep a dog. The dogs might be twins, both being black and about of a size. One of the women with her faithful mastiff following her was bringing home a new broom—whether of the P. G. brand or not deponent cannot depone or say. She went into a house, leaving the broom standing against a fence.

At this moment along comes the second woman, her dutiful hound guarding her heels. The dogs not sharing the mutual friendship hitherto existing between their owners, and in defiance of all treaty engagements and instructions from Washington, without any preliminary declaration of war other than low growls engaged in mortal combat. Each furious beast in a twinkling had its fangs deep in a fleshy part of the other's body, and all the yells of the second dame could not make either relax its deadly grip.

The woman seized her neighbor's broom and with purported impartiality belabored the brutes in the interest of peace. Buckets of water were poured over the inveterate combatants without effect. Equally futile was active play of a Chinese hackman's whip on their passion-fevered pelts. Dame No. 1 was attracted out by the clamor. She jumped to the conclusion that the armed arbiter was favoring her own dog in the distribution of her blows. The broom had by this time become as badly discredited as some of its prototypes in the civil service. It was badly demoralized, while the dogs were only settling down to more determined effort. Dame No. 1 ran for a billet of firewood, with which in a few lusty blows she fractured the skull of her neighbor's hound. "Gellert's dying yell" was the last sound of that dog fight.

The dual alliance for the enforcement of peace was then suddenly disrupted. Grim-visaged war broke out afresh, the new battle being between the women. They sprang at each other with the ferocity of Amazons—scratching each other's faces, tearing each other's bangs out by root. Then the men standing by hurriedly mobilized their strength and after a fearful struggle conquered a new peace. There were threatenings of the Pan-Punchbowl Male Alliance becoming involved in indiscriminate belligerency when our volunteer reporter left to enter his name as a new subscriber to the BULLETIN and give this paper a scoop on the battle of Punchbowl.

AFFECTIONS ALIENATED.

Mrs. Ramos the Photographer Breaks up a Home.

J. S. Ramos brought a civil suit for desertion against his wife, Mrs. Ramos, who formerly kept a photograph gallery on Fort street, in the District Court, but as he had commenced a suit for absolute divorce, the case was dismissed.

In the District Court this morning Mrs. Jacinto Vierra made a complaint against her husband, J. B. Vierra, who she claimed had deserted her for Mrs. Ramos, to whom he had been making love for the past eighteen days. Mr. Vierra, besides deserting his family had also refused to furnish them means for the necessaries of life.

Vierra was asked why he did not return to his wife and two children, when he answered that he could not stand the woman's temper. He would support his children, but return to his wife—never!

Police Magistrate Foster sentenced Vierra to one month's imprisonment at hard labor, to think the matter over. Vierra was not satisfied, but noted an appeal. Bail was fixed at $100.

SUBURBAN ROADS.

A Horse Drowned on the Government Road.

An employee of the Mutual Telephone Company named Jos. Pritchard came near losing his life, in addition to the drowning of the horse he was driving, on Wednesday afternoon. Pritchard was driving in a brake to Waialua when, this side of Gaspar Silva's place, he noticed a muddy lake in the middle of the Government road. Not thinking that it was deep, being in the public highway, he drove right ahead. The horse immediately sank up to his belly in the lake, and began floundering about. Pritchard was thrown out, and had no little trouble in extricating himself from the boghole. The horse was not so fortunate, however, as, after kicking about for some time, he got entangled in the harness and was drowned.

This boghole is stated by residents in that vicinity to have been there for two months, and how man and beast escaped injury before is a mystery. The existence of the quagmire has been known also to the road supervisor at Waialua, a late appointee of the Provisional Government.

Strongly Endorsed.

The advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla appeals to the sober, common sense of thinking people, because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by endorsements which in the financial world would be accepted without a moment's hesitation. They tell the story—Hood's Cures.

JAPANESE ROBBED.

A Fellow Countryman Arrested on Suspicion—Thirty Dollars Taken.

The room of Imada, Japanese, employed by Mr. J. F. Hackfeld, on the slopes of Punchbowl, was entered between 7 and 8 o'clock on Wednesday night, and robbed of $30 and a gold ring, which were in a purse in a trunk. The trunk was found by a Portuguese yesterday about ten yards from the house. There was a trail on the ground plainly showing from what direction it had been dragged.

Captain Max Schlemmer, of the police force, went to the place to investigate the case. He found that the burglar had broken a pane of glass in a window and, inserting his hand, unfastened the hasp and raised the window. A trunk was lifted out of the window and dragged a few yards from the house, so that the robber could make his explorations with deliberation, and have a full survey of his surroundings. Marks of the robber's feet were plainly traced on the ground, showing that one man had done the work. Size of the feet was small, and the officer suspected a Japanese as being the criminal. The marks on the ground were measured and corresponded with the width of the trunk.

This morning Captain Schlemmer arrested a Japanese servant on suspicion. The man had gone to Imada a few days ago and asked him for a loan of $3, which request was not complied with.

Kahunas at Work.

While festivities were going on at Kulaokahua yesterday afternoon, in honor of a lone annexation commissioner, a big breadfruit weighing several tons dropped with a dull thud near the commissioner's great toe, which was only protected by a No. 12 mocassin he brought from Chicago. There was barely wind enough at the time to play Eolian airs through his bristly whiskers, and the chief kahuna of the Friend regarded the drop as a worse omen than would be a fall in Ewa stock or Pearl City freeholds. The physician-in-chief to the editor of the gloaming organ was disappointed in not having that great toe to dissect.

The many cases of rheumatism cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm during the past few months have given the people great confidence in its curative properties, and have shown that there is one preparation that can be depended upon for that painful and aggravating disease. Honaker Bros., Lorain, Ohio, say: "Mr. Moses Price, of this place, was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has cured him. He says that the Balm has no equal." For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Prof. F. Lombard, A. B., will continue giving instruction in private and in classes; French, Spanish, and Latin. Residence, Alakea street, near Y. M. C. A.

A Boston Dressmaker

Quickly Cured of Sour Stomach

All Who Suffer Similarly, Remember, HOOD'S CURES.

Mrs. F. W. Barker
Boston, Mass.

This lady is a well-known and popular dressmaker. She says:

"There is no mistake about Hood's Sarsaparilla. I want to tell how quickly it cured me of sour stomach, which had troubled me for over a year. I could not even take a swallow of water but what I suffered distress and acidity. When I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla I could see good effects from the first three doses. I continued until I had taken three bottles and have been entirely cured. I give this statement for the benefit of others who are suffering similarly." MRS. F. W. BARKER, 41 Chester Park, Boston, Mass.
