The Bulletin is requested to state, presumably for the benefit of the large tary practice on board. number of those outside the limited circle of readers of the Government organs, that people whose trees are attacked can have the use of the spraying machines free, and only have to pay for the chemicals and the labor. Those neglecting to attend to affected trees on their premises are in peril of having le commissionaire Marsden come down on them-a fate that those who are aware of his avoirdupois will not be anxious to invite.

Sold Again!

A message by telephone was re-ceived at the Police Station shortly before noon to-day that William Bruett was caught near Kapiolani Park. Captain Klemme and posse were despatched to the scene, but, instead of Bruett, they found another man, who was working on the same case. He was a foreigner and was found enjoying a cup of tea, a tin of lunch tongue and a loaf of bread in the bushes near Diamond

THE GAINSBOROUGH.

Deal at Newcastle.

The British bark Gainsborough, Captain McPhail, from Newcastle, N. S. W., was telephoned off Diamond Head last night, but did not come into port until this morning, when she was towed in by the tug Eleu. The Gainsborough left New-castle with 1300 tons of coal for Wilder & Co. on March 14th, and passed the north end of New Zealand on the 26th, four days later passing the Kermadee Islands. Passed Kingsmill shoals, where the bark Lady Lampson was wrecked, sixty miles to westward. Crossed the equator on April 18th in 1651 W. In the South Pacific the vessel experienced light E. S. E. and E. N. E. winds which greatly retarded her passage. Captain McPhail states that if it hadn't been for the light winds the Gainsborough would have been here eight days sooner. On April 26th the vessel was only 600 miles from Honolulu to westward, and the captain had to make a circuitous route to gain any headway. On May 8th sighted Kauai bearing S. E. and arrived off port yesterday. The bark was formerly an immigrant ship, plying between England and the Australian Colonies.

The Gainsborough did not sight single sail throughout the passage, although two four-masted schooners, the Lyman D. Foster and King Cyrus, not yet arrived, left before her bound for this port. The wea-ther was pleasant throughout and there was but very little rain.

The vessel was detained five days in Newcastle after she was ready for sea, owing to a hurricane and a Horsemen and sporting men ought | heavy flood, which happened as she was about to leave. Much damage was done to the shipping in the har-bor. One vessel had her stern smashed in collision with a Government dredge which had snapped her moorings. It required five tugs to keep the dredge from doing any more damage. Two Government tugs went to the assistance of the Gainsborough which was moored to a buoy in the stream. During the height of the hurricane Captain Me-Phail nearly made up his mind to order the hawsers parted, and make an effort to gain the open sea. It was a close shave for the old vessel, and it was the skipper's intention to let her go on the reef outside, where part of her material might have been recovered. Old residents there stated to the captain that it was the heaviest hurricane that they had ever known there. Colonial exchanges confirm the statement. Captain McPhail is accompanied by his wife and family, who are en-joying the best of health. When seen in the cabin of the vessel the little tots were running around as lively as could be desired.

LAST NIGHT'S ARRESTS.

Gamblers by the Wholesale-More Swipes.

Captain Schlemmer and Patrolman Curtis made a raid on a Chinese gambling house at the corner of Nuuanu and Pauahi streets last night. The officers surprised a number of Chinamen in the act of enjoying a quiet game. Four of the gamesters were arrested. One of the men offered the officers $10 as a bribe. This was taken and the men were marched down to the Station.

KLEMME'S CATCH.

He Brings In a Coffee Fiend Early This Morning.

A young native living on Fort street awoke between 3 and 4 o'clock vesterday morning, and feeling a little hungry decided to go out and have a cup of coffee in a Chinese restaurant near by. He dressed himself and went out, but the restaurant man was not up. The native decided to wait a few minutes and stood near the fence. Presently Captain Klemme of the mounted patrol happened along, and seeing the young man standing in the shadow of the fence, thought there was something wrong. Visions of a conspiracy, a spy or something else floated before he undaunted captain's eye, and in the twinkling of another eye he grabbed the man by the back of the neck and yanked him down to the Station House. On examination it was found that the fellow was harmless, and he was let go. The first place the man made for was a coffee saloon.

New Goods at the Temple.

"Two great specialties" are an-nounced by the Temple of Fashion. A large and complete line of the favorite diamond dye fast black hose has been received, and a special sale of hosiery will begin at the Temple next Saturday. The other great feature is an assortment of window enriains in various materials, new designs and very choice patterns Mr. Ehrlich displays these goods with prices marked in his windows.

---The promptuess and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, of eroup and whooping coughs, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, ian Islands.

JUROR VS. COUNSEL.

Old Immigrant Ship-Rough Retort Courteous by a Good Man and True.

When the jury was being empaneled in the Circuit Court for the trial of Richard Stone for perverting justice, Mr. J. T. Stacker was called among other good men and true. Mr. Hartwell for the defense excused Mr. Stacker on the ground that he was not acquainted with that gentleman.

On the next case being called Mr. Stacker's name was again drawn. As usual, when the twelve were in the box, they were asked if any of them knew any reason why he should not sit to try the case. After a pause Mr. Stacker rose and blandly remarked: "If your honor please, I do not know of any reason except that I was excused in the previous case because the distinguished counsel for the defense was not acquainted with me, and I have not had the honor of an introduction to him since."

"The distinguished counsel" gyrated on his heel as he said: "Mr. Stacker is excused." One for Stacker!

BIG FIRE AT WAILUKU.

The Plantation Manager's House Burnt Down.

News has just been received that the residence of the manager of the Wailuku Plantation was burnt down on Wednesday night the 10th inst. The alarm was given about a quarter to twelve at night and the fiery element soon got its work in, the house being completely burnt to the ground. The value of the building s estimated at from $7000 to $8000. Mr. C. B. Wells, the new manager, had started to remove his furniture into the house and he loses property worth about $800. The cause of the fire is at present unknown, but there are rumors of firebugs having been about.

THROWN FROM A WAGON.

Painful Accident to a Chinaman This Morning.

A Chinaman driving in a wagon met with a rather serious accident near the top of Emma street this morning. He was coming down at a pretty fair gait, when the animal got scared at some noise and bolted. The Chinaman, as is usual with his race, got excited and was unseated and thrown violently to the ground under the horse's heels. One of the front wheels passed over his head, hurting him badly. He was picked up and taken to the Queen's Hospital for medical treatment.

Central Union Church Social.

A social was held by the congregation of Central Union Church in their parlors last night. Misses Rhodes and Dale sang vocal solos, and Mr. Geo. C. Potter gave a recitation. Refreshments, of which the staple was ice cream, were served to a large company.

An interesting feature of the evening was the presentation, on behalf of the congregation, by President Dole to Dr. Beckwith, pastor, of a caue made from wood out of the departed Fort-street church. Besides the appropriate remarks of the giver and receiver, a humorous speech was made by Mr. T. R. Robinson on the While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by all dealers.
