

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Memorial day.

Tomorrow is Trinity Sunday.

New bill at the circus tonight. See notice of new Hawaiian Directory on eighth page.

Minister Damon will leave for the Coast on the Australia.

W. S. Luce will sell two new vehicles at noon on Monday.

Many of the retail business houses will close this afternoon.

Did you call and get your dividends on Ewa stock today?

Charles Creighton is now on the mend and improving rapidly.

Tremendous bill of fun for the circus tonight. See it elsewhere in this paper.

Next Saturday's ball game will be between the Kamehameha and First Regiment teams.

Remember the auction sale of the racer Duke Spencer by W. S. Luce at noon Monday.

Members of the various military companies are expected to be on hand at the drill shed at 2 p. m.

P. C. Jones leaves on the Coptic on Tuesday on business connected with the new issue of bonds.

Bills against the Senate must be presented to Secretary Clay not later than 10 o'clock on Monday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pioneer Building and Loan Association takes place on Monday evening.

Five of the wealthiest men in the Senate voted against the Income Tax bill on third reading this morning.

The band will take part in the Memorial day services, consequently there will be no concert at Emma square.

The Japanese brought by the steamer Taiwan-Maru are all supposed to be free laborers and there are just 1244 of them.

Telephone the Central Meat Market for a supply of choice pickled lamb's tongue and pig's feet, fresh liver sausage and head cheese.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at the 5:30 a. m. service of the Second Congregation at St. Andrew's Cathedral tomorrow.

Mrs. E. J. Duffey and Mrs. A. K. Kingsford of San Francisco are guests of Mrs. E. S. Cunha. The ladies arrived per S. S. Australia yesterday.

Washable Crepe Kimonos at $1.25 each, all designs and colors, guaranteed not to fade. Iwakami on Hotel street, next to Ordway and Porter's.

Minister Cooper said this morning that under the new order of affairs which had developed there would undoubtedly be an extension of the session.

The Progressive Educator for May contains a supplement for the boys and girls, entitled, "The D Class." Omer Abbott, principal of Lahainaluna, is the editor.

Native clergymen have been flocking into town by steamers from the other islands the past few days, to attend the meeting of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association.

Commissioner Marsden turned loose a consignment of 225 bats last night which are designed to clear the country of the Japanese beetle pest. It is to be hoped that Prof. Koebele will not be deceived in his calculations.

Mr. Silva, leader of the Kawaihau Club, has received a letter from one of the National Band boys. They are playing at Lincoln Park, Chicago, and are engaged to play at Manhattan Beach on the south side of the same city. Afterward they will go to Kansas City, Missouri. They are not by any means stranded.

James T. Morgan will offer one of the finest lots of Japanese ware, consisting of curios, vases, screens, bamboo tables, chairs, etc., ever seen in Honolulu, at auction on Wednesday next. The lot is a recent importation from Dai Nippon and such an opportunity is seldom offered to get the really fine productions of the artists of the Kingdom of the Chrysanthemum.

He Sleeps "Unknown"

(Suggested by a head-board marked "Unknown" at Hutch's Run, near Petersburg, Va., while in the final pursuit of Lee's army. The verses were written in a diary during a short halt in the march.)

He sleeps "Unknown!" No mother there to hold his aching head, No gentle hand to soothe the dying bed; But death spake in the cannon's dreadful roar, And bade the spirit flee this earthly shore, And seek eternity.

He sleeps "Unknown!" No loved one there to hear his last farewell, No tolling of the solemn funeral bell, But mid the din of war's relentless strife, He passed from death into eternal life, A living sacrifice.

He sleeps "Unknown!" No fear was shed upon that lonely grave, No funeral dirge in honor of the brave, By hurried soldier hands his covering thrown, Then quickly on the slab was carved "unknown," While still the battle raged.

He sleeps "Unknown!" No loving sister plants with flow'rs his tomb, Watched with care and waters till they bloom, But in her far-off home "neath Northern skies, She looks with longing, aye, with weeping eyes, But looks in vain for him. He sleeps "Unknown!"
