A private letter received from Hongkong said the bark Velocity had sailed for Honolulu the last week in May.

The bark Hollinswood has been stripped, caulked, and recoppered in the Merchants' dry dock at San Francisco.

While the C D Bryant was being overhauled in San Francisco lately, the main mast head was found to be rotten.

The British barkentine Chehalis recently broke the record for sailing vessels between Hakodate and San Francisco, making the trip in 96 days. ASTORIA (Or.), June 9.—Seven seamen arrived here on the steamer Columbia from San Francisco this morning to join the American ship Tillie E Starbuck, which left here today for Honolulu. The United States Marshal at this port boarded the Columbia before she docked and took charge of the men to prevent their meeting with the local boarding-house keepers and being spirited away. The boarding-houses here have a large number of sailors waiting employment, but they are keeping up rates. It is believed that the reason for the importation of the California men was the difference in the price for which they were obtainable.
