Have You An Account?

This is a serious question, one at which some folks take offense, yet salesmen are under the necessity of asking it. Some folks deal near home, settle infrequently, never investigate to see whether they pay more than they should and too often allow their accounts to go long over due. If you don't care what the family expenses are it's a poor way to do if you want to leave your children in affluent circumstances when you are gone. Now it is quite an advantage to have an open account at a well-known house, who can execute your order promptly. Often persons say they don't want an account and will pay in a few days. But we cannot keep memoranda of charges; it isn't safe or good business. The stock found in ordinary stores is usually stale, uninviting and inferior, while the stock in our store is turned so frequently and so carefully watched that it is at all times fresh. Our stock in trade consists of the luxuries and delicacies from every civilized nation. Send for our catalogue and prices and note the variety offered. Telephone us—240. We supply all nationalities.

SEEN IN THE SHOPS.

The Newest Designs and Fabrics For Home Decorations.

Denims still hold their own. Various changes have been rung on this line, but its popularity has never waned. Just now it makes a new bid for favor in the embroidered portieres, couch covers, sofa pillows and roll cases that are the newest designs seen in this domestic fabric. It cannot be purchased by the yard, as it comes just in the proper lengths for either purpose. The embroidery on the portiere runs down one side and across the bottom; it is done in white, and the pattern is a trifle heavier in the corner. Those for a couch have the embroidery all around the edge, forming an attractive border. Both of these articles have a finish of fringe. The denim comes in all the prevailing shades, blue, pink, red, sage green, old rose and Spanish brown. Some of the articles are further enhanced with a geometrical design in white, applied on in the middle, and on this is a little outline design of the same color as the body of the material. Screen covers are to match all of these. Couch covers are $6.75 and the portieres $2.95 per pair.

Sofa cushions intended for the porch, hammock, yachts, etc., are usually quite gay, the brilliant coloring being permissible out of doors. The upholsterers are making up the gayest plaids imaginable into these pillows. They resemble the gaudy bandana of the old southern negro. However, it is a new fabric and is called madras, and is similar to Scotch gingham. The colors are fast, and they form one of the most serviceable and inexpensive of sofa pillows. They are finished simply with a very fine hemmed ruffle of the same goods. The material comes in two yard lengths, at $1.20, or made up, but of not so good a quality, for $1. Decorator and Furnisher, which makes this report, also adds:

Renaissance lace is the accepted style for all purposes where white lace is used—window curtains, table linen and the covers for dressing cases and stands. Window curtains with this lace may be had from $6.75 up to $275 per pair.

Some new designs in silkolines, a cheap fabric somewhat resembling china silk, are quite pretty and stylish and in excellent tones of color. These are universally used for light summer draperies and are so cheap that they can be discarded at the end of the season without violating one's conscience.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

Torchon and Valenciennes laces are still in great demand. L. B. Kerr has a choice lot, which he is selling at lowest possible rates.

Before giving your order for a portrait, see what King Bros. have to show in crayon enlargements and judge for yourself whether they can give you the best value for your money or not.

Kroeger Pianos, sweetest in tone, Jas. W. Bergstrom, sole agent, cash or installments. Warerooms at G. West's, Masonic Temple. Office at Thrum's Book Store. Tuning and repairing. Telephone 347.

Printed ducks are just as good, if not better than anything else for boys' shirt waists. They wash and wear well, two very important considerations. Kerr has them in a large variety of patterns at eight yards for one dollar.

It's one thing to take an order for a portrait and quite another to fill it satisfactorily. King Bros' portraits have always been known to give satisfaction and now that they have reduced their prices so low, an extra inducement is offered. See what they have before you invest.

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

The Best. Rest. Test.

There are two kinds of sarsaparilla: The best—and the rest. The trouble is they look alike. And when the rest dress like the best who's to tell them apart? Well, "the tree is known by its fruit." That's an old test and a safe one. And the taller the tree the deeper the root. That's another test. What's the root,—the record of these sarsaparillas? The one with the deepest root is Ayer's. The one with the richest fruit; that, too, is Ayer's. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a record of half a century of cures; a record of many medals and awards—culminating in the medal of the Chicago World's Fair, which, admitting Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best—shut its doors against the rest. That was greater honor than the medal, to be the only Sarsaparilla admitted as an exhibit at the World's Fair. If you want to get the best sarsaparilla of your druggist, here's an infallible rule: Ask for the best and you'll get Ayer's. Ask for Ayer's and you'll get the best.
