 Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble.
 Yours truly, J. B. DANIELS.

The Imitative Quality.
 To that far distant region lying below Hudson bay a fur trader took his Boston bride and on the following Sunday proudly led her to the seat of honor in the little chapel. The congregation, to be sure, consisted chiefly of converted Eskimos, but there were a few English and American residents, and the natives, as the story will show, were not unappreciative.

The bride was dressed in the voluminous fashion of 30 years ago. A generous circle indeed would have been required to outline her skirts, and a coquettish little veil shaded the upper half of her pretty face.

Entranced sat the Eskimo women, but with the call to prayer their heads bent reverently in the customary attitude of worship. Were they following the earnest words of the minister? Were their petitions rising with his? On the contrary, all the women were busily engaged in dragging forward to the tips of their noses the nets which, after long urging, the missionaries had induced them to adopt to confine their flowing hair. The veil of the bride had demonstralized their religious devotion.

Such was the honesty of these Hudson bay Indians that never but once did the missionaries lose any possessions by theft. The week following this memorable Sabbath the Americans could not keep a barrel for themselves, even the one devoted to ashes falling apart one night because its hoops had been purloined. Where they went, however, the former possessors had abundant evidence at the next chapel service.

It is not alone among primitive people that the imitative quality is prominent. After Fox made his brilliant speeches in parliament it was the fashion, even as far as Paris, to be a thinking man, to think like Fox, while the story of some haughty Lady Inogen or of a wrecker of the west has ruined many a young follower. It is by imitation of what is trivial and false or of what is beautiful and good that we descend or mount a few steps toward the likeness of what we admire.— Youth's Companion.

The Work of Honeybees.
 To secure a pound of honey, which is equivalent to something like 3,000 cells, would take a bee several years. In fine weather the bee makes calls upon 50 to 80 flowers in a day's outing. During this time it collects what is equivalent to a grain of nectar, which is a thin sirup and has to be evaporated to make honey. The bee, after working all day, spends the greater part of the night fanning the nectar with its wings to evaporate the surplus water. In this way it shortens its life by wearing out its wings. Langstroth says that a bee at the height of the working season lives about three working weeks and then dies. Bees frequently perish on the way home because their wings are so shattered and splintered that they refuse to support the body. If a disabled bee reaches the hive alive, it spends the remainder of its days as nurse, housekeeper and in general utility work. A good and fertile queen bee keeps the hive full of bees during the season.
 When the honey flow stops, she ceases laying at once; then the workers kill all of the drones and manifest other symptoms of a consuming desire for retrenchment.—New York Ledger.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.
 Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainer Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

 ject of enlarged portraits, it would be worth your while to see the samples at King Bros. at prices reduced prices to $5.00, $6.50, $7.50 and $10.00 for work that your attention to the superior
