POLICE COURT MATTERS.

Judge Wilcox Disposes of An Unusually Long Calendar.

In the District Court this morning many cases were put over until Wednesday, owing to the length of the calendar and the closing of the Court tomorrow out of respect to the late British representative.

In the case of Edmund H. Hart, the typewriter, accused of assaulting his former employer, F. W. Makinney, by trying to horsewhip him on Saturday, a nolle pro. was entered. Hart claimed that Makinney had used insulting remarks concerning his wife, which Makinney denies.

Two Japanese, charged with maintaining a disorderly house, were discharged.

Alohiika, a hackdriver, pleaded guilty of violating the hack regulations and was adjudged to have forfeited his license.

Makaoui was found guilty of selling swipes and had his sentence suspended pending good behavior. Piliiani, an old offender of the same stripe, was fined $100 and costs.

Alex. Harris, charged with assaulting one Gilsey with a knife, had his trial set for the 11th.

Ex-patrolman Gillis, Conley, Hewitt and Cornwell, accused of a disgraceful assault on two natives while on duty, had their trial set for next Friday.

Kawai, who assaulted John Milton to such an extent that he is still in the hospital, had his case again postponed to Wednesday.

The balance of the morning session was taken up with finishing the partly-tried case of Mrs. E. Wolter, Gas Froboese and Mrs. Gus Froboese on a charge of assault and battery preferred by James Nott Jr. The defendants were all found guilty and fined $5 each and costs. In the cases of Mrs. Wolter and Mrs. Froboese an appeal was taken to the higher court.

Nicely furnished rooms at the Popular House, 154 Fort street, from $1.00 per week up.

The Pacific Cycle & Manufacturing Co. have on hand a stock of shotgun ammunition for the opening of the dove season.

The baseball game between naval men and town boys, announced for today, has been postponed for one week on account of the death of Commissioner Hawes.

When you get a touch of that tired feeling so prevalent in this climate call around at the "Favorite" for a glass of the famous Seattle Beer. It will relieve you at once.

Large numbers of people went out to Makee Island yesterday, attracted by the band concert and Company A's encampment. At the latter refreshments were served to all visitors.

THAT COLD AND OF GOLD

NUGGETS OF INFORMATION ABOUT THE KLONDYKE.

How the Climate is To Be Faced—Interesting Facts About the Region.

"Nuggets of Information About the Klondyke Mining Region," is the heading the San Francisco Examiner of July 25 puts over the following crisp paragraphs:

The first discovery of gold on the Klondyke was made in the middle of August, 1896, by George Carmack.

The only way into and out of the Klondyke in winter is by way of Juneau.

The steamer which leaves St. Michaels, now will reach the Klondyke in September.

The only way to live is to imitate the Indians in dress and habit.

It is useless to wear leather or gun boots. Good moccasins are absolutely necessary.

The colder it is the better the traveling. When it is very cold there is no wind, and the wind is hard to bear.

Indian guides are necessary, to go ahead of the dogs and prepare the camp for night.

In the summer the sun rises early and sets late, and there are only a few hours when it is not shining directly on Alaska.

In the winter the sun shines for a short time only each day.

It is 2500 miles from San Francisco to St. Michaels.

It is 1895 miles from St. Michaels to Dawson City.

In summer the weather is warm and tent life is comfortable.

The winter lasts nine months.

There are two routes by which to reach Dawson City. One by St. Michaels island and the other via Juneau.

By steamer it costs $150 to go from here to Dawson City.

Dogs are worth their weight in gold. A good long-haired dog sells from $150 to $200.

Skates might be used to good advantage at times.

The Yukon river is closed by ice from November to the latter part of May.

On the Klondyke the thermometer goes as low as 60 degrees below zero.

There is a great variety of berries to be found all through the country in summer.

Game is very scarce.

Vegetables of the hardier sort can be raised.

Stock can be kept by using care in providing abundantly with feed by ensilage or curing natural-grass hay and by housing them in the winter.

In summer abundance of fine grass can be found near the rivers.

In appearance the natives are like the North American Indians, only more lithe and active, with very small feet and hands.

They live in temporary camps both winter and summer, either in the mountains or on the river, according to the habits of the game they are hunting.

Gold was first discovered in the vicinity of Sitka by Frank Mahoney, Edward Doyle and William Dunlay in 1872.

Of the seven trading stations in the Yukon district five are located upon the river bank.

The first American traders to engage in the Yukon trade were members of the Western Union Telegraph expedition.

With the first breath of spring the up-river people prepare for their annual meeting with their friends from the outside world.

Supplies are purchased chiefly in California, and carried from here to St. Michaels.

The Yukon is navigable for a 250 ton steamer for a distance of 1600 miles.

At a distance of 600 miles from the ocean the Yukon river is more than a mile wide.

The Klondyke mining region is in the latitude of Iceland and lower Greenland.

The longitude of St. Michaels is farther west than that of Honolulu.

First-class repair work only is turned out by the Hawaiian Cycle & Manufacturing Co., 312 Fort street. They have the very best of skilled workmen.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.
