

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Rev. C. W. Hill has returned to Hilo.

The latests in Sailor Hats just arrived at Mrs. Hanna's.

Dr. Herbart will be back on the Kinau, arriving Sunday.

The band played on the grounds of Emma Hall this forenoon.

The C F Sargent will sail for the Sound on Friday or Saturday.

The public schools have resumed work with a large attendance.

The Colusa and Wrestler will sail in ballast for the Sound on Saturday.

The Golden Rule Bazaar displays a choice lot of school supplies in its windows.

Miss Minna Ahrens, daughter of Manager Ahrens of Oahu plantation, has gone to Hilo to attend school.

W. Y. Afong of the Post Office, leaves today on a vacation trip of a fortnight to be spent on the Garden Isle.

"Popular priced dress goods" is the string Sachs & Co. are harping upon this week. Make no mistake the values are very right.

Miss Piilani Jones left in the Kinau for Kohala this morning. Miss Jones goes to take charge of a school to which she was recently appointed.

The sick soldiers who have been in the hospital at Independence park say that the place is very comfortable and that they are well cared for.

It will be a disappointment to many to know that there will be no four oared senior event between the Myrtles and Healanis. The result of last Saturday was so close that another trial would be a great satisfaction.

The schooner Waiatua arrived from Kauai ports this morning with a cargo of 950 bags of rice. She will go on the marine railway when she has finished discharging, sailing again on her usual route Saturday.

Officer Lambert arrested a native on Nuuanu avenue shortly after noon. The fellow howled all the way down to the police station and is still making music for the police officers as the BULLETIN goes to press.

The Hui Aloha Ains continued its session yesterday afternoon and all day today. The work was the consideration of the form of the memorial to be presented to the Commission. If possible the delegates will call on the Commission this afternoon.

Saturday will be a big day. Lovers of aquatic spots will have a chance to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. The same arrangements as those of last year will be made this year. It should be kept in mind that Captain Campbell and T. J. King are the ones authorized to collect money to defray expenses.

Careless Doings.

Hack Inspector Sam Macy reports the very careless doings of certain persons at the Red Cross Society ball last night. He says that while standing below attending to his duty, plates, bottles and bits of food were thrown from the windows. Luckily no one happened to be near the places where these objects fell. Had he been able to identify the people who did the thing, there would have been some arrests.

Change of Stewards.

T. K. James who came down as chief steward of the transport Scandia, will remain in Honolulu on account of illness. His place will be taken by Second Steward Thomas, likewise a very good man at the business.
