LADY WAS OVERHAULED.

Skipper Tells of What Custom House Officers Did.

The jolly skipper of the Koolau schooner Lady is back in port again. He has no further use for the Custom House officers. The reason why will be found in the following story, told by the captain himself:

"We left port on Wednesday week, taking a cargo of general merchandise for our usual Koolau ports. As luck would have it, we got no wind and next morning were not very far away.

"We were surprised to see the tug boat approaching up. In a little while she came alongside and Inspector Short said, 'We are going to board you.' I answered that that was all right.

"Then the inspector asked me where I was going and I answered that I was going to Koolau if I could get the necessary wind.

"Then the four Custom House officers who came aboard began to search the ship and to overhaul the cargo. I thought that they had done enough by coming aboard but when they actually asked me to lend them one of my men to help rip up my cargo, I almost fell on the deck. Well, they didn't get the man and they didn't find anything on the vessel.

"It seems that they had a tip that 'dope' was dropped from one of the foreign steamers that came into port early in the week; that this was anchored and that an island schooner was going to pick it up."

What the Doctor Ordered.

"I was in poor health and the prescriptions I tried did not benefit me. At last the doctor began to give me Hood's Sarsaparilla and it proved to be the best of all medicines for me, and I can speak of it only in the highest terms and deem it a duty to recommend it." Charles S. Powell, 429 Iowa Street, San Antonio, Texas.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Cure all liver ills.

GET IT AT WATERHOUSE'S.

IN TIME OF LIGHT PREPARE FOR DARKNESS.

On Wednesday evening between nine and ten o'clock some of the business houses who depend entirely on electricity were, without notice, left in darkness.

Many had not so much as a lamp in the house, others had lamps but no chimneys, and for a time it looked as though they would have to close up shop.

Our stock of lamps is the most complete of any in the city—many new and attractive designs.
