P. T. C's Captain.

E. R. Adams has been made Captain of the Pacific Tennis Club. The reason for appointing a captain is this. Heretofore, it has been the habit of the boys to agree among themselves as to the respective teams in doubles but now, it is proposed to have one man pick the teams, putting the strongest players together and thereby strengthening the play. The P. T. C. fellows are anxious to show Honolulu this year the very best tennis that has ever been seen here.
