FOR PRESIDENT.

WM. McKINLEY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

THEO. ROOSEVELT.

Honolulu has the opportunity this year of making a record for the best Fourth of July celebration ever held on the shortest notice.

It is not the salary that makes the position when appointees of the Governor draw down a larger rate per month than the Governor himself.

Young Hawaiians as well as their elders should not forget that they not only have the right but it is their duty as American citizens to take a prominent part in the affairs of the Territory.

It was indeed unfortunate that American warships should be missing from the fight at Taku where Commander Tattnall made himself and his nation famous. Failure to be on hand at the second fight, however, does not indicate that the Americans are any less enthusiastic in their support of Tati-nall's war cry.

If the proposed new lumber company can make home building in Hawaii less expensive without creating a ruinous competition, the problem of rents and accommodation for our steadily increasing population will soon be solved.
It is not to the everlasting credit of the people of these progressive times that Honolulu cannot properly house its increasing population.

WHO IS LITTLE?

The question is asked by a ponderous contemporary in connection with Gilbert F. Little of Hilo whom the President of the United States honored with an appointment to the circuit bench of the Territory of Hawaii. It is perhaps a most timely question in view of the fact that some of the good citizens and those scheduled among prominent citizens appear, even at the present time, to fall short of a full realization of who Little is.

Gilbert F. Little is a patriotic American, he is a loyal Republican. These qualifications to favorable consideration may not be held in high esteem by the more prominent factors among his critics for reasons best known to themselves. Invested with this authority and a knowledge of Hawaiian conditions as gained by several years active life in the islands, Little went to Washington early in the session of the Fifty-sixth Congress. He represented to a certain extent private interests.
He gave his time and energy to the discussion of important measures touching the general welfare of every prospective American citizen in the Territory.

That Little should presume to advocate the establishment of the Hawaiian Territory on broad American lines, with the end in view that no member of the Hawaiian-American body politic should be excluded from the right of franchise, called down upon his head all the wrath and bitterness of personal attack that could be mustered in the ranks of locally assumed official importance. The delegate of the Coconut Club turned upon Little his squirt gun of vilification, almanac stories and vulgar buffoonery. Not this alone. An effort was made to refuse Little a hearing before Congressional committees.
His record was assailed, his personal and political standing was thoroughly searched for vulnerable points. Strange indeed it seemed to his enemies, that Little stood his ground, accepted the attacks from whence they came and showed up smiling before the committees backed by some of the strongest men of the nation. In a word, Little proved himself a worthy American of high standing in the party.

Little is the man who proposed that Honolulu be the temporary capital of the Territory, and while his enemies were arguing the question, took advantage of the time thus gained to get in his work for a liberal franchise. The result was that by the time his enemies had waked up, Little had won out.

Little was a known candidate for a judgeship. As such every opportunity was given to discredit him with the Attorney General, and the President.
Although the opportunity was improved, Little received his commission as Circuit Judge of Hawaii at the hands of Wm. McKinley. Further comment is unnecessary from men who believe in the wisdom of the President and honestly support the Republican administration.

BRITON'S SERIOUS TASK

LONDON, June 29.—It is dawning on Great Britain that unless the political crisis at the Cape is actively and successfully handled the pacification of South Africa may be indefinitely delayed. The putting down of a possible anti-British agitation in a British colony, similar to that which has existed for a century in Ireland, but without the physical force element, is recognized as being a far more serious task than outflanking and disarming the Boers.

A prominent Free Stater, with British sympathies, but with many relatives on the Boer and bond side, said to-day that he believed the bond party would break out into armed revolt were rifles so easily obtained as they were before the commencement of the war.
He has only just come to England from the Cape, and though opposed to the bondites, is respected and trusted by them.

The gravity of the situation caused by Mr. Schreiner's resignation of the Premiership of Cape Colony can be better gauged by this Free Stater's candid opinion than by any censored statement from Cape Town.

The English papers devote many editorials to the question. Those which are inspired show no desire to have Sir John Gordon Sprigg in sole power, and Mr. Schreiner in the opposition ranks, for, apart from the fact that it is doubtful if he can maintain his majority, the opinion prevails at the Colonial Office and is expressed by almost everybody coming from the Cape, regardless of political faith, that Sprigg is utterly unfitted in point of ability to steer the colony out of the present crisis.

AMERICANS WERE NOT THERE.

Washington, June 29.—The Navy Department has just given out the following statement regarding the contents of a dispatch from Admiral Kempff brought to Chefoo from Taku, and forwarded by Commander Tausig of the Yorktown:

"The Department has received a cablegram from Admiral Kempff, dated June 29th. He says the Taku forts were captured by the other foreign forces; that heavy firing was heard at Tien Tsin on the evening of the 17th inst.
He is making common cause with the foreign powers for general protection.
There are 300 Americans ashore. On May 31st the number of foreign troops at Peking was 439. There are 6900 men ashore now at Chefoo, and about 2000 troops—Russian, German and English —have just arrived."

Naval officers generally bitterly regret that Admiral Kempff was not in the fighting at Taku. Up to the receipt of his dispatch this afternoon, they had continued to hope, even in face of the foreign reports to the contrary, that the American naval forces had taken some part in repelling the attack of the Chinese forts. But the Admiral's statement that the forts were
dismissed that hope.

SAN DIEGO COAL STATION.

Washington, June 16.—The Navy Department has decided to establish a coaling station of the second class at San Diego, Cal. This decision has been reached upon a report from Captain Field of the Ranger, announcing the result of a survey of the harbor at the place recently made by him. The report states that the minimum depth of water over the bar at low tide is twenty-one feet and the tidal rise amounts to about five feet, so here is sufficient water for naval vessels of the smaller type. Further the report states that it is entirely possible to coal the largest naval ships in the bay to the east of the harbor entrance, the water there being sheltered from the prevailing winds by the big kilauea, so that lighters could safely lay alongside the warships.

The War Department, which owns the large tract of land to the westward of the harbor entrance, also agreed to give the Navy Department sufficient ground for the station just above Ballast Point and as soon as Captain Field has definitely located the tract desired, the reservation will be announced.

HILO RAILWAY PROGRESS.

Hilo, June 28.—The Hilo R. R. Co. has contracts with Olan and Puna sugar companies for handling their freight between points on the Atlantic and Pacific Coast and the plantations, and in order to expedite the business of loading and discharging vessels in Hilo harbor the company is having constructed a large light draft scow. Master Mechanic Brown is in San Francisco purchasing machinery for the scow as it will be propelled by a large stern wheel operated by an engine. It is expected that the scow will be ready for work in thirty days.—

NOTICE.

To Our English-Speaking Friends:

The Chinese merchants and residents of the Hawaiian Islands, represented by the undersigned, being desirous of providing for their sons a thorough and comprehensive education in English, raised in pledges from August to December, sufficient funds to justify them in undertaking to erect commodious buildings for this purpose in Kamakela. The contract was let and the main building partially completed, when the plague broke out and interrupted the work. As you well know, our countrymen have been the greatest sufferers from this epidemic and the fires connected with it. Consequently those who generously subscribed toward the school enterprise, being called upon to donate large sums for the relief of their fellow-countrymen who have suffered severely from the fire, find themselves unable to fulfill their pledges at present. The main building is now on the point of completion, and the contractor, himself homeless, is in great need of his money.

In this emergency, and because we believe you recognize that our motives in undertaking this enterprise were philanthropic, our object a commendable one, and that we are in no wise at fault for the straits in which we now find ourselves; we therefore solicit such contributions to our present needs as your beneficence will allow. Send all cash or pledges to Wong Kwai, Box 954, Honolulu.

Very respectfully yours,
