Alsen Portland Cement

It is the strongest and most serviceable cement made and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand. It is therefore the most economical.

"ALSEN" has NO EQUAL in COLOR, FINENESS and SAND CARRYING CAPACITY. It WEIGHS LESS PER BUSHEL (measuring about 100 PER CENT. MORE CEMENT TO A BARREL than other brands, which very materially REDUCES its cost as compared with other cements) it is therefore an ECONOMIC cement to use and SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR FINE CONCRETE WORK.

CAPACITY AND SALES.—The output of the "ALSEN" factories is, at the present time, larger than that of any manufacturer of Portland Cement in Europe.

The yearly sales of Alsen's Portland Cement in the United States is greater than that of any other brand. The following test made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the sea wall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equaled by any other cement. It is as follows:

TENSILE STRENGTH PER SQUARE INCH. One day, 14 pounds; Seven Days, 60 pounds; Thirty Days, 85 pounds. For sidewalks it gives the best color and the most durable wearing surface. CONSULS WILL RETURN.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The State Department is taking steps to have all of the American Consuls in China return to their several posts as soon as immediate danger from anti-foreign outbreaks is passed. The attention of the department has been called to those statements emanating from various consuls to the effect that they left their posts at the direction of the department.

The officials say that this is not correct; that the consuls were merely permitted by the department to leave the posts on their own responsibility, if they considered their lives in danger. Now that the danger is passing the department is getting ready to have them go back to their posts and take up their routine work.

ORDER FOR NEW TRIAL

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS AN APPEAL

The Trial Judge Erred in Instructions to Jury in Case of Being on Another's Premises at Night.

A unanimous decision of the Supreme Court constituted by Chief Justice Frear, Justice Galbraith and J. A. Magoon, Esq., of the Bar in place of Justice Perry, has been rendered in the case of Territory of Hawaii vs. Lo Kam, who was convicted in the Circuit Court by a jury of being found on the premises of C. Bolte at night without lawful excuse.

The opinion of the Court is by Justice Galbraith. It sustains the exceptions and orders a new trial. The syllabus of the opinion reads thus:

"Without lawful excuse," in section 270, Penal Laws, 1897, means without lawful authority or a reasonable belief in lawful authority.

"One who goes upon the premises of another, by night, for a lawful purpose, and, on the invitation of one rightfully occupying the premises, without the consent of the owner, remains over night, is not there 'without lawful excuse.'"

The incident on which defendant was accused occurred during plague quarantine, when a Board of Health regulation forbade anyone changing abode without permission of the health authorities. The trial judge charged the jury that defendant violated the law if he was away from his abode at the time without permission. The Supreme Court says, "That part of the instructions relative to the regulation of the Board of Health does not seem to be pertinent to any issue in the case and I think it should have been omitted."

The exceptions sustained were to the charge of the Circuit Judge to the jury, and to the Judge's order overruling motion for a new trial. Lorrin Andrews for the Territory; S. F. Chillingworth for defendant.

FOR SATURDAY SADNESS

BY DIOGENES.

Russia is against the partition of China. Probably the Bear feels able to get away with the whole carcass.

Roberts chasing Kruger is the greatest old men's race on record.

Human ingenuity is generally able to make a shift in the most difficult emergencies, but a man cannot vote without registering any more than he can travel overland from Honolulu to San Francisco.

If, while the Territory of Hawaii awaits legislation to carry out the intent of the organic Act, the Bar places technicalities above the continuity of law and order, the Bench will have the overwhelming support of the community in declaring high public policy as supreme law.

Information Wanted—Of the man who said that the Republicans of Hawaii were premature in organizing. He was last seen in Honolulu the night the Democrats vainly tried to make their brace of roosters crow. His hat was marked with a talk escape through the crown.

Honolulu always has powerful sanitary impulses on receiving days for pestilence. They would come cheaper, however, between these graciously hospitable seasons.
