 are generally perfect and sound, and at all events are a much prettier feature of the mouth than dirty and discolored teeth.

Then again when kept clean and white are less liable to decay which rather is due to thoughtlessness in teeth care.
 All teeth preparations, in a general way are good—we have them all—some better than others.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 28.—The National Afro-American Council met here today with an attendance of 400 of the representative colored men of the United States. Bishop Walters, president of the organization, made his address, which was the feature of the day. He said that the colored race was passing through the most critical period in its history; that great wisdom was needed to guide its destinies, and that the race must stand for its natural and constitutional rights not in combative, revengeful spirit, but in a manly, courageous way. He pleaded for a full recognition of the privileges accorded to every white citizen of the United States, denounced the recent disfranchisement amendments passed in North Carolina and accused the Federal Government of neglect in not protecting the franchise rights of the negro. He admitted that prejudice was on the increase, but urged that it is best to cease resistance and do by education, industry and character what cannot otherwise be practically accomplished. He urged the race to act honorably in politics, and declared that politicians must cease to make the negro a pawn in the political game.

"Some of us have signified our willingness to unite with the Democratic party wherever and whenever they will make advantages for us to do so. Since we have taken the initiative, it is for that party to say whether it desires our votes by a consideration in the way of just legislation and kind treatment. Until the Southern Democracy changes its attitude in respect to the civil and political rights of the negro I do not see how we can consistently help that party into Federal power, and I for one will not do so."
