The Orpheum.

The band turned out in full force outside the Orpheum last night and assisted in interesting the public in the performance. There was a good house and the performance went off without a hitch. Tonight will see the last of the present performers with the exception of Conlon and Ryder and Adams. An exceptional program goes on tomorrow, Thanksgiving evening. The new stars, all late of the Orpheum circuit make their bow to Honolulu, and a crowded house is a foregone conclusion. A little racing drama had been prepared as a wind up for the day and the putting off of the races will not make the choice less interesting. It is entitled "The Faithful Jockey" and Ida Howell will take the title role. There will not be a weak number in the whole entertainment and the performance will be of a high class character throughout, enough clean comedy to please the gallery, singing of every grade, operatic, lyric, character and comic by first class artistes while Miss Alice Raymond's skilled handling of the cornet is as they say at the country fairs and circuses "alone worth the price of admission."

Sailors Cause Disturbance. Three sailors—Henry Oastrom, Hans Olsen and Reinast Robinson—were arrested last night by Lieut. Bollman of the Mounted Patrol and booked at the police station for investigation. It appears that the sailors tried to create a disturbance aboard the Prince Victor at the railroad wharf while the captain of that vessel was entertaining some friends aboard. The men were remonstrated with but they did not heed the warning. The captain thereupon notified the police headquarters.

In the suit of W. F. C. Hasson for dissolution of the Palawai partnership W. Austin Whiting and W. J. Robinson, attorneys for plaintiff, have filed a demand for certain papers on the attorneys for defendants. Count Johann Palffy has offered the Austrian Government his estates in the Palatinate of Presburg, valued at 2,400,000 kronen, or about $500,000, on condition that the income be applied to providing scholarships of from 700 to 1,000 kronen a year for Hungarian students at the universities.
