TAROENA CURES DYSPEPSIA

We have numerous testimonials from people who could not eat food without being distressed, but found in Taroena both a medicine and food. After taking Taroena for a while their stomachs were able to take ordinary food. It gives the digestive organs a rest and effects a cure by creating normal, healthy conditions.

"Being a sufferer from fermentative dyspepsia, I used Taroena. To my surprise, Taroena and my stomach have always remained on the best of terms—to my great satisfaction and comfort.

"JAMES STIMSON, M. D.,
"Watsonville, Cal."

"I am satisfied that Taroena is an excellent food for dyspeptics because I have personally tested it. I shall use it at St. Luke's Hospital.

"C. G. KENYON, M. D.,
"San Francisco, Cal."

"Taroena, in my opinion, is an excellent invalid and baby food, and in the many cases when I have used it, it has always proved satisfactory. I have four patients using it now.

"G. B. BUCKNELL, M. D.,
"San Francisco, Cal."

We have a great many endorsements from medical men all over the world. Every one is favorable to this most wonderful, nature-made food.

The trial jury for the August term of the United States Federal Court will be impanelled tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by Judge Estee. This jury was drawn July 19 and the list has already been published in the Bulletin.

Edwin S. Gill, editor of the Republican, returned in the Sierra. He was highly amused over the effort of the Advertiser to make out he was leaving the country and justly indignant at the Advertiser's attempt to bring his wife into the controversy.

The Kanhi liquor distilling cases will not come up until tomorrow. This makes four or five continuances. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth was so busy in the First District Court this morning that it was impossible to attend to any work in Judge Dickey's court.

Gabriel, the East Indian, charged with assault and battery on Marie Sylva, was this morning sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor. The case was a very bad one. A soldier from Camp McKinley prevented what might have turned out to be a terrible crime.

One of the returning Honolulu people in the Sierra yesterday said that one could not walk along any of the principal streets of San Francisco during the day time without running into Honolulu people at all points. He remarked that the town was full of them.

The cases of Ah Oi, charged with burglary in the second degree; W. D. Hamilton, charged with murder in the second degree, and the three Japanese charged with murder in the first degree and released on writs of habeas corpus, were called in the Police Court this forenoon, but were continued to call, in order to await the action of the Grand Jury.

It turns out that Calhan, the man arrested last night by Officer Doyle on the charge of vagrancy, has, with the assistance of a pal, been holding up people on King street at night time for some time past. Night before last a young lady returning home from work at night was held up by men who answer the description of Calhan and the man seen in his company.

The horse and buggy, piano and other furniture of the Rev. W. K. Azbill were levied on this morning by the High Sheriff on an execution issued in favor of George Lycurgus and Herman Levy. The goods were carted off to Oahu Prison for safe keeping. As they are all mortgaged, the probabilities are that legal complications will ensue over the seizure.

Calhan was arrested by Special Officer Chester Doyle at an early hour this morning. He was discovered with another man just outside the gate of the Burgess premises on King street, near Richards. Both men were trying to sell rings to passers-by. Calhan tried Doyle and Doyle arrested him. The other fellow got away before the officer could act, and, not wishing to lose the first man, he did not dare give chase. The defendant appeared in the Police Court this forenoon, but his case was continued until tomorrow.

Hall Vault Opened.

The vault containing the books, valuable papers and other matter of E. O. Hall & Son was opened last evening after the fire department had thrown enough water on the ruins to cool things off. Although water had entered the vault under the door, it had not risen far enough to do any damage whatever and all the books and papers were found to be in excellent shape.

The work of clearing away the debris began this morning and from present indications, this will be done in about ten days' time. The work of preparation for the new building will then be taken up. Architect O. G Traphagen will prepare the plans and specifications for the new building.

BRITISH EVACUATED.

London, July 27.—Telegraphing from Pretoria, under date of July 26th, Lord Kitchener reports to the War Office as follows:

"A detachment of Steinacker's Horse, occupying Bremersdorp, was forced to evacuate July 24th by a superior force of Boers, probably the commandos from Amsterdam and Pietritrie. The detachment fought its way to Lembobo, a distance of sixteen miles, losing about ten killed or wounded and a few missing."
