base on balls, but was caught at second in an attempt to steal. Hemenway secured base on balls, but got caught at second in a very close decision.

Koki for the Kamehamehas hit safe into left for one base and was caught later on while a little too far off the bag on the way to second. Jones went out on an assist from short to first. Vannatta hit to Loucks at second but on the assist to first. Soper let the ball go through his hands and the runner went on to second. Kahaulelio hit safe between short and third for one base and Vannatta was advanced to third. Kekuewa went out on an assist from second to first. No score.

Seventh—Punahou Tie Score.
In the seventh, Babbitt went first to bat for the Punahous and got base on balls. Loucks followed suit, Kanoni continuing his bad pitching. Myers hit safe into left. Three men on bases. Soper went out on an assist from short to first and Babbitt came home. Score tied. J. Marcellino made first on balls. A. Marcellino flew out to third. Cooke hit into right for what seemed to be a safe one, but Kahaulelio secured the ball and sent it to first for the runner, thus retiring the side with only one run. Score 3 to 2.

Harbottle for the Kamehamehas hit into center for one base. Cooke got base on balls. Anderson went out on assist from second to first (sacrifice). Kanoni struck out. Koki hit to Soper at first for out. The Punahous crawled out of a very small hole in this inning for at one time there were two men on bases with only one out.

Eighth—Score Still 3 to 2.
In the eighth, Perry got base on balls for the Punahous. Hemenway did the same. Kanoni wilder than ever. Babbitt struck out. Loucks flew out to center. Myers flew out to center and the side was retired.

For the Kamehamehas, Jones went out on an assist from pitcher to first. Vannatta flew out to short and Kahaulelio flew out to left.

Ninth Inning—Same Story.
Soper went to the bat first for the Punahous in the ninth inning and made a base hit. A wild pitch by Kanoni advanced him to second. J. Marcellino struck out. Soper was caught at second. A. Marcellino hit safe into right for one base and Cooke struck out.

Kekuewa for the Kamehamehas went out on an assist from short to first. Harbottle struck out and Cockett struck out. This made necessary the first ten inning game of the season.

Tenth—Punahou Win.
Judge Perry for the Punahous once more made base on balls and people began to wonder if Kanoni had any Supreme Court transactions. Hemenway got base on balls. Babbitt hit safe into left for a bag. Three men Anderson hit safe into left for a single. Anderson stole second and then went to third on a wild pitch by pitcher to second. Kiwa struck out.

Sixth Inning—No Runs.
Morgan for the Artillerymen made a single over second in the sixth. Pliney flew out to left. Gay making a splendid running catch. Tobin made first on a fumble by third. Behr flew out on a short fly to catcher. Delisle hit to short, who threw to second, catching Tobin and retiring the side.

Seanton struck out for the Custom House. Tucker made a single between short and third, stole second and got third on a passed ball. Gay made his base on balls. Bowers flew out to second. Wilder struck out. The long looked for run did not arrive and things looked a little brighter for the Artillerymen.

Seventh—Two More Circlets.
Smith of the Artillery team flew out to Moore in the seventh. Bennett struck out and O'Leary went out on an assist from short to first.

Moore made a single into center and stole second and third. Gorman struck out. Anderson flew out on a short fly to third. Kiwa went out on an assist from short to first.

Eighth—Score Tied.
Brown for the Artillery team hit into center for two bags and when he arrived at second, kept right on running without rhyme. As luck would have it, Tucker fumbled the ball and Brown was safe. Morgan went out on an assist from short to first. Pliney hit into left for a high fly, which Gay muffed. This brought Brown in and tied the score. Pliney toppled Moore over at second for a stolen base, the ball went by and the runner went on to third. Tucker failed to get the ball in time to catch the runner. Tobin struck out and Behr flew out to right.

Seanton went to the bat for the Custom House team and struck out. Tucker made a single into center and stole second. Gay made a single into center. Bowers hit to second, who threw home, catching Tucker at the plate. Wilder went out on an assist from pitcher to first and the Custom House team was again shut out.

Ninth—Guessing Match.
Delisle went out on an assist from second to first. Same story for Smith. Bennett flew out on a short pop-up to first.

Al Moore went once more to the bat for the Custom House team and made first on an error by short. Gorman struck out. Anderson hit to the pitcher. Moore tried to steal home and was caught at the plate on a very close decision. Kiwa flew out to center and assured another ten inning game.

Tenth—Same Old Thing.
In the tenth inning, O'Leary made a single. Brown flew out to the catcher and O'Leary was called out, he having attempted to make second the ball getting to first before he could get back. Morgan got first on an error by left. Pliney hit to second and Morgan was caught there.

Seanton struck out for the Custom House team. Tucker got first on a wild throw by third to first. Tucker was caught stealing second. Gay made first on an error by pitcher. Gay got too far off second and was caught. The side was retired without a run, eleven innings were made necessary.

Eleventh—Played in Rain.
In the eleventh, Tobin struck out. Behr flew out to Anderson in right, who made a star catch, falling over but still holding the ball up in the air. Delisle made a single past short and stole second. Smith flew out to second.

Bowers went to the bat for the Custom House and flew out to first. Wilder went out on an assist from second to first. Moore made first on an error by short. Gorman went out on an assist from short to first and a twelfth inning was made necessary.

A One-Handed Catch.
In the twelfth inning, Bennett went out on an assist from second to first. O'Leary made a two-bagger out into left. Brown hit safe into center for a single and O'Leary got third. Morgan got base on balls. Pliney flew out to Moore at second, who threw to first, catching Morgan and making a double play.

Anderson flew out to short. Kiwa flew out to center for a one-handed catch which drew forth the plaudits of the crowd in great shape. Seanton made a single into left. Tucker hit safe into center. Gay struck out. Still no runs.

Thirteenth Inning—Smugglers' Win.
Tobin went first to the bat for the Artillery team, and struck out. Behr flew out to Moore at second. Behr struck out.

Bowers for the Custom House flew out to right and Wilder got first on an error by pitcher. Moore made a base hit which brought Wilder in and won the game for the Custom House. Score, 5 to 4.

Score by Innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13
A. 1 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 4

Bennett Makes Home Run.
In the fifth, Delisle struck out for the Artillerymen and Kiwa did the same thing. Smith, Bennett hit far out into the fatal palm trees back of right and had a home run chalked up to his credit. O'Leary made first on an error by third. Brown struck out. Moore struck out again for the Custom House team. Gorman felt for the ball but was doomed to the same fate.

On Friday night a Chinaman by the name of Ah Lee took it into his head to sleep in the house of a Japanese who lives next to the Makiki fire station on a lot belonging to Mr. Gilman. When the Japanese found the Chinese he remonstrated. The Chinaman drew a knife and the Japanese answered with a couple of revolver shots which failed to take effect. The Chinaman ran away but was arrested later on. He is now out on a bond.
