

STOP THE PAIN!

It tells you that your kidneys and vital organs are breaking down.

When you feel a pain in your back you had better attend to it. These pains are messages telling you of worn-out nerves, weak kidneys and weak vitals.

You know the cause and you know what it means, so look to it in time. Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt will cure in ten days. It restores the warm, healthy life to the nerves and kidneys.

Aloa, Oahu, H. T., Jan. 11, 1902. Dr. M. G. McLaughlin.

Dear Sir: My health is greatly improved by the use of your belt, and I recommend the treatment to all persons who are afflicted with rheumatism. I have spoken to several of my friends who have seen the great change in my health, and I believe you will have some of them under your care. Respectfully yours,

EDWARD B. MIKALEMI.

Every man who has a pain or weakness should have one. It saves doctor bills and lots of trouble. Let me send you my book describing how I cure. Inclose this ad.

PORTLAND IS IN PORT REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

PERILOUS TIME OF IT IN ARCTIC ICE FLOE

Bound In Immense Pack and Battered About At Mercy of Huge Forces-- Story of the Captain--All Safe on Board.

Port Townsend, Wash., July 15.—The steamer Portland, Captain Lindquist, for which fears were entertained in the ice floes of the Arctic seas, came into port this afternoon looking none the worse for her experiences to the north. While conceding that the vessel had a very narrow escape, Captain Lindquist asserts that he felt throughout the trying days of her imprisonment that she would come out all right. His principal fear centered about the time the jam would take place, and the events at that momentous time showed that he had good cause for fear.

When the smash-up occurred the steamer Portland was lifted like a cork high out of the water, held a few minutes, which seemed centuries, on top of the quivering mass, and then the ice settled out from under her and the vessel was dropped violently back into the water, churning up a mighty wave that drenched the packet from stem to stern.

From May 7th until June 27th the Portland was at the mercy of the ice floes, and it that time was carried from latitude 59 degrees 15 minutes north and 168 degrees 2 minutes west to 69 degrees 8 minutes north and 168 degrees 5 minutes west, every passing day having its terror concerning the final dissolution of the floe. The calm determination of Captain Lindquist and his officers went far toward convincing the passengers, and few gave utterance to their fears.

When the pack passed Cape Prince of Wales, four venturesome passengers left the Portland to make their way ashore. After proceeding forty miles, the party returned bearing W. S. Bliss of San Francisco with both feet frozen. This was the only accident marking the entire trip of the Portland.

Captain Lindquist ascribes his vessel's predicament to over-enthusiasm in the race to reach Nome first with tidings from the outside to the people who had been isolated for many months. The Portland being in advance of the procession, was more firmly caught than were the other vessels, which met only the slush ice and were enabled to back out when the pack came down on them. May 29th the heavy pack came down and the Portland was cut off from all possible chance of escape.

Several days later the Jennie appeared on the scene and was soon a prisoner, and the two vessels remained in the ice until June 27th, escaping within a few hours of each other. On June 5th the Portland was carried through Behring straits at a high speed on the floating field of ice, impelled by a strong northerly current. Twenty days later the highest point was reached, the vessel being then 63-08 degrees north and 168-05 degrees west. Two days later the watch from the forepeak shouted, "Clear ahead!" and after that the break-up occurred.

After being raised high and then plunged back again into the icy water, Captain Lindquist knew that the long-looked-for opportunity had arrived, and soon had the Portland backing with all her weight and the full strength of her engines against the apparently insurmountable barriers of the ice between her and freedom. Time after time the plucky vessel bounded back like a ball from the wall of ice, but, nothing daunted, Captain Lindquist persevered, and, after six hours of the hardest sailing ever done by the Portland, she forced the ice apart and went scudding out into her native element.

MARCONI'S LATEST FEATS.

London, July 15.—Marconi, who is on board the Italian flag-ship Carlo Alberto at Cronstadt, Russia, has called to his London office that he has received wireless signals from the Cornwall station, about 1400 miles distant, partly overland. Complete messages were received as far as Slagen, Denmark, about 850 miles from Cornwall.

BELGIAN QUEEN'S RELAPSE.

Brussels, July 15.—Marie Henriette, the Queen of the Belgians, who has been suffering for some time from heart disease, but who was recently reported to be better, has suffered a relapse, and her condition is critical.
