Cathcart's Attack May Kill Every Indictment

A sensational motion was sprung by counsel for the accused in a murder case in criminal court this morning. Attorney J. W. Cathcart, representing Hayashida, a Japanese charged with doing to death a fellow-countryman in Waiakoa, this island, moved that the alleged grand jury indictment be quashed, claiming, practically, that no indictment had been returned, inasmuch as the instrument attacked purports to be the true bill of the "Grand Jury of the Territory of Hawaii." Cathcart contends that there is in existence no such body as the Grand Jury of the Territory of Hawaii, that the inquisition now in session is the "Grand Jury of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii." Indictment is returned by a so-called grand jury "of the Territory" and there is no such body.

SERVED THE MINOR BUT COULD NOT CAPTURE THE AUNT

Judge De Bolt this afternoon appointed E. K. Katama guardian of the persons and properties of two young ladies bearing the names of Kahoopio and Mahoe. The examination of their affairs necessary to the court's disposition of the matter brought out some entertaining facts. It seems that the aunt of Kahoopio very strenuously objected to the girl being taken to court. Upon the arrival of a police officer at their Manoa valley home, this aunt espied the limb of the law from afar and sought to prevent the summons being served. The officer finally managed to get within range of Kahoopio and began to read to her the court's order, but the energetic aunt endeavored to get the young woman away, not succeeding until the document had been read. Then came the aunt's turn to be served. When the uniformed gentleman drew a paper on her she gathered her skirts about her and fled for the taro patches, the officer in hot pursuit. Mr. Policeman did not care to lay hands on the lady, fearing that he might have to answer for assault and battery.

JAPANESE DRIVEN BACK

PUBLIC SERVANTS MUST PAY THEIR DEBTS

Judge De Bolt this morning signed an opinion in the assumpt suit of Ah Hing vs. Ah On, as follows: Defendant, a government beneficiary, to wit: a police officer, admits that he owes the plaintiff the amount sued for, to wit: $154.35 with interest thereon from June 27, 1903, but he contends that the garnishment of his salary in the hands of the Auditor cannot be maintained because Act 53, Laws of 1903, is unconstitutional, "in that it is class legislation and contrary to public policy." In my opinion the point is not well taken. Judgment, therefore, may be entered as prayed for.

BAG OF GOLD NOT ENOUGH FOR BAIL

A quartet of alleged rioters, Chung Lem, Ah Kim, John Doe and Richard Roe, were arraigned in criminal court this forenoon on indictment by the Grand Jury, Deputy Attorney General W. S. Fleming reading the presentment. These men, on September 5th, (Labor Day, by the way) are supposed to have riotously attacked Wong Chuck Lung in the district of Waiakoa. The bill goes on to allege that these men struck terror into the hearts of others and with clubs, sticks, stones and cane knives became tumultuously violent. Bondsmen were on hand with two thousand dollars in good gold coin to obtain the liberty of the defendants, expecting, evidently, that ball above $200 each would not be demanded. In this matter, however, the friends of the accused reckoned without the court, for Judge Gear refused to accept as bond anything less than one thousand dollars cash bond for each man.

Banner Raising IN FOURTH On Friday Night

The banner raising at Republican headquarters in the Fourth District Friday night this week will be the initial campaign gun for the Republican ticket on that side. Arrangements have been made for a big meeting and the Fourth District banner will be unfurled to the tune of high pitched oratory and victorious music. L. A. Andrews, chairman of the Fourth District Committee, will preside and candidates for the Senate and House will address the people. While the assembly room at headquarters will accommodate a large crowd, arrangements will be made to take care of the overflow. The vacant lot between the electric building and the Occidental hotel has been secured for the campaign as an out-door meeting place. Wires are being run and the space will be brilliantly illuminated. A speakers' stand will be erected and accommodations provided for all who wish to hear. This place will be ready for the Friday night meeting and will be used during the campaign for Republican meetings two or three times each week.

Fifth Republicans DECIDE ON Quick Action

At the meeting of the Fifth District Committee last night at district headquarters, a vigorous campaign was decided upon to begin Monday. Monday morning the Oahu Senators will accompany Kuhio on this trip. The party will go by the Fall road to the other side and hold meetings at all places down as far as Waiakoa. They will return from Waiakoa by train. There is also a plan forming to hold a meeting Friday night of this week in the Fifth, at which Delegate Kuhio is to speak. The Waiakoa meeting tonight will be a hot one and will be the Republican opening in the Fifth. The party of speakers will leave on the 3:15 train this afternoon and will be headed by Delegate Kuhio, John Lane, J. M. Dowsett and E. F. Bishop, Oahu's Republican nominees for the Senate, will go down as well as a number of candidates for the House. Waiakoa will be given a Republican house warming tonight. A. B. Lindsay of Honokaa, Hamakua, returned to this city from Kauai in the steamer Mikahala this morning.

GOODS FIND OWNERS

SILVERWARE STOLEN FROM SCHOOL STREET

DETECTIVE McDUFFIE FINDS THAT THINGS SOLD BY NOMURA WERE STOLEN SATURDAY NIGHT.

Detective McDuffie this afternoon discovered that ten silver spoons sold by Nomura to a Chinese were stolen from Henry Herick's place on School street. The set of sterling silver knives and forks were stolen from the residence of H. P. Hughes which is also on School street in the immediate vicinity of the Herick house. It was also found that the watch belonging to Officer Punohu, which was sold by Nomura and recovered this forenoon by McDuffie, was not the one which Punohu lost in a lavatory but another timepiece which was stolen from the officer's house last Saturday night. Punohu's residence is also on School street, close to those of the two other victims. It is quite evident that a thief made a regular raid on the neighborhood last Saturday night. Nomura, however, denies that he is the guilty party. He now maintains that he bought all the articles.

TINY TITLES BRING OUT BRAYMER'S WIT

In preparing the list of voters of the Territory the Secretary's office has experienced with many peculiar names. The Secretary's secretary, James Lloyd, this morning came across something of a curiosity in nomenclature: William Samuela Jime Oliwa Makekau, which might be put into English as William Samuel James Oliver Makekau. Lloyd also discovered what he believed to be the shortest name on record, just plain "I." A. A. Braymer, a stenographer in the office, also working on the list of voters, duplicated the abbreviated title during the course of the morning's work. He also dug up an "I." One "I" lives in the Seventh Precinct of the Fifth District and the other resides in the Tenth of the Fifth. Braymer, who is something of a wit, suggested that the two "I's," the two spectacles, might make a good pair of spectacles if they were combined.

THE WAIANAE MEETING.

E. F. Bishop will not be able to go to the Waiakoa Republican meeting tonight owing to the necessity of his presence at the Fourth District conference of precinct presidents and candidates. Representatives Mabelona and Kalliope will go and make speeches. It is expected that two or three of the representative candidates from the country will join the party.

FOURTH DISTRICT PLANS.

Tonight at the Fourth District Republican headquarters, there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee with the presidents of precinct clubs and candidates to arrange campaign work in that District.
