MAUI LADIES WILL HOLD TWO BAZAARS

[Special to the Bulletin]
Waialua, Maui, March 2.—The officers of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society met last Thursday afternoon at the home of the President, Mrs. T. B. Lyons, and decided to hold another sale of fancy articles in Waialua, June 11th for the purpose of adding to the fund for a new cottage for Brother Frank of the Catholic school. The ladies of Waialua and Kahului have commenced in earnest and before the end of the year a neat new cosy cottage for the veteran Maui educator will be in existence.

The ladies of the Protestant Episcopal church of Waialua will have their sale of fancy articles about next November. These ladies, too, have a very worthy object in view, that of raising funds for the erection of a modern parish church in Waialua in place of the one which has done noble service during the past thirty years or more. Whenever the ladies make up their minds to carry to a successful completion any worthy object they always succeed.

CHIUSA MARU COMING

The Japanese steamer Chiusa Maru left Kobe for this port on April 24, bringing 212 immigrants and 750 tons of freight. She will be held up here for disinfection by the Marine Hospital Service on account of the fact that some of the immigrants were allowed to go on board without having their baggage fumigated. She is due here March 11.

DEAN BOSWORTH SPEAKS ON SUBJECT OF PRAYER

Dr. Bosworth spoke yesterday in the Central Union Church. His subject, "Is a Man Intellectually Justified in Praying," brought forth one of the largest audiences of the day. It is a subject that comes near to all people and many were eager to hear what Dean Bosworth had to say regarding it.

The discourse was most interesting and convincing. The studies drawn by Dr. Bosworth carried a conviction with them that was hard to overcome.

In the evening service a large number of Kamehameha boys and girls were present.

The Dean will speak on two more occasions, once this afternoon at the Central Union church at 4:30 p. m. and tomorrow at the same place and hour.

THE ZOO IS PAU

About the liveliest time the Zoo has ever seen, outside of a prize fight, was at the auction of the animals last Saturday. Everything seemed to go except the wild cat and the two bears. Col. Parker was eager to purchase the bears for the settlement, but McVeigh objected that he had enough on his hands as it was.

Fair prices were paid all through the list. The tea house fell somewhat short of cost price. It cost $500 and only brought $150. It was purchased by Mrs. Cannon. The Rev. Thwing was a lively bidder against Mrs. Cannon but dropped at the $140 mark.

Much genuine regret was expressed that Mr. Gear's enterprise had gone to the wall. A zoological garden is a feature of nearly all metropolitan cities and is usually well patronized but Honolulu people are too much stay-at-home to keep one up in these islands.
