Vierra Strongly Favors C. A. C.-Keio Game At Park

"All that remains now is for the Honolulu League to ratify, and the proposed C. A. C.-Keio game will be a go," said A. K. Vierra, the popular Riverstider, this morning. "I am waiting to see Isenberg or some of the trustees now. It has practically been assured, and I have gone so far as to get uniforms designed for the Riverside Stars, who are to furnish a game with the Santa Claras.

"This will be a good thing for both the Riverside and the Honolulu Baseball Leagues. We could fill the bleachers at Baseball Park with Aala fans. It would be good sport, and no mistake.

"We feel that the C. A. C.'s can put up as good a game as some of the big league teams, possibly, and that they would make a fine showing with the Keios.

"On this same day, we want to have the Santa Claras play with a picked team of Riverside players, which is to be called the Riverside Stars.

"Aala Park has many thousands of enthusiastic fans. There can be little doubt that the introduction of Aala Park teams into these league games will have a great effect in stimulating interest."

His proposition involves the scheme of pitting against each other on the diamond two great nations, China and Japan. The Chinese Athletic Club, which has come into the limelight recently through a proposition to play ball with Santa Clara, which has been distorted into a reported challenge, is a very sportsmanlike body of players, headed by one of the cleverest catchers in this city, Chi Fui Farm, of Punahou fame. They would probably open the eyes of the regular lights of the Ewa bleachers.

As for the Riverside Stars, it is well known that the teams which play beside Nuanuu stream have men for whose services the big league managers have in a case or two valuably bled. Sing Chong is an example. This bunch can be counted on to deliver the goods.

BALL GAMES ARRANGED

Games which will be on for next Saturday and Sunday, according to a decision made at a meeting of the Honolulu Baseball League held this noon, are: Saturday, Riverside vs. Puna; Keios vs. Santa Claras. Sunday, C. A. C. vs. Keios; St. Louis vs. Santa Claras.

From this, it is seen that the Keio-C. A. C. game is taken as an assured thing.

AMERICANS BREAK RECORDS

DUBLIN, Ireland, Aug. 3.—Flanagan, one of the American team taking part in the athletic games here, won the hammer-throw today, making a record of 173 feet and 10 inches. This breaks the record made by him at the London Olympic games. Rose of California won the shot-put with a put of 48 feet 2 inches, which breaks the British record.

The Santa Claras will be back on the Mauna Kea Saturday morning.

Oahu Polo Team To Have Changed Line-Up In Maui Match

The Oahu polo team is going in to win in its coming contest with the Maui aggregation. The personnel of the team will be picked with the utmost care, and every possible practice indulged in between now and the time when the aggregation which is to represent this island leaves on a special steamer for the scene of battle.

The picking of the line-up for this occasion will probably be left entirely to Walter Dillingham, the captain. For the games with Maui, in which the Oahu recently met ignominious defeat at Kapiolani Park, the team was picked by a cumulative vote. It is felt that Dillingham should have a good idea of how the men are working out with him, and that he should pick those who are to support him in these games.

It is probable that some changes will be made in the team. In playing Maui, the Oahu will go up against twelve of the best polo ponies in the Islands. For this reason, a strenuous effort will be made to get together the very best dozen which Oahu can put out.

It was planned to ship out the horses this week, but it has now been decided to hold them over and ship them down on the specially chartered steamer on next Tuesday. This will allow of two more practices, which is all in accord with the plan now strenuously pursued; that of getting the very greatest amount of practice possible before these games.

The team is working out Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at Moanalu. This is an excellent field and much in contrast to that at Kapiolani Park, where the men practiced before the recent games.

NEW TEAM MAY ENTER KALANIANA'OLE LEAGUE

The Kalaniana'ole League meets this evening with A. K. Vierra, as usual. This league will have nothing doing in the ball line until late in the season—probably until December. But just now, things are doing in the line of negotiations for team memberships. Ho Tong is the sole owner, practically speaking, of the Chinese Aloha members of this aggregation. He finds his property something of a white elephant, and it is half expected by the wise ones that Ho will sell out at any old time. There are now several bidders for a place in this league, which is composed of six teams, but it is doubtful where the honor will fall in case Ho does sell his interests.

It must be remembered that these are amateur teams and that there is hardly any return for the drains on the purses of managers. The buying of uniforms and other supplies for eighteen men is no small matter, and the people who take hold of any interests which may come on the market will probably do so in a body.

Incidentally, President Vierra states that he will have only a desirable bunch admitted under any circumstances.

Reilly, Who Has Good Record, Is To Box Mofadden

Charlie Reilly, a lightweight who is well known on the Coast, and who recently arrived in this city on the Alameda, is looking for a match here, preferably with Jack McFadden. And the match is practically assured.

"I heard the boxing game was starting up down here, so I thought I would come down," said Reilly this morning. "I am willing to go on with any of the boys here, but would rather box McFadden. We were matched to box once before in San Francisco, but the match was called off. This was being promoted by the West Oakland Club."

Reilly has been in the ring with some of the classy men in the game, and has quite a record behind him, having lost only two in thirty bouts in which he has figured at one time and another. He has figured mostly in the four-round game. Among the men with whom he has gone into the squared circle is Johnny Murphy, who boxed Eddie Hanlon the other night. He fought two four-round draws with Murphy, and gained the decision in another four-round contest. These bouts were before the California, Manhattan and Occidental Clubs, San Francisco.

There is a proposition to get this boy into the ring with Jack McFadden, as he wishes, this depending on the movements of the red-headed scrapper. Jack has announced his intention of returning to the Coast on the Alameda when she sails tomorrow, but has now promised local promoters that he will stay over. Eddie Tait is back of the affair, with the details to be later arranged.

So it looks as if these boys, who are probably among the best scrappers who ever hit Honolulu, will certainly be seen in the ring some time this month.

Reilly's record, which follows, speaks for itself: Eddie Smith, 4 rounds, draw, San Francisco; Willie Edwards, 4 rounds, won, Oakland; Eddie Smith, 3 rounds, knockout, Oakland; Brick McCaulley, 4 rounds, won, Oakland; Eddie Manase, 2 rounds, knockout, Oakland; Eddie Lovejoy, 1 round, knockout, Oakland; Willie Schultz, 4 rounds, won, San Francisco; Peter Root, 4 rounds, won, San Francisco; Peter Root, 4 rounds, won, San Francisco; Lorrin Brown, 4 rounds, draw, Oakland; Jack Bush, 3 rounds, knockout, San Francisco; Sailor Peterson, 12 rounds, knockout, Vallejo; Jack Higgins, 2 rounds, knockout, San Francisco; Lorrin Brown, 4 rounds, won, San Francisco; Lorrin Brown, 4 rounds, won, San Francisco; Johnny Murphy, 4 rounds, draw, San Francisco; Al Emmick, 4 rounds, draw, San Francisco; Johnny Murphy, 4 rounds, won, San Francisco; Kid Fagen, 3 rounds, knockout, Marysville; Ruddle Moore, 4 rounds, won, San Francisco; Joe Lehey, 4 rounds, draw, San Francisco; Fred Moore, 15 rounds, draw, Vallejo; Johnny Murphy, 4 rounds, draw, San Francisco; Billy Snailham, 4 rounds, lost, San Francisco; Frankie Smith, 4 rounds, won, Oakland; Joe Lehey, 6 rounds, won, Oakland; Dan Webster, 10 rounds, lost, Los Angeles; Willie Conroy, 6 rounds, won, Oakland; Willie O'Neill, 6 rounds, won, Oakland; Willie O'Neill, 6 rounds, draw, Oakland.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

Dick Reuter had to be retired from the box in the first inning Saturday, as he had a badly injured thumb and could not control the ball. Lemon was put in for the last of the inning. He had only one chance in which to redeem Reuter's offerings to the batter, and as his first attempt was not over the pan, the man walked. This was only natural. The crowd yelled when Lemon, an old favorite in the box, came up, but Lota went in at the first of the second, and pitched good ball from that time on.

The Santa Clara ball team left this noon on the Mauna Kea for a trip to the Volcano, which they will have at the expense of the Honolulu Baseball League, though some propositions were made to Hilo, with the end in view that ball-playing in the umbrella town should pay the expenses of this trip.

J. W. Harvey, the well known sportsman and marksman of this city, is now absent on a visit to England, and will not be back until some time this fall.

A little more "home" loyalty won't hurt the "home" teams. They will be expected to turn out good ball when the other fellows are gone.

There is another regatta for the visit of the Pacific Fleet being planned by the genius of the Outrigger Club.

Castle was there with the goods in the box, despite lack of practice.

How about Koyama for the batting kid in the Sunday games?
