Ayer's Hair Vigor

A gentleman residing at Dunedin, N.Z., writes under date Jan. 7, 1907:

"It is with gratitude I write you that I have now a splendid head of hair, both thick and very soft, all owing to my having used your wonderful Hair Vigor. I was almost bald headed before I used the Hair Vigor. I still use it once a day, rubbing it well into the roots of the hair. I used to wear a skull-cap, and I am very grateful to Ayer's Hair Vigor for the improvement it has made in my looks."

Be warned in time. Use Ayer's Hair Vigor and preserve your youth.

SULTAN LIKE A STAGE SHYLOCK

Opens Parliament Dressed In Shabby Clothes And Without a Decoration

Constantinople, Dec. 19.—The scene before the mosque of St. Sofia at the opening of the Turkish Parliament as the Sultan reached Parliament House after a four-mile journey by land exceeded anything that had been imagined beforehand. Thousands of persons were clustered on roofs, piers and buttresses of the ancient church, two minarets even standing on the summit of the dome. Trees, windows and the flat roofs of houses were crowded with spectators. No other such multitude has gathered in Constantinople in 500 years, yet throughout the entire day no disorder whatever was observed.

There was a deadly hush when the Sultan entered his box and everybody stood up. Bent and clad in a shabby overcoat, without a single decoration, the Sultan bore a remarkable resemblance to the stage Shylock, and looked rather like a criminal in the dock than a ruler blessing his people.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

NEW GERMAN SILVER RAGE THIS SEASON.

Have you seen it? It is lovely. It is used for personal adornment. And also for trinkets.

There are oddities for the French cabinets. Tiny caravans come exquisitely carved.

Queer steins show the coat-of-arms on the lid. The belt buckles are fascinating. Three stock pins are correct.

Both cabochons and cut stones are used for settings.

Sets include three long pins for back of collar, one long bar pin for the front of the collar, belt pin, hand-carved lavallier, bracelet set with stones to match the other pieces, belt buckle, earrings with the stone against the ear, and the pendant of silver, and the little finger ring.

LABEL ALL BOXES WITH CONTENTS

In packing away things, make it an invariable rule to label all boxes and trunks with the contents.

It is a good idea to tack an envelope on the inside or outside of the cover, and in it slip a paper containing a list of all that is within.

When anything is taken out, cross it off the list.

This will save countless hours of searching for an article which eludes the most careful hunt.

In packing away hats see that they are not crushed in any way.

Pack plenty of tissue paper around them to exclude any possible dust or light.

ROCCO EMBROIDERY EFFECTIVE ON GOWNS

Rocco embroidery, which is nothing more or less than embroidery done with narrow French ribbon, is especially effective handwork for dressy gowns.

A long-eyed slender needle is best for the work.

Of course, the pieces of ribbon used must be short, for, as the ribbon is drawn directly through the goods embroidered, it would soon become stringy if long.

Usually the leaves of the flowers are made up of but one stitch, consequently the embroidery does not require a great amount of time.

LOTS TO CHOOSE FOR SMALL BOY.

If you want something for the small boy, there is the Teddy bear, that has outgrown his familiar squeak and really grows. There is a lion that roars resonantly. Woolly elephants, donkeys and bears come large enough to be actually ridden. There are many "trained" beasts—for instance, the monkey who, when properly wound up, will act as baby nurse, and the saucy little dog that will run out his tongue at his young master or mistress.

HOW TO BATHE RED EYES.

Very often, when one has a cold, the eyes feel hot and are red and inflamed. The best way to effect a cure is to bathe the eyes frequently with a solution of boric acid and water.

If the eyes do not feel improved after your cold disappears it would be well to consult an oculist.

WELL WHIPPED

"James," said the chef in the big hotel, "fix up two dozen eggs for the cakes." "How do you want them?" asked the scullion. "Fix them a la Roosevelt." "And how is that, sir?" "Why, beaten to a frazzle."

Have this window opening upon the best view from the house. The plate glass gives an effect of constantly changing lights and shadows that greatly enhances the beauty of the view.

Our stock of plate glass, plain and colored glass is the largest in the Territory. We cut to order.
