This elder brother evidently knows how to play doctor, in real earnest. He knows about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His mother told him. Her mother told her, and her grandmother told her mother. It's the one standard cough medicine for children.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
is entirely free from narcotics or poison of any kind. It is the great remedy the world over for colds, coughs, croup, whooping-cough, influenza, la grippe, and all bronchial complaints.
Accept no substitute or cheap and worthless imitation. Be sure you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Put up in large and small bottles.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS IN THE KITCHEN

Fruit Cake
One cup butter, 2 cups molasses, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 2 teaspoons soda dissolved in 1 1/2 cups milk or water, 2 cups raisins (floured), 1 cup currants (floured), 3 eggs, 2 teaspoons cloves (ground), 2 teaspoons cinnamon (ground), 1-2 teaspoon ginger (ground), 1 teaspoon almond extract, 1 grated rind of a lemon. Mix thoroughly and bake in a slow oven. This will keep for a long time if wrapped in a clean cloth. It is not very expensive and is nice to have for unexpected company and for putting in lunch boxes, as it does not dry.

Corn Meal Muffins
One cup of yellow meal, 1 cup of flour, 1/2 cup of sugar, 1 beaten egg, a piece of butter the size of a small egg, a pinch of salt. Dissolve 1 teaspoon of soda in 1 cup of sour milk, and mix with the other ingredients. Drop into buttered muffin rings or patty pans and bake in a hot oven 15 or 20 minutes.

Hot Coffee Syrup For Griddlecakes
Make a syrup of 1 cup of brown sugar, 1/2 cup of white sugar and 1/2 cup of hot water. When the syrup has boiled 2 or 3 minutes add 2 tablespoons of clear, hot coffee. Stir and let boil up once, then place the dish in hot water or over the tea kettle to keep hot until the griddle or waffles are ready to serve. All kinds of griddlecakes are better with hot syrup instead of cold.

Boston Muffins
Mix one-quarter cup of hominy and one-half teaspoon of salt, add one-half cup of boiling water, cover and let stand until the hominy absorbs the water; add one cup of scalded milk to one cup of cornmeal, then add three tablespoons of sugar and three tablespoons of butter; combine mixture, add the yolks of two eggs, beaten until thick as lemon colored, and the whites of two eggs beaten until stiff; sift over three tablespoons of baking powder and beat thoroughly. Bake in hot, buttered iron gem pans.

HOME-MADE CANDIES
Maple-Fudge
Break a pound of maple sugar into bits and pour upon it a cupful of sweet milk. When it has melted the sugar put over the fire; bring to a boil, add a tablespoonful of butter and cook until it hardens in cold water. Take from the fire and stir until it begins to granulate. Then pour into a greased pan. As it cools, mark into squares with a knife.

Peanut Brittle
When the molasses candy, made according to directions, is ready to pull, stir into it while on the fire a great cupful of roasted, shelled, and skinned peanuts; remove from the fire, stir well and pour in buttered platters. As it hardens, cut into shapes.

Nut Candy
Into the kettle with the sugar candy stir, when it is ready for pulling, enough pecan or hickory nut or walnut kernels to make it of the right consistency. Do it quickly, using the spoon as little as possible. Turn out upon a buttered platter.

MANY USES FOR BANANAS
It is claimed that no other product of the vegetable kingdom affords as much nutriment as the ripe banana.
In the native country is taken the place of bread or cereals and is eaten raw, with cream and sugar.
One delicacy is made with bananas and sliced oranges covered with wine and sugar.
The greatest delicacy is "lady fingers," found on foreign markets from March to October.

ENDS OF SOAP SHOULD BE SAVED
Bits of soap should never be flung away, but placed in a glass or china jar until a number have been accumulated.
They should then be dissolved in boiling water into soap jelly which may be used for various purposes. That made from the jar reserved for toilet soaps may be used for the bath, and that from kitchen and laundry purposes.
Care should be taken to see that every bit of soap added to the jar is clean.
It is by no means an uncommon thing to see soap looking anything but attractively clean.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinins Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box.
PARIS MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, U. S. A.
